July 23.

16

Margaret McCranke, a soiled and solitary woman, sat in the seat of the sinner, tary woman, sat in the seat of the sinner, this morning, looking penitent and ashamed, a look she has learned to know is useful when before the Court. She was charged with lurking in an alley off Brussels street and failing to give a satisfactory account of herself. She hung her head and covered her face with her hand, although it would be hard to believe that the school hard looking could have a vestige. of womanly shame, and said: "I was not drunk." The officer who made the arrest stated that he saw her in the street late at night, loafing around, and advised her to go home. About 2 o'clock he "saw her and another fellow's go into an alley, and followed them in. They disappeared in the buildings, and, after a search, she was found in a hall. At first she said she lived there, and when he was going to rouse the people and enquire she said she lived elsewhere. So he decided to bring her to the Station. The magistrate, on enquiry of the Chief, learned that she had not been under arrest before since she got out of the penitentiafy, and discharged her with some clothes, Mrs. Long assailed her, followed her half way up stairs, squared off at her, and threatened to smash her. She was frightened badly and threatened to tell Mr. Gilbert. She had to fly from her, and glad to get the chance, for she was trembling to death with fear. Mrs. Long was fined forty shillings, ten shillings more than the Magistrate threatened her with the last time she was up.

Fred Chittick had deposited $8 for his drunk and departed.

Margaret Ireland was charged on Saturday by John Röwley with throwing directly water over him. Margaret accused John of having provoked her by offen sive language. Rowley denied this, and in the course of conversation admitted having made candy on Stinday. The

Yesterday afternoon Edward Barker, charged with assault on Martin Collins, was sentenced to two months' penitentiary, and Caroline Treadwell, charged with assaulting Mary Thompson, was allowed to go on payment of costs. July 24.

Mrs. Honora Long was called to answer a charge of abusive and insulting language. The complainant, Mrs. Mary Fitzgerald, said her husband had been ill Fitzgerald, said her husband had been ill for some time, and had been receiving $3 a week from the "Laborers' Society," and that Mrs. Long had been in the daily habit of twitting her of the fact, calling her and her children beggars and other hard names—"names that I don't like to repeat here, your Honor. Mrs. Long had dashed a pail of water in her face, and Mrs. Long's little girl had stood at the window and abused Mrs. Fitzgerald's sick husband. Mrs. Long would stop her in the yard, put her hand on her side, and go—"Heh, ha, hem (mimicking signs of distress)—I've the consumption—I can't work—I live on other people's earnings." Mrs. Long said every one of these statements was false. She had called no names, had thrown no water, had made no faces. She was "a poor, hardworking woman, who goes out washing and scrubbing and bes little at home." Her husband was dead, her daughter "out of her head" in the Poor House, and her struggle to carn an honest living a hard one. "But Mrs. Fitzgerald' in the Poor House, and her struggle to carn an honest living a hard one. "But Mrs. Fitzgerald' in the Poor House, and her struggle to carn an honest living a hard one. "But Mrs. Fitzgerald' in the Poor House, and her struggle to carn an honest living a hard one. "But Mrs. Fitzgerald' is dead on payment of $8 fines and procuring licenses." John Forbes, Geo. Dow, Arthur Kelchie, Timothy O'Sullivan, Alex. Austin, daughter "out of her head" in the Poor House, and her struggle to earn an honest living a hard one. "But Mrs. Fitzgerald has sworn to her charge and you must prove your innocence or sufier for it. Where are your witnesses?" "I have no witnesses, sir, but I appeal to God Almighty to witnesses." "Stop, s'op, woman; don't bring the Almighty God here as a witness. I shall was called to account for abusing Emma Small, but the complainant did not appear. Mrs. Alder was dismissed and an officer was directed to see that Mrs. Small paid the cost of the warrant she

July 25.

John Hamilton and Thomas Gallagher, two of the sportive youths who harmlessly amuse themselves in the vicinity of York Point, were in the dock charged with abusing and stonfing Michael Nyhan, Mrs. Chipman's gardener. When Mr. Nyhan entered the witness box Mrs. Hamilton opened on the Court in defence of her boy, and Nyhan said she was as bad as the boy. As she would not keep of her boy, and Nyhan said she was as baid as the boy. As she would not keep still a policeman removed her. Mi chael said: "I five on the corner of North and "This song of bygone years."

Die not upon the listening ear; They vibrate on the heart. And now you know the reason, dear, Why I have kept and treasured here. This song of bygone years. still a policeman removed ner.

