

EXTRACTS FROM REPORT FROM BRANCH SOCIETY
CONTINUED.

From T. A. Williams, Secretary, Toronto.

BIBLE AND TRACT
DEPOSITORY.

The Depository of the Toronto Bible Society and the U. C. Religious Tract and Book Society has (in consequence of Mr. Cathcart being unable longer to continue Depository) been removed to 23 Yonge Street, where the religious public will always find an assortment of Bibles and Testaments, and the Books and Tracts published by the London Religious Tract Society.

JAMES CARLESS,

Depository.

The price at which the Bibles and Testaments are sold have been revised, and some of them reduced.

From James Hills, Secy., Richmond Hill.

Our Society prepared well for the late year; and it has been probably better off than the year ending second Monday of January last. A notice is now published of the arrangements made for the subscription for the year 1851, and some have paid their contributions to the Society.
