Standard's Automobile and Piano Contest Starts With a Rush!

May Obtain Votes Anywhere.

Some of the prospective entrants seem to think that they will be confined to their own districts in securing votes. This is not true—standard may secure votes anywhere. By this method all candidates' chances are equalized, no matter where they live.

Never before has such a liberal offer been made in New Brunswick, whereby in addition to the standard automobiles, pianos and phonographs offered, each contestant who remains active until the end of the contest will receive a commission of ten per cent. on the amount of money turned in, in case of failure to win one of the property prizes.

"What Chance Have I To Win?"

You may be asking yourself this question, and hesitating because you have had no experience in work of this kind. You have just as good a chance to win one of the principal prizes as anyone, and the sooner you get started the greater your chance for winning. Remember the old saying: "He who hesitates is lost," and send your name in at once, using the application blank which you will find elsewhere in this issue, together with all rules governing this contest.

Those Who Are Eligible.

This contest is open to any person of good repute—either male or female—residing in any one of the four districts outlined in the double-page announcement. Somebody will win these prizes, and the winners will secure something that they can be proud to own, something that they will be glad to show to their friends, an article of personal property that will be an asset for years to come. WHY NOT YOU?

Every Candidate Wins.

The management of THE STANDARD has made the plan of the contest the most liberal to all the contestants who may enter. In addition to the principal prizes, it should be borne in mind that EVERY CONTESTANT who remains active until the end of the contest will receive a commission amounting to ten per cent. of the total amount of cash he or she may turn in. NO ONE WILL LOSE BY PARTICIPATING AND EVERYONE WILL BE COMPENSATED ACCORDING TO HIS OR HER EFFORTS.

Be sure and read over very carefully the double-page announcement in today's Standard, and do not hesitate to ask questions of the Contest Manager and representatives.

A COUPON GOOD FOR ONE VOTE APPEARS ON PAGE TWO TODAY.

Clip it neatly along the border and send it in at once, so that it will be counted in your favor. Friends of candidates may save these vote coupons and send or bring them in to the Contest Department at The Standard office.

THE JOHN ROBINSON CIRCUS ARRIVED YESTERDAY MORNING

The First, Largest and Best Managed Aggregation That Has Visited St. John in Many Years — Tents Pitched off Dufferin Row, Near Elm Street — Big Parade at Ten O'clock This Morning—First Performance This Afternoon—Orphans Guests of Standard.

"Hold your horses!" That will be the advance cry that will be heard this morning as the great John Robinson circus winds its way through the city streets. Then there will be the quick playing of marches by the numerous circus bands seated on the lofty band wagons, the screaming of popular airs from the steam piano, the beautiful horses, the ponies, the camels, the many cages containing the wild animals, the funny clowns, and last but not least the herd of elephants and in fact it will be good for the old as well as young to have a circus parade in St. John, it has been so long since this was enjoyed. The Robinson circus arrived in the city early yesterday morning and it was not long before the many cars were unloaded on Mill street and the procession of heavy wagons started for the Shamrock grounds in the North End where it was first intended that the show would be held. The first wagon that started towards the grounds and reached a point in the rear of St. Luke's church sank in the soft mud until nearly all four wheels were out of sight. This was enough for the management and as it took just twenty-four hours with the assistance of heavy jack-screws to liberate the sunken wagon it was decided that the best place for the big show was on the almost adjoining grounds off Dufferin Row, or in the rear of the Elm street school. A large crowd of citizens gathered and watched with interest the preparing and the raising of the big top which has no less than four centre poles, then the hundred and one things of interest to see kept all present busy. Perhaps there was never a circus that arrived in the city that was so orderly and well managed. Robinson's lacks that tough lot of talk that one generally hears, everything was handled quietly and with such a system that all was like clockwork. The fakers or hangers-on that are generally with a circus is not with John Robinson's. Nearly every one of the horses in the circus is a grey and a finer looking lot of animals never came to this city. It was a great event in the history of the city and thousands of visitors were about the grounds all day long for there was always something of interest to see.

As stated before, with the co-operation of Mr. John Robinson, The Standard will have as its guests this afternoon the children from the different city orphanages and the youngsters are anxiously awaiting the hour when they leave their homes for the circus grounds. It is expected that they will leave shortly before one o'clock this afternoon so the little ones will have a good chance to look at the wild animals and other things of interest before they take the seats reserved for them in the big show.

The big street parade will leave the circus grounds not later than ten o'clock this morning and as it is one of the longest and best ever seen in the city it will undoubtedly be viewed by many thousands of citizens. The route of procession is from the lot to Main, thence to Mill, to Dock, Market Square, up King, south side square to Spindus, to Brunswick, City Road, Paradise Row, Main street, to the lot.

A large number of people are coming in from out of town districts to see the show and to accommodate the suburbanites on the C. P. R. the suburban train will not leave until eleven o'clock tonight.
