LIKES HIS PAINTS

Dear Uncle Dick—
I got my paints, and they are fine.

Yours truly, J. Evelyn Kershaw

This week I am publishing you a another story about Uncle Wiggily, and Neddie Stubtail, which I hope you will like. I wonder how many of my nephews and nieces could illustrate some part of the story, with a picture sketched by themselves? To the boy or girl not over fourteen years of age, who sends me in the best pen and ink drawing, which will illustrate something in the story, I will award a pretty colored picture, specially drawn by our artist, and will publish the sketch in next week's corner, together with the winner's name. Send the sketch in to Uncla

Here is Donald's Story "How I Would Like to Spend My Holidays:" Would Like to Spend My Holidays:"

The holidays are nearly here, and it will tell you how I would like to spend them. I would like, first of all, to go to Valcartier to see the soldiers in training there. Then when it came time for them to leave, go with them across the ocean. I would like our vessel to be chased by a submarine which would fire a torpedo at us and miss us hy about two feet. Wouldu't. which would like a toped at was and miss us by about two feet. Wouldn't it be exciting?
