House Cleaning

When you conduct your Spring House Cleaning it is a wise precaution to use a disinfectant. Do you realize that ASEPTIC SOAP or ASEPTIC SOAP POWDER are the best for all household work and in addition are the only ANTI-SEPTIC Laundry Soaps made, and when you use them you are at the same time sterilizing every article washed? Consider the labor saved. The Germicide used in Aseptic products stands at the top of all antiseptics. In addition they are associated with Canada's greatest Premium plan. Your dealer sells them.

NO TREAT TO HIM.

John K. Tener, the new governor of Pennsylvania, is an inveterate smoker and choice as to his selection of cigars. Lighting a Havana recently, he said: "The Londoners are indifferent about their tobacco—indifferent and blasé, like an omnibus conductor I saw in Oxford street."
"You know the London omnibus? It is a double-decker. If you sit on top you must go up and down by a very steep stairway."
"Well, this blasé conductor pulled up his heels at Regent Circus, and the ladies bound for Peter Robinson's eagerly got out. But one fat lady who had been sitting on top, came down the steep and winding stairs very slowly. Her skirt slipped round her ankles, and at every step she stopped and thrust it carefully down. The conductor waited with a bored expression, his hand on the bell-rope, but he lost patience when the fat lady stopped for the fifth or sixth time to thrust down her billowing skirts and he burst out angrily:
"Now, then, lady, hurry up, can't you? Figgers ain't no treat to me!"

THE ENTHUSIASTIC
SEND OFF FOR SIR
WILFRID IN OTTAWA

(Ottawa Free Press)

"Will he no' come back again?"
Lighted by three hundred voices that plaintive melody rang forth clear and loud, echoed from the station walls only to be lifted back again, as Sir Wilfrid Laurier, premier of Canada, starting for England to attend the imperial conference and the coronation, with a smile on his face and hat in hand stood on the back platform of his private car in Union Station last evening, and was wished "bon voyage" by his many friends.

And truly it was a grand send-off. At least 300 well wishers of the premier, among them senators and senators' wives, members and members' wives, Liberals and—yes even Conservatives, turned out to say au revoir to the biggest man in Canada.

As soon as Sir Wilfrid appeared, which was shortly after 6 o'clock, there were three cheers and a tiger led by Hon. Mr. Pugsley, who, devoid of parliamentary cares, seemed to be in an exalted mood. A road was opened up for Sir Wilfrid to his car but he was not allowed to get there. Not a bit did he care, he had gone half way the road was blocked and the crowd surrounded the premier with outstretched hands.

Dr. Clark Led Singing
Sir Wilfrid did his best to rise to the occasion, but no mortal could have shaken everybody's hand. Sir Wilfrid's arm was going like a pump-handle for the next five minutes, but many had to be satisfied with a nod and a smile.

Those of the crowd who could not get near enough to the premier to grasp his outstretched hand began singing "O Canada." Then there were three more cheers and a tiger. Then, "Will he no' come back again," was begun in the deep tones of Dr. Clark of Red Deer, only to be snatched up by the crowd.

One would have thought that the crowd would have been stumped on the line "Bonny Charlie's gone awa," but no the melody rolled on and instead "Bonnie Charlie's Bonnie Wife" was substituted with even better effect.

"I'll try," shouted Sir Wilfrid after the singing was concluded.
Then, of course, there were three more cheers and yet three more followed by, "For he's a jolly good fellow." Meanwhile Sir Wilfrid was in danger of losing his life, the crowd was pressing him so closely. He could scarcely raise his arm to shake the ring of hands so closely was he encompassed.

Finally he escaped to the back platform of his car and again the singers beseeched him to come back. He waved his hand, then the train drew out from Union Station the crowd with gentlemen waving hats and ladies waving handkerchiefs. A verse of "God Save the King" while Sir Wilfrid bowed and waving his adieu was slowly drawn away.

ARE YOU ANEMIC OR BLOODLESS?

If so, the Spring is a Most Trying Time for You—Your Hope Rests in Getting the Blood Rich and Red by Using

DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD

Shortness of breath and fatigue with slight exertion, failure of the vital organs to properly perform their functions, and pallor of the gums and eyelids, are among the indications of anemia or bloodlessness.

The blood is thinner and more watery in the spring than at any other season, and for this reason the person who is subject to anemia or lack of blood, suffers the most.

You must increase the number of red corpuscles in the blood, and this can best be done by using the treatment does not merely stimulate the organs to renewed activity, but cures by building up the system. For this reason its benefits are both natural and lasting.

Sleeplessness, indigestion, neuralgic and sciatic pains and weakness and irregularities of the vital organs become a thing of the past when Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is used.

It is only natural that you should get strong and well when this building-up treatment is used, for it supplies to the blood in condensed and easily assimilated form the elements which to go form new, rich blood.

Your digestive system has failed to extract sufficient nutrition from the food you eat, and hence the necessity of such direct nourishment as is supplied to the blood by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50c a box, 60c for $2.50, at all dealers or Edman, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.
