Some of the American rewspapers have room occasionally for a little dash of Canadian politics. According to a number of special despatches, the Laurier-Tarte government will find it 'hard sledding'" west of the Ottawa river. Siftonism in the west and the injudicious utterances of Mr. Tarte are ascribed as luxuries which more than anything else will assist to mould the recaptacie into which the new liberalism will be deposited by the electorate of Canada on November 7. The heavy rain interfered with potato digging in Maine last week, but the crop in the eastern part of the state is reported to be fair, or about three-quarters of that of last year. when the yield was large. Potatoes are selling in the fields in the Aroostook region at $1 a bushel, and the demand is said to be brisk. The other crops in Maine have turned out well this year. The apple crop is larger than for ten years past. Hay is less in quantity, but is better quality, and the grain yield is heavy. Some of the crops suffered from drought, but the farmers are generally sutisfied with the season's work.

Dr. Samuel W. Abbot, secretary of the Massachusetts board of health, in a recent publication says: "Of all the (cupations, trades and professions in to long life. I do not need to add that it is also the oldest of all industries, the most natural and the most important to the physical welfare of man." The Boston and Nova Scotia Wood Pulp Company has been incorporated under the laws of Maine to carry on a general paper mill business, and also to conduct a mining business. The capital stock has been fixed at half a million dollars. Charles A.

Meservey of Wentworth, N. S., is president of the new company, and Morgan Robertson of Boston is treasurer. Boston capital is understood to be back of the venture. Among recent visitors from the provinces were the following: W. P. Bonnell and Mrs. Bonnell, R. Murray Boyd, St. John; Dr. Marshull, Annapolis; C. W. Morse, Digby; J. D. Kirk, Yarmouth; W. R. Dunn, J. F. Cromer, Halifax. The following deaths of former pro-

vincialists are announced: In Somerville, Oct. 14, Mrs. Catherine F. Murray, formerly of St. John; in Lynn, Oct. 11, Alfred W., young son of Chas. Q. and Beatrice Myetta, parents formerly of Halifax; in South Boston. Oct. 12, Mrs. Mina Roberts, wife of William J. Roberts, aged 28 years, formerly of Prince Edward Island; in Everett, (ct. 17, Sarah E. Nixon, formerly of Moncton, where interment occurs. Colin C. Chisholm, a well known, builder, died at 'he residence of his son, Alexander C. Chisholm, Elm Hill, Roxbury district, Sunday, aged 81 years. Mr. Chisholm was born in Antigonish, N. S., and for years was one of the largest builders ir the maritime provinces. Many of the handsomest structures in eastern Canada were erected by him. He leaves three sons and three daughters.

The healthier tone of the spruce situation here is still aoticeable. The demand continues good, and prices are firm. Matched beards are still scarce, with quotations very firm at $17 to 17.50. Ordinary boards, planed one side, are in good demand. For 10 and

Boy at Glasgew. Two New Brunswickers Will Have

Seats in the Newly Elected Imperial Parliament.

(Special Cor. of the Sun.) GLASGOW, Oct. 3 .- The past week has been an exciting one in Glasgow. Fifteen years ago the famous tele gram, "We are seven," was despatched to Mr. Gladstone when the result of the polls was declared. Last week the same telegram was sent to Lord Salisbury. Five of the seats were held by unionists, but they managed to capture the other two. One of the pluckiest fights was made by Bonar Law. During the campaign he proved himself a very able speaker. Blackfriars division of Glasgow is one of the most radical in the city, and yet he was able to turn out the old member by a majority of 1,000 votes. Mr. Law is the youngest son of the late Rev. Jas. Law, who for many years was Presbyterian minister in Kingston, Kent county, N. B. Canada will have at least three of which mankind are employed, that of her sons in the present parliament farming is, with one exception, the and curiously enough two of them most healthful and the most conducive were born in Kent county, viz., Mr. Law and Mr. Keswick, the member for Surrey. The third member is Gilbert Parker, the well known Canadian writer. It is to be hoped that his parliamentary duties will not prevent him writing. The elections are not all finished yet. but it is quite evident that the unionists will go back with an increased majority. Some of the prominent pro Boers have been rejected, but Labou chere and Bryce are in again.

The sweeping unionist majority should convince the Boers that the game is up. The war should now speedily come to a close. It has been a stirring year for Britain, and much history has been made. Many lives have been lost, but they have not been lost in vain. Great Britain has been taught a lesson which she sorely needed. The general mass of the people have learned at length that there is a Greater Britain beyond the seas. Other nations, too, have learned that the lion's whelps are to be reckoned with in the event of a war.

There will be stirring times when "the troops come marching home again." Many of Scotland's sons will never return, but those who do will receive a warm welcome.

MORE INVALIDED CANADIANS.

