PASTOR FIGURES IN IMPRESSIVE CEREMONY

BAVINGOR, Me., April 8.—With impressive ceremony before a congregation which filled all available space in St. John's Catholic church, Rev. Mr. Edward Mcweeney, pastor of the church, was invested tonight with the rank of domestic prelate. Rev. Mr. Louis St. Walsh, Bishop of Portland, conducted the services and preached an eloquent sermon upon "The Good Shepherd," and at the same time extolled the recipient of the honor. Monsignor Mcweeney feelingly responded in brief remarks, and the services concluded with benediction, with Rev. Mr. F. X. Trudel of Oldtown as celebrant. St. John's pastor has recently been appointed permanent rector, and his second honor is a source of congratulation for his parishioners, among whom the distinguished clergyman has labored assiduously for 34 years. Monsignor Mcweeney is one of the most prominent pastors in New England, and the honor conferred upon him is considered in all circles a well deserved one.

NO DEVELOPMENT IN GILLIS MURDER CASE

BOSTON, April 9.—In the absence of Chief of Police Urquhart, who has started for St. John, N. P., on a ten days' trip, there were no developments today in the mystery of the death of Annie Mullins, the Cambridge domestic. Chief Urquhart, according to Inspector Hooley of the Arlington police, is bound for Newfoundland to question her relatives and also to interview a sailor who is said to have left Boston for St. John shortly after the discovery of the crime.

Inspector Hooley had a conference tonight with District Attorney Higgins regarding the reopening of the inquest. It had been planned to resume the inquest tomorrow, but after the conference the inspector announced that pending a search for new evidence the inquest would be reopened one week from tomorrow.

SUMMERS KNOCKS OUT BALTIMORE 'SOLDIER' BURNS

BALTIMORE, Md., April 9.—Johnny Summers of England tonight knocked out "soldier" Burns of this city, in the thirtieth round of what was scheduled as a fifteen round fight before the Eureka Athletic Club. Summers out-fought Burns throughout, the latter doing little fighting, but covering and holding constantly. He was unable to protect himself, however, and one of the results was a displaced rib. Burns would apparently have been glad to have stopped much earlier in the fight. Referee Jack McMilligan of Philadelphia worked hard and constantly at breaking clinches.

SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTH-WEST

HOMESTEAD REGULATION

Any even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, excepting 8 and 24, not reserved, may be homesteaded by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male 21 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres, more or less.

Application for entry must be made in person by the applicant at a Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-agency for the district in which the land is situated. Entry by proxy may, however, be made at an agency on certain conditions by the father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of an intending homesteader.

The homesteader is required to perform the homestead duties under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year for three years.

(2) A homesteader may, if he so desires, perform the required residence duties by living on farming land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of his homestead. Joint ownership in land will not meet this requirement.

(3) If the father or mother, if the father is deceased) of a homesteader has permanent residence on farming land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of the homestead, or upon a homestead