Silven and Said: "I live on the corner of North and Georges streets, in a nest of the worst neighbors God Almighty ever put life into them. Hamilton and Gallagher, with others, to. Hamilton and Gallagher, with others, to. Hamilton and Gallagher, with others, to. neignbors God Aimignty ever put file into. Hamilton and Gallagher, with others, kicked and kicked at my door and called — 'Nut, Nut, come out here.' Then I started for a policeman, as I often have to -softy I am to trouble yer honor so often—and Gallagher struck me with an edging right over the small of the back of me as I was going." Gallagher.

And fils my eyes with bears.

—From Old and New for August.

DUVERNAY'S HEIR.

And fils my eyes with bears.

—From Old and New for August.

BY ROBERT F. GREELEY. of me, as I was going." Ganagher—"Will yer swear to that?" Nyhan. "I do swear to that?" Nyhan. "I do swear to it." Then they fired stones—these stones (producing a dozen of two or three pounds weight each). Hamilton the western bank of the Hadson an elegant and commodious mansion of light fired them at him." Nyhan.—"Hamilton and commodious mansion of light fired them at him." Nyhan.—"Hamilton and commodious mansion of light fired them Pat Weish, was one of them—yer honor knows Pat Weish, for often enough he's been here, troubling you. They dared me to fight, called me "Nuts," and one of them struck me with a scanting. After I went in the house they stept in front of it till after one o'clock, abusing me. I hope yer honor will give them the full benefit of the law." Mrs. Hamilton was then heard, but could say nothing to disprove the charge. Henry McNamee was cafled as a witness by the hovs. and swore that he, and not either ling. After I went in the house they kept in front of it till after one o'clock, abusing me. I hope yer honor will give them the full benefit of the law." Mrs. Hamilton was then heard, but could say nothing to disprove the charge. Henry McNamee was cafled as a witness by the boys, and swore that he, and not either of the prisoners, fired the stick. The Magistrate concluded the trial by sentencing Hamilton and Gallagher to twenty days' hard labor in jail, and they grinned at each other as though they enjoyed the joke immensely. "I'll make you laugh on the other side of your grinned at each other as though they enjoyed the joke immensely. "I'll make you laugh on the other side of your mouth next time—send you to penitentiary where I ought to send you now," secretly held the paramount place in his said the Magistrate. As they were going out of the door, Mr. Nyban gazing on them with tame and valueless.

twelve feet apart, and Grady made at remember that these men are the guard-women—and a hundred spectators, were kept waiting a half hour this morning by Captain Frith, who was laying down the law to the magistrate on the matter of wharf rights.

Matthew Kearney, Henry Barnes, Peter McGowan, Arthur Kirk, Mary Raine, Margaret Gillespie, and Patrick Laughlan were fined $8 each for drunken-

Honora Long was up again for abusing one so hard-looking could have a vestige of womanly shame, and said: "I was not drunk." The officer who made the ar> in the course of conversation admitted having made candy on Sunday. The Magistrate said he believed the woman, for if Rowley would break one of God's laws by descrating the Sabbath, he might break another by lying. Margaret was discharged.

might break another by lying. Margaret was discharged.
John Duffy, Owen McGovern, Michael O'Kecfe, John Conway, and R. Conway, charged with selling fresh meat in pieces less than a quarter in the Country Market without being duly licensed, procured licenses and were fined 70 cents each. Humphrey Toomey, for the same offence in Carleton, was fined the same. ner and her children beggars and other hard names—"names that I don't like to repeat here, your Honor." Mrs. Long had dashed a pail of water in her face, and Mrs. Long's little girl had stood at the window and abused Mrs. Fitzgerald's Ed. Whales.

Almighty God here as a witness. I shall fine you only $2, as you are a poor woman: Don't abuse your neighbors again. Attend to your own affairs and leave others alone."

You laugh as you turn the yellow page of that queer old song you sing. And wonder how folks could ever see A charm in the simple melody. Of such an old-fashioned thing.

Small paid the cost of the warrant she procured.

Yesterday afternoon John Williams, drunk, was fined $4; and Ellen Murphy was tried and acquitted on a charge of assault preferred by Elizabeth Lyons.

