WHITE SOX ARE CHAMPIONS.

CHICAGO, Oct. 14.—The Chicago club, of the American Baseball League, is the champion of the world. By is the champion of the world. By winning today's game, eight to three, against the local club of the National League the Americans earned the right to float the world's championship pen-nant as well as the pennant of the American League, to ride to the ounds next season in carriages and to have "World's champions" lettered on the blankets worn by their horses. Today's game was the sixth of the ries and the fourth victory for the

When the last National batsman had When the last National batsman had gone out a crowd surged around the box wherein sat Charles W. Murphy, president of the losing club. He smiled at requests for a speech and said: "The best team won. Too much praise cannot be given to President The day was warm—the first real baseball weather of the series. Twenbaseball weather of the series. I well-ty-five thousand people went to the National League grounds, and at 1.40 o'clock, fifty minutes before the time set for play to begin, the selling of tickets ceased. Comisky and Captain Jones and the team which by unprecedented pluck climbed in midseason from seventh lace to the top of their own league and then topped off that great accom-plishment by winning the world's championship from the team that made a runaway race of the National League contest. I call for three cheers for Comisky and his great team." Cheer after cheer followed this speech.

but they were lost to the hearing of most of the crowd which was busily cheering other things-the individual players, the players collectively, and bing said players on the backs with such enthusiasm that everyone of them had to fight a way out to the waiting carriages. And cheers for the losers were not lacking. They had lost the greatest distinction which baseball offers but are still a great team and the crowd which followed their carriages through crowded blocks did not spare their throats in saying

CHICAGO, Oct. 13 .- Out of a bedlam CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—Out of a bediam of errors, long hits, vanquished pitch-ers and the vociferations of frenzied spectators the Chicago American League team emerged victorious over the Nationals today, 8 to 6. The Americans won in spite offive bad errors, which were accountable for nearly all the runs made by the Na-tionals. The Nationals lost because they could not hit Waish's spit ball delivery. The Americans fielded like amateurs, and the Nationals, who fielded perfect-ly, batted very much in the negative. The day was warm—the first real LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 13.-The 34th
