and should not be confounded with them. The Japanese Population of B. C. Mr. King devotes an interesting chapter to his investigation and deductions under the above classification and seems to have taken great pains to arrive at accurate data. The census of 1901 showed the total immigrant Japanese population of Canada to be 4,574, of whom 4,515 were in British Columbia, while many were subsequently it must not be forgotten that the figures of the immigration department do not distinguish in the list of arrivals reported as immigrants, the numbers of Japanese who have previously resided in Canada. This number has become considerable of late. Many of the Japanese who are engaged in the fishing industry go back to Japan at the end of one season, returning at the beginning of a new one. Mr. Morikawa, the Japanese consul at Vancouver, informed Mr. King that during the past year (1907) he issued 1,568 certificates to Japanese returning to Japan. It is probable that most of these intended to return to Canada, the certificates being to enable them to secure passports when they returned to Japan. In estimating the figures of the last few years, they must be borne in mind, therefore, that they do not relate to new arrivals only, but include an increasingly large proportion of returning Japanese.

On a calculation such as the foregoing, without making any allowance for the number of Japanese who would properly be classed as former residents, or for such of the number as may have gone to the United States, returned permanently to Japan, or died in this country, it would appear that between 4,000 and 4,500 would represent more than could possibly have come to Canada from the time of the taking of the census of 1901, up to January, 1907. Supposing that 3,000 Japanese became residents of the province of British Columbia during this time, by adding this number to the total in the province at the time of the last census—which on the assumption that all Japanese increased in the census of 1901, appears that the total number of Japanese in British Columbia at the beginning of 1907 would have been about

Table with columns: Month, Japanese, Chinese, Hindus, Arrivals, Months. Rows for January through October, and Total by ports of arrival and Total by nationalities.

From the above table it will be seen that during the ten months ending October, 1907, the steamships of the Pacific brought to our shores in all 11,400 Orientals, of whom 8,125 were Japanese, 2,047 Hindus and 1,226 Chinese. These are the totals. They embrace all who were brought, including such as were not allowed to land, some who were subsequently deported, some who were former residents, and those who came via Canada and gained admission later into the United States. These totals are of course greatly in excess of the number of actual immigrants

DOCTOR'S ALL AGREE THIS TIME.

The most eminent writers on Materia Medica, whose works are consulted as authorities and guides in prescribing by physicians of all the different schools of practice, extol, in the most positive terms, the curative virtues of each and every ingredient entering into Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. In fact it is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for the cure of all diseases of the mucous surfaces, as nasal catarrh, throat, laryngeal, and bronchial affections attended by lingering, or hang-on-coughs that has any such professional endorsement—worth more than any amount of lay or non-professional testimonials. Do not expect too much from the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It will not work miracles. It will not cure consumption in its advanced stages. No medicine will. Nor is the "Discovery" so good for a sudden attack of acute cough, but for the lingering, obstinate, hang-on-coughs, accompanying catarrh, throat, laryngeal and bronchial affections, it is a most efficacious remedy. In cases accompanied with wasting of flesh, night-sweats, weak stomach and poor digestion with faulty assimilation, and which, if neglected or badly treated are apt to lead to consumption, the "Discovery" has proven wonderfully successful in effecting cures.

Besides curing all the above distressing ailments, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a specific for all diseases of the mucous membranes, as catarrh, whether of the nasal passages or of the throat, bronchitis, and all the various stages it will yield to this sovereign remedy if its use is persevered in. In Chronic Catarrh of the Nasal Passages, it is a most efficacious remedy. It is used while taking the "Golden Medical Discovery" for the necessary constitutional treatment, to cleanse the passages from two or three times a day with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. This thorough course of treatment cures all chronic cases.

If you have bitter or bad taste in the morning, poor appetite, variable bowels, tongue, foul breath, constipated or irregular bowels, feel weak, easily tired, despondent, frequent headaches, debilitated, or feel "small of back," gnawing or distressed feeling in stomach, perhaps nauzeous or other cutaneous affections, eruptions and other cutaneous affections, it is well to take the "Golden Medical Discovery" regularly and stick to it until you are vigorous and strong. Foul, impure blood can be made pure by the use of the "Golden Medical Discovery." It enriches and purifies the blood, thereby curing pimples, blotches, eruptions and other cutaneous affections, as eczema, tetter, or salt-rheum, hives and other manifestations of impure blood. In the cure of serious swellings of the enlarged glands, open eating ulcers, or old sores, the "Golden Medical Discovery" has performed the most marvelous cures. It is well to apply to the open sores Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve, which possesses wonderful healing potency when used as an application to the sores in conjunction with the use of "Golden Medical Discovery" as a blood-cleansing constitutional treatment. If your druggist does not happen to have the "All-Healing Salve" in stock, you can easily procure it by enclosing fifty-four cents in postage stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, at Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post. Most druggists keep it as well as the "Golden Medical Discovery" in stock. Not only does the wrapper of every bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the famous medicine for weak stomach, torpid liver or biliousness and all catarrhal diseases wherever located, contain printed upon its inside English full and complete list of all the ingredients composing it, but a small book has

7,500. Mr. King thinks that the total number was considerably less than this.

