

February 14th—A paper was read by James H. Coyne, Esq., President of Ontario Historical Society, entitled, "A Century of Achievement."

March 14th—David Boyle, Esq., Secretary of Ontario Historical Society, read a paper entitled, "Human Paradoxes."

The thanks of this Society are due to the ladies and gentlemen who have so ably assisted in keeping up the interest in historical work by these addresses and papers; to the Royal Society of Canada, with which this Society is affiliated, for its annual volume of valuable papers; to the Clerk of Parliament, for copies of Votes and Proceedings and Reports of Dominion Parliament; and to the Legislature of this Province for its generous grant, which has enabled us to publish our volume of transactions.

The present membership of the Wentworth Historical Society is about 70. We look forward to the coming year with anticipations of increased strength and the hope that much good work may be accomplished.