When conserved athered night by night, And thought of the music of our day. An endless joy to sing and play, An endless joy to si of me, as I was going." Gallagher—"Will yer swear to that?" Nyhan. "I do swear to it." Then they fired stones—these stones (producing a dozen of two or three pounds weight each). Hamilthe western bank of the Hudson an ele-were going out of the close of the size servants who had followed the surface and state of the s

twelve feet apart, and Grady made at him, and kicked and struck at the mate. The mate struck him and knocked him down. The mate, he thought, would have given him more, but he was prevented. He gave more abusive language and made at the mate again. The mate tried to avoid him, and then struck him and knocked him between two hogsheads; told him to go in the forecastic. The man seemed perfectly mad and crazy, doing all he could with tongue and fists. Grady denied having been drunk, and stuck to his story. The magistrate said to him: "I cannot accept your statement, as it is contradicted in every particularly by Mr. Fairweather, a most respectable member of the comunity, whose statement I feel bound to believe in preference to yours. You have brought your punishment on yourself. You should obey the orders of your officer, without back talk or abuse. I dismiss the charge."

Seven prisoners—five men are the guarding that the mate as the mate that the set of the public peace, and not insult them when they direct you to go to your load of the festive bard or to preside over the excitements of the dance of the excitements of the dance of the excitements of the dance willing to preside over the excitements of the fastly or allow for plan which saily contrast that the set of the results, and the wall that the back and for the wall the will the wall the will the wall the wall the will the wall to adorn the festive bacard or to preside over the excitements of the dance willing sask he committed to jail to await the wall to jail to await the wall to jail to await the will the wall to jail to await the set flive, to adorn the festive beard or to point which sailing of the walls, and the the hilatrious gayety of such occasions. The son, a handsome youth of each of all restraint, and so frequently embroided him with the limes as she might be drawn from her retitacy to adorn the festive excitements of the dance of the e ther, he was a thorn in the side of his father, who seemed to envy him even his frequent escapades, and the youth which gave him so hearty a zest to enjoy them. It had happened that, af er a season of riotous enjoyment, during which the endurance of Fs elle Duve ny had been tried to its utmost, the lord of the mansion, rejoicing in his wealth, had resolved upon giving a happenet which should ed upon giving a banquet which should surpass anything that had been witnessed in that section, and which should excite at once the envy and the admiration of parations had been made, and great was the prevailing anticipation, when, sud-denly, without previous warning, notice I am the rightful ruler of this people, was given by Arnold Duvernay that his mind had changed, and the premised entertainment would not be given.

Accustomed to all his freaks, this announcement was received by his friends

Accustomed to all his freaks, this announcement was received by his friends without special wonder, but when months rolled by and no attempt was made to renew the festivities which had rendered ous to accept the rule of the pretender, to him who should bring the runaways back, and an open investigation was instituted by the authorities; but, nothing appearing to solve the riddle or to impliwith order. The manifesto concludes cate the proprietor of the estate in a louble crime, the agitation subsided as we shall stifle it with cannon. Those we shall stifle it with cannon. Those was left to the gloom and mystery of his new life. He went but little abroad, and gradually faded from the recollections of a class with whom transient enjoyment is the chief aim and object of life. He was a class with whom transient enjoyment is the chief aim and object of life. He was a class with whom transient enjoyment is the chief aim and object of life. He was a class with whom transient enjoyment is the chief aim and object of life. He was a class with whom transient enjoyment is the chief aim and object of life. He was a class with whom transient enjoyment is the chief aim and object of life. He was a class with whom transient enjoyment is the chief aim and object of life. He was a class with whom transient enjoyment is the chief aim and object of life. He was a class with whom transient enjoyment is the chief aim and object of life. He was a class with whom transient enjoyment is the chief aim and object of life. He was a class with whom transient enjoyment is the chief aim and object of life. He was a class with whom transient enjoyment is the chief aim and object of life. He was a class with whom transient enjoyment is the chief aim and object of life. He was a class with whom transient enjoyment is the chief aim and object of life. He was a class with whom transient enjoyment is the chief aim and object of life. He was a class with whom transient enjoyment is the chief aim and object of life. He was a class with whom transient enjoyment is the chief aim and object of life. He was a class with whom transient enjoyment is the chief aim and object of life. He was a class with whom transient enjoyment is the chief aim and object of life. He was a class with whom transient enjoyment is the chief aim and object of life. He was a class with the chief aim and object of life. He was a class with the chief aim and object of life. He was a class with the chief aim and object of life. He was a class with the life was a class with the life was a class with the life was a cl

"Since you will have it so," said the younger of the speakers, accepting the weapon that had been extended to him, while the last of the l hallway.

