

REPORTS OF THE WEEK BY BOY SCOUTS

THE BOY SCOUT.

St. Jude's Troop. The troop was delighted to welcome our late deputy commissioner, P. B. Waring, as a visitor on the 4th inst., and hope to prove that his words of advice have borne fruit. Two more boys received their tenderfoot badges and the troop is glad to hear that there will soon be examinations for some of the thirty or forty proficiency badges they have prepared for. Living on the West Side, we find it hard to get the examinations. There were two more members added to the troop at the meeting on Thursday, the 11th, and we hope they will soon have some badges to wear on their sleeves.

The troop went over to the city on Tuesday evening and marched up to the Coburg street church, where Prof. Stiles spoke to the boys. The troop enjoyed the talk and when the professor got through the chairman asked Mr. Eamen if he would say a few words. Mr. Eamen stood up and said "Good night." This brought roars of laughter. Soon after the meeting was closed and the troop formed in line and marched to the ferry. There they were dismissed and went to their homes.

St. Paul's Troop. St. Paul's troop met as usual in their quarters at the school room on Tuesday evening and after calling of the roll and settling of all necessary business, the troop fell in and marched up to the Coburg street Christian church school room and there they listened to a fine lecture by Professor Stiles, which they enjoyed very much. After the lecture Professor Stiles told the boys some humorous stories and taught them some short songs which they soon picked up and joined in heartily.

The troop basketball team is doing fine work and keeping up the good name of the troop by winning all of their games so far. A game was played on Monday evening with St. Mary's team, and they easily won with a score of 17 to 7. The names of the boys playing on St. Paul's team are: Bayburn Jack, Fred Strong, Roy Barton, Frank Thompson, Ralph Shannon and Alfred Hood. All are first class players. The troop hopes to be able to take a trip out to their cabin at Dark Lake on next Tuesday evening, if the weather is good enough, under the charge of their scoutmaster, Norman Bels, who is doing fine work and quickly getting the troop into first class shape.

Centenary Troop. Troop No. 14, Centenary Methodist, met on Friday evening with a good attendance. Several of the scouts passed their second class test in first and second class. There were several investigations. Patrol Leader Stanley Goodwin received his first class badge and expects to have his King Scout by Christmas. Scout Ronald Hart received his ambulance proficiency badge, and Scouts Ted Stears and Russell Henney received their second class badges. Troop Leader Gordon Adams received his botany's proficiency badge for which he passed last summer at camp, but he had to make several canoe trips to finish the requirements, which was done with A. Macintosh, going down the bay for several miles on different occasions. No-

SCHOOL CLOSING AT LORNEVILLE OF MUCH INTEREST

The school closing exercises of Districts 10 and 11 were very interesting occasions. In No. 12 school house at 2 o'clock exercises consisting of songs, recitations, etc., were given by the scholars, and were greatly enjoyed by all present. Some examination work was also carried out. The district is sorry to lose its efficient teacher, T. Dunham, but wish him every success in his new sphere of labor.

At 2.30 p. m. the scholars, together with the friends of the district, gathered in No. 11 school house, where a very pleasant evening was enjoyed. The programme consisted of songs, dialogues, duets, etc., and was well carried out by the scholars. Some of the numbers were especially interesting, for example, a lullaby song in which four little girls took part, singing and rocking their babies to sleep. A very pretty picture was presented by these young mothers.

While the programme was being carried out, jolly old Saint Nicholas arrived, and lighted up a well laden Christmas tree, his merry old face just beaming with good cheer.

At the conclusion of the programme, Rev. W. J. Bevis presented two special prizes, donated by the DeMotts Chapter of the L. O. E. E., to the two successful scholars, Miss Pearl Dean and Miss Mildred McAvour, who had won them for general efficiency during the term. Santa then stripped the tree, presenting to each scholar a bag of good things. The scholars also gave their teacher, Miss Armstrong, a surprise, for Santa produced somewhere from his pack a beautiful cabinet of stationery. Though taken by surprise, the teacher was cheered by this evidence of the scholars' good will.

Before the meeting broke up a hearty vote of thanks was given to the DeMotts Chapter of the L. O. E. E. for their generosity in providing the school with a library and special prizes as mentioned. No better or more useful work could be done by this society than to stimulate interest in education. The meeting closed with the singing of the flag and the singing of the National Anthem.

The funeral of Mrs. F. P. Dennison was held yesterday afternoon from the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel West, Moncton. Rev. David Hutchinson, D. D., pastor of the Main street Baptist church of this city assisted Rev. Green of the Moncton First Baptist church. Rev. J. McPherson of Sussex and A. H. Patterson, treasurer of the Tabernacle Baptist church, and also several ladies of this city, attended the funeral.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRE

The reformers' party in New Zealand has won its election with fifty seats against a combined opposition of Liberals, Labor and Independents, amounting to thirty. A plebiscite on prohibition is as yet incomplete, but seems to indicate it being carried. Sir Joseph Ward lost his seat.
Members of the United States Senate are of the opinion that payment of interest due the states from foreign countries in their depreciated coinage instead of on the dollar basis, would be useless. The current interest from Great Britain, France, Italy and other countries is $45,000,000 a year.
L. W. McGill, M. S. C., director of technical education for the dominion, is touring the maritime provinces in connection with the recent federal grant for that work. He interviewed W. S. Carter, chief superintendent for New Brunswick, at Fredericton.

POLICE COURT.

Further evidence was taken in the case against Louis Corey, charged with misappropriation of funds. The cross-examination of Sydney L. Kerr was carried out by W. M. Ryan, who is acting as counsel for the defence. Mr. Kerr produced a book in which entries transactions were made, he said, from memoranda furnished by Corey. An item was read which stated that as partner had deposited with the Canadian Bank of Commerce $600, a total of $800. On being questioned by Mr. Kerr, Mr. Kerr said that this entry was not correct, as only $800 had been deposited. Other papers were produced, including a statement from Corey showing several amounts paid out, and this was placed in evidence, after some objection had been taken by Scott E. Morrell, who is conducting the prosecution.

Mr. Morrell asked for a further postponement, as he desired to bring an other witness from Albert county who would testify that people, who were supposed to have received money from Mr. Corey, were not there to get it. It was decided to put the case over until January 16, as Mr. Corey desired to go to New York on business.

Hilda Trites and James Wilson were before the court on similar charges, and both cases were postponed until Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock. They were charged with being concerned, with another person, in passing worthless checks. In the case of Wilson, Miss Arnold and two of the clerks in Arnold's department store, 96 Charlotte street, told of the defendant coming into the store, in company with another, and getting a sweater, for which a check was tendered. In the case of the girl, Detective-Biddiscombe told of arresting her in the Union station in consequence of information received.

In the case against George Danford under the liquor act, the magistrate said he would give a decision later.

MOIR'S CHOCOLATES

CHOCOLATES are a seasonable Christmas gift suitable for old and young. You may hesitate about giving jewelry, but it is always proper to give chocolates.

Moir's Chocolates represent the highest achievement in candy-making. The large variety of delicious centres, the tempting flavor of the chocolate coating, the unusual attractiveness of the package, are unequalled.
