ANOTHER LANDMARK IS BEING REMOVED.

The Old Schoolhouse in Waterloo Street is Today Being Torn Down—It Will Be Remodelled.

Work has been commenced in tearing down the old school building which is situated on Waterloo street, near the entrance to Centennial school. This building, which is one of the landmarks of St. John, was erected by the people of St. Mary's church, as a benevolent institution, and later passed into the hands of W. C. Simpson, formerly a school teacher.

hands of W. C. Simpson, formerly a school teacher.

Many citizens of St. John will remember happy days spent in this old institution. For some years past the building has been used by the school board, as a place of storage, and desks, chairs, etc., have been placed there, after they have been condemned.

The workment this morning were engaged in clearing out the contents of the building. A number of the desks at which some of the older citizens of this city sat and puzzled their brains over questions of arithmetic, etc., are worm-eaten and decayed, and look as if they are ready to fall apart.

The building is to be practically built over, and when completed, will be used as a manual training school. There is a slanting roof on the building and this will be taken off, and another story added. It is expected that the building will be ready to accommodate the manual training department when the winter sets in.

Going to Meet Their Father

The following appeared in the Boston Globe of Tuesday last: brother and sister, left the South station this afternoon headed for San Jose, Calif., to meet their father, whom they have not seen for 10 years. They are making the trip alone, and have the liveliest anticipations of a glad reunion at their destination. The boy is Christ Roydon agged 14 and his sis-Curtis Bowden, aged 14, and his sister's name is Blanche Bowden, aged 13

The father to whom they are going is Frederick J. Bowden, an electrician at San Jose. The maiden name of Mr. Bowden's first wife was Hanson, She A garden party in aid of the Church f England will be held at Mr, Mcliveen's, Red Head, on Saturday afternoon, August 25th. Buckboards leave wick. They have lived there the past Haymarket Square at 2.30. Should the weather prove unfavorable the garden party will be held on Monda; I held the last two summers have been spent with an aunt, Mrs. W. N. Bucknam, at Eastport, Me.

Mr. Bowden married his first wife's sister, and they are now living in San Jose. He had contemplated coming east to take the children to his Califoreast to take the children to his California home, but the earthquake in April damaged his house and other buildings and home affairs have since required his constant attention. So he decided to send the children by the Burlington route in a personally conducted party in charge of Joseph Willet. Mr. Willett has made just such trips about 20 times and it care of the work experience.

VILLAGE ON THE PIKE. Resident States That the Threatening Letter to Mayor Sears Nay Not Be Altogether a Joke.

Some days ago Mayor Sears received Fred. G. Spencer left this morning for upriver points. He will go as far as Woodstock, and with the assistance of Louis Paul, the Fredericton guide, will secure the services of forty Indians for the Indian village which is to be one of the features on the pike. It is Mr. Spencer's intention to get 25 adults and 15pappooses.

The section of the pike set aside for this Indian village is about 40 feet by 50 feet, and in it the Indians will give exhibitions of their own work and life in weaving baskets, making axe handles, in the use of the bow and arrow, and along similar lines, while, as Mr. Meyer Cohen' says, "the little Indians will remain to be done will be the placing of incandescent lights in the sockets. This pike is going to be a big surprise to the people who attend the exhibition, and it will be found that everyone of the 26 shows provided is first class.

The section of the pike set aside for the purpose of putting that a settlement would have to be made by the city for private ground being used for the purpose of putting down the water pipes. A resident of Loch Lomond was seen by the Star yesterday regarding the matter.

He said that certain Loch Lomond people owned ground where the pipes are being laid, and they wanted to have a settlement made with the city. One farmer had engaged a lawyer, and had fully made up his mind to carry the matter to court, but on thinking the matter over he found that a considerable sum of money would be required. He was unable to get this money and others who are in the same fix have become desperate, and in their letter to the mayor threatened to use dynamite to destroy the pipes. The persons who sent the letter are not definitely known, as no names were signed.

ESTBROOKS-STEEVES. a letter of a threatening nature, from

The home of Mrs. Elizabeth Steeves, at Hillsboro, Albert county, was the scene of an interesting event Wednesday noon, the 22nd inst., when the marriage of her youngest daughter, Ecrua Jane, to R.
