BLACKMAIL STORY DENIED. Interpreter Bernstein Contradicts Immigrants Story Says the Whole Thing Was a Put Up Job by Enemies of His in Halifax.

The Star last Thursday published a statement that an immigrant who gave the name of Israel Garra, accusing Joseph Bernstein the immigration interpreter at Halifax, of blackmail. Mr. Bernstein, who is in the city today indignantly denies the story.

According to Mr. Bernstein's account, this immigrant, who in Halifax gave the name of Barnat Marvill, came to Quebec on the steamer Dominion and arrived in Halifax from Quebec on October 1st, in search of employment. He told Immigration Agent Annand that he was a cabinet maker and was directed to the Nova Scotia Furniture Co. On returning, he said he was unable to obtain work there, and expressed his desire to return to Montreal.

After the immigrant had gone Mr. Bernstein wired to Immigration Agent Miller, at St. John, that Marvill had refused to pass the United States inspection there. That was all he had to do with the matter.

Mr. Bernstein is of the opinion that this immigrant was encouraged to act as he did by some enemies of his in Halifax. Mr. Bernstein has been fourteen years in the immigration service, and bears certificates of efficiency from Dr. Montisambert and other prominent officials.

GRAIN SHIPMENTS AT HALIFAX. Their Elevator Will Be Filled This Winter With Wheat for the Allan Line.

In view of the statement of Mr. Tiffin that no arrangement had been made by the I. C. R. to furnish the Allan Line with freight at Halifax, and of the declaration of the Allan Line that little freight was offering there, the following from the Halifax Chronicle is interesting:

There will be some bustle and life about the I. C. R. elevator at Deep Water Terminal during the coming season, for the depositors of grain will be used in real earnest from the latter part of November until the snow melts in the spring. This will be the first year that the elevator has been put to permanent use and its opening really marks the inauguration of shipments from Halifax on a substantial scale of the products of Canada's great western wheat fields.

I. C. R. Terminal Agent Duxton told a Chronicle reporter yesterday that the Allan line Bavarian, which would be due here about November 21, would load grain, and he had written for instructions about getting the elevator in readiness. He declared that all the Allan liners loading here would in all probability carry grain as it was really necessary in order to steady the vessel. Deals could not be loaded quickly enough.

Mr. Duxton also expects that some of the Furness line boats and also those of the Pictou & Black line will load grain here this winter and he further expects that vessels of the C. P. R. fleet, which are expected here to load apples, will take a considerable quantity of grain. Altogether the elevator should be pretty busy this winter.

Mr. Duxton says that all the passengers coming on the Dominion and Allan lines this season will be landed at Halifax instead of some at St. John, as in former years. The Hamburg American line will also land all its passengers at Halifax this year.

"Well," remarked the new office man, patting himself on the chest, "the boss hasn't found any fault with my work so far." "No," replied the old book-keeper, "he told me he didn't have to find any fault with it was evident that there was no need of looking for it."—Cincinnati Times-Star.