"Hold your own, Walter Dame. The absolutely absurd, and he would only man that insults the woman that bore me injures us both," he shouted, "and here's throne was his by right of inheritance to avenge her and you." With one blow from a cudgel he knockwith one slow from a cuage ne knocked his unnatural parent senseless where he stood. Then, raising his mother tenderly in his arms, he gave her a parting derivation on it had decreed that the throne should be torn down or his family excluded. There is no law standard at the Union and at the time

Mr. Howe gave up his opposition to Confederation, have formed a Liberal-sion that knew no relief, except at such the vaults, which, since the discharge of |

pose that England needed to wait for lie, and it is not easy to see how the Carlist Cruelty and Boasting-The nations can consistently withhold their People the Source of Power. recognition of the new order of things. The Carlists are getting an unenviable Is the power of the Cortes to define the reputation for cruelty to prisoners of government of Spain to be recognized war. The accounts of their killing prithe dwellers for miles around. The guasts were all bidden the feast, the preparations had been made, and great was from Washington, which, if true will explain the refusal of England and Germany to acknowledge the Spanish Republic. The story is that the fer to govern themselves are traitors Spanish legation was recently instructed from Madrid to approach Secpossible that the Carlist butcheries of retary Fish with the inquiry whether the United States would be disposed to new the festivities which had rendered the place so famous—nay, more, when the servants were discharged, and Arnold Duvernay withdrew himself entirely from society, and the wife who, by her manifold charms, had contributed to his prestige, and the son who had acquired so much notoriety by his follies, simultaneously disappeared, something more lively than wonder was excited, and whispers began to circulate that foul play had been used. A reward was publicly offered in the name of Duvernay offering thousands to him who should bring the runaways intervene with an armed force in Cuba with a view of ascertaining whether the people of that Island really desire, or not, to separate themselves from the mother country, and that this proposition comes in connection with an intrigue which for some time has been maturing in Europe, by virtue of which Germany and England are to intervene in Spain, and by means of sufficient troops stop the civil war now going on there, and place Alfonso on the throne. The scheme, it is asserted, has been managed especially by Prussian diplomacy, and all the money which Serrano had for some time past for paying troops and carrying on the Government has been furnished from the Prussian treasury. is the chief aim and object of life. He grew careless in his apparel and personal appointments. His dwelling and grounds were permitted to go to decay, and on his sallow countenance appeared a perpetual frown, the living evidence of a mind but ill at ease.

Let us return to the day of the promised for a life was a life to be with the promised at the country to have them, the country to have them, and but ill at ease. A part of the project, it is further declared, is that Prussia shall have some small island in the West Indies for a watering station, and the consent of the United States to this is to be gained by Let us return to the day of the promised fete. The hour was nearly at hand, and twillight shadows were already beginning to enshroud the landscape, when a female figure cautiously lifted a window in the private apartment of the hall, and, as she raised it, another figure, that of a she raised it, another figure, that of a many financiers will be found to put much confidence in the ability of Don found to punish the Carlists for the murshe raised it, another figure, that of a man in all respects the opposite of Duvernay, stepped noiselessly upon the balcony, and in an instant the lady was enfolded in his embrace. He wore a cloak, and as they stood he encompassed her in its folds.

Alas! the star of Duvernay Hall went down that night.

Alas! the star of Duvernay Hall went form the star of Duvernay Hall went form the star of Duvernay Hall went from cutting her threats. The report, in the star of Duvernay Hall went form the sta

Alas! the star of Duvernay Hall went down that night.

"You sent for me," she hurried y whispered, "and I have come, defant of the dangers that hem me in should 1b discovered. O cruel fate, that binds in a flower-wreathed chain the fetters that are eating to the breast. My tyrant has constructed that the fetters that are eating to the breast. My tyrant has from intrusion; what is your will?

"That you fly with me, my sweet Estelle, far from the power of a man with whom you have naught in common, and who does not even possess your love. There is nothing in a marriage of conversiones which should give a compulsory husband control over the happiness of his viettm. Be in truth wholly mine, and leave Duvernay to his jealousies and his cups."

"I dread, while I long to take the step of the power of take the step. He has me so completely in his power. Even were I at honse and miles and the feed to the true to the texpense of the expense of the flow is refreshing. The formation of the country, bot bind is the operations of the country to drive him outs a "rebellion"!

