Living Thoughts

This life is a passage, not a port. Affliction sanctified is better than health.

The trimmings of the vain world would clothe the naked.

Let us be sure when we pray for rain that the tub is right side up.

Prudence is a good form of prayer for Providence.

More good men go to the bad in good times than in bad.

It is always easier to promise butter than it is to provide bread.

The prize of finding truth is being willing to pay anything for it.

No man ever did a designed injury to another without doing a greater to himself.

Lives that do not express something are of very little service in the world.

It's not much use talking of loving, folks unless your liking makes their lives lighter.

Child life is exceedingly precious, and nothing is too costly that we can do in reason in saving the child life of the people.

Threatening feverishness with children is quickly and safely calmed by Preventives. These little Candy Cold Cure Tablets should always be at hand—for promptness is all-important. Preventives contain no quinine, nothing harsh or sickening. They are indeed, "the stitch in time." Carried in pocket, or purse, Preventives are a genuine safeguard against Colic. 25c. Sold by all Dealers.

Bismark's Courtship

The courtship of Bismark has all the romance connected with it that attaches to that of Warren Hastings, and nothing of the discredit. Bismark was a gay young Prussian officer when he met Johanna von Puttkamen. He wrote to her father a formal request for Johanna's hand. The father did not exactly give consent, but replied granting the future Chancellor permission to pay an occasional visit. Bismark hastened to Reinfeld. The whole family were in the drive awaiting the visitor's arrival, Johanna herself standing with her eyes fixed modestly on the ground. The swift, whirlwind decision that scored Bismark his later political triumphs came now to the front, and he carried the situation by storm. Galloping up the drive, he leaped from his horse, ran forward and flung his arms around Johanna, taking no heed of her scandalized parents, and covered her blushing face with kisses. After that there could be no talk of "probation" or "waiting." The betrothal was an accepted fact.

Let the Husband Rule

Here is the advice of an experienced matron to girls about to be married:—

Don't begin with the determination to domineer over your husband. The satisfaction you may derive from such a policy is a poor one at the best.

The self-assertive woman who commences married life with the idea that she is to be autocrat of her new home, and who dictates the domestic policy, without reference to her husband's opinions, will in many cases wreck the happiness of that home.

Every woman, sooner or later, feels that to be truly happy a wife should be able to be proud of her husband. And can you be proud of a man who suffers himself to be "hen-pecked"?

Look Ahead for Lines

Sudden illness and pains come in every family—to parents and children alike. But if you have looked ahead, and have right in your home, ready for immediate use a bottle of Polson's Nerviline—there isn't much to worry over. If it's a sore throat or contracted chest, apply Nerviline and put on a Nerviline Porous Plaster. If it's colic, cramps, or any stomach disorder, just administer ten drops of Nerviline in hot water. No family medicine is more useful or more depended upon in emergencies than Nerviline and Nerviline Porous Plasters. They keep the doctor till small. 25c. each at all dealers. Refuse substitutes.

What to Teach a Girl

Teach her to dress for health and comfort as well as for appearance.

Teach her how to darn stockings, sew on a button, and mend a glove.

Teach her to say "No" and stick to it, or "Yes" and mean it.

Teach her to make hers the neatest room in the house.

Teach her to have nothing to do with intemperate or dissolute young men.

Teach her to regard the morals and habits, and not money, in selecting her associates.