TORONTO, Oct. 19.—The Toronto Tele-grom's special cable from London says: A Lother detachment of invalided Canadian soldiers sailed yesterday by the steamer Do-minion for Quebec. Among the party were: Pte. W. Edwards, New Brunswick Battalion, recruit of first contingent; Pte. Geo. Camp-bell, R. C. R. I., N. B. and P. E. I. Co. first contingent; Pte. G. W. Thomas, 6th Royal Rifles, first contingent; Pte. W. B. Thomp-son, 23rd Cumberland, N. S., Battalion, Quebec Co., first contingent; Pte. W. W. Douahue, 3rd Regiment, C. A., N. B. and P. E. I. Co., first contingent; Pte. W. O. warden at Paardeburg); Pte. W. O. Swatridge, 3rd Regiment, C. A., N. B. and P. E. I. Co., first contingent; Pte. N. Dorion, Charlotte-town Engineer Co., N. B. and P. should not the liberal party act likewise and turn out Tarte and Borden ? In conclusion, the speaker dealt with the indirect interest which the county of St. John had in the winter port, and explained the condition of affairs which Mr. Blair had brought about in the city. Before the audience dispersed three cheers were given for the Queen and the candidate. LIBERAL TRIO AT GOLDEN

GROVE.

D. McArthur, Col. Domville and E. S. Carter addressed a largely advertised meeting at Golden Grove on Saturday night. Mr. McArthur was the first speaker. He had hunted all over the grove to find the hall, and when he took the platorm was somewhat out of breath. There were just eight persons present, four of them conservatives, when he started to talk. He said a nigger in the woodpile had blocked the meeting, but they would have his heart's blood. Col. Domville was characteristically abusive in his remarks. The editor of Progress drew a rose-colored picture of grit prospects in St. John, Kings and all over New Brunswick. The meeting, judged from the grit standpoint, was a howling success.

GOOD MEETING AT PISARINCO.

The liberal conservative meeting at Pisarinco Saturday night was largely attended. It was held in the public hall, which was filled with people. The chair was taken by Squire Robinson of Spruce Lake, and the speakers were Dr. A. A. Stockton, Ald. Robert Maxwell, Geo. A. Blair and W. I. Fenton. The speakers were attentively listened to and the various points made loudly applauded. Pisariuco can be depended upon to do its duty on the 7th. MR. BEWLEY TO THE FORE.

On Friday, 19th inst., a genteman called at the Sun office, and after presenting a card bearing the name of Hugh Francis Carey, stated that he was the author of the great war drama, Soldiers of the Queen. The next day the Sun was advised that a Prince Edward Island lady claimed Soldiers of the Queen as the product of her brain and pen. Last night Manager Bewley. A the Boston Stock Co., which, by the way, should not be confounded with H. Price Webber's standard Boston Comedy Co., stepped quietly into the Sun office and announced that he, and not Hugh Francis Carey, had the honor of compiling Soldiers of the Queen. He said Carey had led him to believe that he was connected with the Montreal press and could be of service to him in booming the play in that city. It was for this reason alone he had given Carey the privilege of the stage at Amherst and issues that Col. Domville had procured a large number of campaign buttons to be worn by his supporters in the present contest with the motto "Queen and country." Would it not be more appropriate to take a sentence from one i year in advance of his eloquent and elaborate speeches made on the floors of parliament at the last session. For instance how would this do: "The British generals in South Africa are a set of asses." Or perhaps a sentence from one of his speeches when he was running as a tory candidate against that genuine liberal, the late Dr. Sharp, would be better. Here it is: "We have our foot on the neck of the liberals and we are going to keen it there." After talking to several prominent liberals I came to the conclusion that the last sentence is not quite correct. They say we don't want Col. Domville for our candidate, but we cannot get rid of him. So we will amend the sentence to read: "I have my foot on the liberal party and am going to keep it there." This would be a good motto for his button. Yours,

AN OLD TIME LIBERAL.

WINTER PORT. To the Editor of the Sun:

Sir-After what has transpired in St. John of late I am satisfied that labor combinations, strikes and all move ments of this kind are necessary for the working man's protection. Some men of wealth and firms doing a larg wholesale and retail business are using their influence to take from the working man a chance to earn his livelihood. "Oh the rarity of Christian charity."

WEST END.

MONEY THROWN AT HIM. Odd Run of Luck That a City Man Encountered This Week.

"I have never been tempted enough to know whether I am really honest,' said a young man at the Waldorf-Astoria to a Mail and Express reporter. "but my experience this week would turn many a poor devil from the straight path. I had three experiences. "One day I was riding on a horse car on East Grand street. I handed a nickel to the conductor. He handed back two dimes and was passing on, when I involuntarily exclaimed: 'I gave you a nickel only.' He came back with an odd stare in his eyes and took the dimes, while several passengers looked upon me with withering contemp Even the conductor kept an eye on me until I got off, and I am satisfied that he believed me a pickpocket getting solid in preparation for a raid on the other passengers. I was made so uncomfortable by my involuntary honesty that I shall never correct another mistake in change made by a street car conductor.

"My second experience was in a bank on Grand street. I used the telephone and handed a quarter to the cashier. The charge was 10 cents. He tossed my coin into a box of loose silver and handed back 40 cents. He gasped and gave a frightened stare at the office safe as I handed back the 30 cents-in fact, he 'looked like 30 cents."

RUSSIA AND CHINA.

The murder of the German minister, the siege of the legations, and the attack on Plagoveschensk, however reprehensible those acts may be, do not give Europe the right to scize China. It would imply voluntary blindress to deny that European aggressive-ness was responsible for the uprising in China. For Russia to annex Manchuria would mean a complete breaking with China, and the retention of this territory would in-volve an enormous military outlay which this barren land could never repay.