The commissioner gives the following classification of Japanese arrivals at Canadian ports during the ten months ending October 31, 1907. Total arrivals, 8,125. 1. Rejected, 77. 2. Admitted to United States, 4,619. 3. Remaining in Canada, 3,429. 1. From Hawaiian Islands, 2,779. 2. From Mexico, 1,641. 3. From Japan, 1,641. 1. Under agreements with Tokio Emigration Company, 900. 2. Immigration to United States rejected by United States officers and allowed to remain in Canada, 151. 3. Persons formerly resident in Canada (approx.), 300. Other classes: 1. Merchants, officers, students and travellers (approx.), 100. 2. Relatives or friends of Japanese (approx.), 190. The Tokio Emigration Company and the Canadian Nippon Supply Co. While the above facts are interesting by far the most engrossing portion of Mr. King's report is that which deals with the operations of the two companies and allowed to remain in Canada. The Tokio Emigration Company and the Canadian Nippon Supply Co. While the above facts are interesting by far the most engrossing portion of Mr. King's report is that which deals with the operations of the two companies and allowed to remain in Canada.

The three corporations which seem to have been solicited were the Tokio Emigration Company and the G. T. P. In regard to the first two contracts were secured; with regard to the G. T. P. they were unsuccessful. The officers of the company refusing to deal. The late E. G. Russell did furnish a letter practically cancelling the contract, but his action was repudiated by the other officers. Early in 1907 Gotoh and Yoshi were in Japan and there found that the Japanese government had issued regulations forbidding emigration and making an exception only in the case of emigration companies who wished to do so, producing at the same time a duplicate certificate of indefeasible title to the land, issued to the Tokio Emigration Company in Japan a copy of an agreement which you had with some company here?—A. Yes.

The Tokio Emigration Company would make application to the foreign office to allow passports to be issued to the laborers who were to work under the agreement?—A. Yes. "Q. And in order that the agreement should be certified by the Japanese consul in this country?—A. Yes, in this country. "Q. As a bona fide agreement?—A. Yes. "Q. Then it is necessary for you to show any agreement you may have to the Japanese consul so that he may verify any of the statements of the emigration company may make in Japan?—A. I have to show to produce a duplicate to the Japanese consul at the time when I ask for my address on the southeast corner of Section No. 2, Township No. 24, thence east 80 chains, thence west 80 chains to the point of commencement, and containing 640 acres more or less.

The business of the Canadian Nippon Supply Company appears to have been conducted from start to finish with an attention to details on which it would have been difficult to improve if the laborers in its employ the company appears to have been fair and just, and the charges made for its services, all things considered, appear to have been entirely reasonable. As an arrangement between corporations and large bodies of inexperienced foreign laborers, it is doubtful whether a more perfect system could be worked out to the advantage of all parties concerned. By its contracts, the company undertook to furnish men at the locality desired and to supervise their welfare while employed. Not only were the laborers thus supplied, but interpreter and foremen, under whose direction they were to work. The contract called for payment of the labor at a certain rate. The company to whom the labor was supplied, instead of being put to the trouble of engaging as individuals the laborers furnished, was relieved of all responsibility on this score by making payment in a single cheque to the Canadian Nippon Supply Company for the labor it had supplied in accordance with the terms of the contract. The individual laborers were then paid by the Nippon Company in accordance with the agreement arrived at between the company and themselves. This agreement varied but slightly in particular cases. In the arrangement was as follows: The company charged the men it supplied with work a fee of $1 a month for its services in having secured their employment and to compensate the company for the expense to which it had been put in office management, the securing of contracts and the like. The wages paid the men appear to have been the same Vancouver, Jan. 25.—In an effort to cure himself of the drink habit, Robert Kellond, a former lawyer, deliberately stole a suit of clothes, laid the information for theft against himself, and then, to cap the climax, personally appealed to the magistrate to send him to jail for six months. The court granted his request, and gave him six months with hard labor.

The man from whom Kellond took the clothes was Albert McLean, a boarder at one of the downtown hotels. He had been drinking hard, and despite his efforts to keep away from the glass he would always succumb to temptation. Kellond is one of the ablest lawyers who has appeared in the police court when he got mixed up in a partnership affair and pleaded his own case successfully. At that time there was considerable comment as to his ability as a lawyer, and the magistrate took occasion to inform him that he was too brilliant a man to be in such a place.

"It is that demon drink," declared Kellond to-day. "I can't seem to get away from it, and I want you to send me down for six months at least. I have been a fool, but I couldn't help it." Kellond is the man who declared that the gold cure was nothing more than a nerve, soul and body destroying treatment.

J. A. Macdonald Immigrant The Leader of the literature Department

(From To-day's Dominion) Speaking in the legislative assembly yesterday afternoon, J. A. Macdonald, of the opposition, discussed the question of immigration. His speech was the most statesmanlike and legislative in this session. He dealt with the methods of the demand for more members in the House, and notably is so prevalent with the government, made it most convincing one. It was on the debate on the second immigration bill of the general session.

To show what had taken place, he reviewed the two political parties on the immigration bill of the general session. He thought the attitude of the party well understood in the House, and that it had been enunciated on the House as well as in the bill when it was before the last year. He deprecated the attempt of the attorney-general to speak in the House as well as in the Dominion government, and to defend the Dominion government. But if any fault lay in the House as well as in the Dominion government, it was in the House.
