POISON LIQUOR DEATHS IN B. C. ARE CHARGED

U. S. Citizens' Body of 1,000
Allege Fatalities Under System

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—The Citizens' Committee of 1,000, formed three years ago by prominent men and women throughout the United States to work for general law observance and enforcement, heard an assertion today that deaths from poisonous alcohol are occurring in British Columbia where government control and sale of liquor has been in effect for several years. Although he made no mention of recent deaths in the United States from poisonous liquor, Raymond Robins of Chicago, stated at the annual convention of the committee that fatalities from this cause "continue in wet British Columbia."

Mr. Robins further asserted that the government control and sale of liquor in several Canadian provinces, had revived evils of the liquor in those provinces.

DRY LAW IS ADVENTURE.

Prohibition, he said, was "the greatest social, economic and moral adventure in the political history of the world. Under a few short years of this great advance, even with miserable enforcement, the United States now leads the world in production and increase of wealth, and the general standards of a better human life."

The executive committee's report presented to the meeting praised the British government for its aid in preventing liquor smuggling by British vessels along United States shores.

Mr. Robins declared this year's drive would center around a far-reaching educational campaign with special attention directed to "intensifying sentiment for law observance among young men and women of high school and university age."

ONE nice thing about laying out an air route. It doesn't require much grading and there is no need of detours.

RE-APPOINTMENT REFUSED
SYDNEY, Jan. 6.—W. J. Thebaud, additional inspector under the Nova Scotia Temperance Act for Sydney, was refused reappointment by the city council this evening, a motion for his dismissal carrying by a 7-5 vote.

Inspector Thebaud completed his one-year term on Dec. 31, and sought re-appointment at tonight's council meeting.

HEADS BOOKBINDERS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—John B. Haggerty, of St. Louis, is the new president of the International Brotherhood of Bookbinders of the United States and Canada. He was elected by a referendum vote to succeed William Glocking of Toronto.

Toronto Firm Makes $1,000 On False Order

TORONTO, Jan. 6.—A Toronto brokerage house, by the sale of a block of shares of a mining stock today, which they had bought on a false order, made a profit of $1,000, according to a story in the news columns of the Toronto Star today.

The firm bought the shares on an order received by telephone from Ottawa, which purported to be the contents of a telegram from a prominent citizen of that town. Inquiries showed that the message was a false one, but the firm held the stock until they could dispose of it at a profit.

Wilson Box Start An Electric Mill

The Wilson Box and Lumber Co. Ltd., opened up a new industry yesterday, when the firm started its electric power saw mill at Fairville, which proved satisfactory in every respect. It is the first plant of its kind in this part of the country.

Although it is a separate mill it is proving a valuable addition to the larger steam plant. The machinery is kept in motion by a 50 horse power electric motor, and the plant is capable of sawing four or five carloads of logs daily and manufacturing the same into box boards. This mill will be on operation all winter and when the firm is satisfied that it is a success they will probably start a few more electric mills.

HAS SEVERAL EMPTY BEDS.

It was stated last night that the Saint John Infirmary had several empty beds. The information given on the previous evening to the effect that there were only two semi-private beds unoccupied had referred to one flat in the hospital only. Since the Infirmary accommodation was enlarged with the building of the new wing, it has never been fully occupied.

ON SEMI-ANNUAL TOUR.

W. J. Babe, vice-president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, arrived in the city yesterday from Montreal. He left on the Halifax Limited last evening for Moncton. When interviewed by a Times-Star reporter Mr. Babe said he was just on his semi-annual tour of inspection and found everything working smoothly in this section of the country.

ORMISTON REMANDED.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 6.—Kenneth G. Ormiston, under indictment in connection with the Almeer Temple McPherson case, was granted a third continuance when he appeared in Superior Court this morning for arraignment. The hearing was set for next Monday morning.
