Withdraws the Money and Leave for Parts Unknown---His Mother' Note for $2,000-How the So Tried to Work Another $1,00 from the Father.

(Halifax Herald, 28th.) Guy M. McCallum was a clerk em loyed by the Royal Bank of Canad to within a week or so ago. H had been for six or seven years on the staff of that institution, his work lat terly being confined, it is said, to the adjusting department of the head of fice in this city. He was considered at efficient clerk and stood fairly high in the estimation of the bank. estimation of the bank. in the estimation of the bank.

Facts that have transpired within the past week show that this confidence was misplaced, not that the bank through him lost much, if any, of its funds, but the young man's father is a loser to the extent of $11,000 or so, and his mother gave a mote for $2,000 which was realized on, and which was endorsed by him. This note is held by F. B. McCurdy & Co.

The story of young McCallum's career during the last few months is not uninteresting. He lived well. not uninteresting. He lived well boarding at the Elmwood, and spend Tet it appears that it was not stock speculation that took the whole of the $11,000 that is lost, or possibly even the greater part of it. It appears more likely that the young man deliberately got the money from his father, a Maitland man, and while considerable of it has been spent and lost, that he has yet a good wad of considerable of it has been spent and lost, that he has yet a good wad of it left. The young man has left for parts unknown with whatever balance of the money there may be, and his mother's note for $2,000 is in the hands of the brokers—of course unpaid.

Guy M. McCallum is a grandson of late Archibald McCallum, of Maitland, a gentleman who died a year or so ago, leaving a fortune estimated at $200,000. This was bequeathed in equal parts to seven sons, of whom the father of the young man in question
