There is now to be an end of the suspense. She must declare herself, and if she espouses the cause of Germany there will be no delay on the part of the Allies in attending to her case and that of her other ally, the Turk. The atmosphere will be clearer and the whole situation made more satisfactory when there is a definite alignment of the Balkan powers.

The Second Canadian Division is taking part in the British operations on the western battlefront. Already some casualties have been reported. The fact emphasises the need of more mean to keep the Canadian Divisions up to full strength.

The United States gets into the news of the day once more with the announcement that she is not satisfied with the reply of Germany in the matter of the sinking of the Arabic and the destruction of American lives. Germany admits that the submarine commander

Sydney (N. S.), Oct. 3—Charles N. McLeod, of the auditor's staff of the Dominion Coal Company, died at his residence here on Saturday morning after an illness of only one day. The funeral took place this afternoon. The late Mr. McLeod, who was 37 years, of age, was a native of Mulgrave, where he leaves a sister, Mrs. Hedley. He is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Hattle Munn, and two children. Mr. McLeod was to have left Sydney for Springhill the day on which he took ill.

Friends of Herbert S. Randall, motorman in the employ of the St. John Street Railway Company, were shocked to learn of his sudden death yesterday. Mr. Randall, who resided in Main street, dropped on Metcalfe street, near the corner of Albert, at 11 o'clock yesterday norning, shortly after he had eaten lunch at the residence of his sister, Mrs. Amanda Andrews, 71 Metcalfe street.

He died shortly afterwards at the residence of Mrs. Andrews. Coroner Roberts, who viewed the remains, said that