The Prefect of Cuenca announces that thirty-four bodies of Republicans, murtiple of the country to that body chooses rulers, and its choice is the only legitimate government of the suppose of the country to that body chooses rulers, and its choice is the only legitimate government of the suppose of the country to that the country to that body chooses rulers, and its choice is the only legitimate government of the country. The power found in a town mutilated so horribly and Hatta sitting on the side of a bed together. Mrs. And Jerred had seen lordly and Hatt sitting on the side of a bed together. Mrs. And Jerred had seen lordly and Hatt sitting on the side of a bed together. Mrs. And Jerred had seen lordly and Hatt sitting on the side of a bed together. Mrs. And Jerred had seen lordly and Hatt sitting on the side of a bed together. Mrs. And Jerred had seen lordly and Hatt sitting on the side of a bed together. Mrs. And Jerred had seen lordly and Hatt sitti decision, as follows:

Intelligence has just been received that the celebrated Gulbord case has been de-cided before the Privy Council in England in favor of the widow of the deceased. The case arose from the refusal of the Catholic bishop to allow Guibord to be buried in consecrated ground, because he was a member of the "Institute Canadian," an interdicted society. The plea was that Guibord, owning a lot in the Catholic cemetery, has a civil right to be buried in it. The case had been taken through the courts here, and finally to England, where the decision on the appeal has just

Hon. Dr. Tupper has been engaged, in Nova Scotia, organizing the opposition to the present Government into a party. His old Conservative followers -those who stuck to him at Confederation-and the Liberals who joined his standard at the Union and at the time Confederation, have formed a Liberal-

Brevities. No sufficient reasons have yet been And now the South Bay people, for the given for the failure of the European surpose of scaring away Sunday School powers to recognize the Spanish Rethe nearest approach to plausibility be-pic-nic parties, are sending blood-cur lling bear stories to town. public. Dr. Disraeli, the other night in There will be two days racing at the House of Commons, failed to utter Moosepath-19th and 20th of Augusta single plausible excuse for the delay, $675 to be given in prizes—three races each day. ing the assertion that such recognition should be given simultaneously by the merchants of the principal streets and Grasshopper Piague in Manitoba. European powers. We should not supthe gamins and apple women of the alleys should be promptly answered by example or countenance in such a mat- the Recorder or some other competent fixed for the 30th inst., and polling the ter as this. England recognized Ama- anthority. The question is, "Who owns of August. deus as King, and when Amadeus abdicated the throne the power that had made him King declared for the Repubserving member of the present Council.

Interference in Spains

Those who went to Digby on Friday are loud in their praises of the Festival, the cherries, and the cherry-cheeked the cherry-cheeked are louding to the cherry-cheeked the cherry-chee maidens they saw there. The Empress Clarke for his vigorous prosecution of excursions are becoming more popular the case. than ever.

At a teachers' meeting of the Germain street Wesleyan Sunday school, Thursday evening, it was agreed to hold the picnic construction of a line of electric tele-of that school at Westfield on the 6th of graph along the route of the Pacific Rail-August.

that Sergt. Dobson has been made day for some time pulling the wires.

Huntington and Geoffron arrived toofficer at the Station. Mr. Hayes has been appointed Sergeant. Miss Annie Bustin, who was recently his election.

store, has improved so much that she is considered out of danger. Geo. Blatch, Esq., on reading that "Fulton, Brayley and other oarsmen were bina Mountain, having lost two horses Geo. Blatch, Esq., on reading that out on the harbor in their shells last evening," remarked that "they were exhibiting their mussels."

Sunday. They marched to St. Paul's and the Cathedral, headed by their to Prescott is about being promoting the control of three hundred dollars. Another Post Office employe who was sent the same time to Prescott is about being promoting the control of three hundred dollars. bands, making an imposing appearance. Camp Dufferin attracted many pilgrims during the day.

The Lordly-Hatt Case. The trial of Mrs. Hatt, who is charged cups."

The Prefect of Chenca announces that cups."

The Shational Club Dinner.

The supper in honor of Mr. Howland, at the Vice-Regal party of the Carlists, were found in a bouse in that town mutilated so horrise away, I should fancy that I heard his step—that I felt the chilling blight of his influence about mer.

"Silly one! when a moment of determination would place you within an at corded to him by the majority of the preparates manhood from age. Let your own hands assist mhe in removing the fetters that bind you. I have horses at land and the night is moonlight; decide."

"The Prefect of Chenca announces that thirty-four bodies of Republicans, murdered by the Carlists, were found in a bit town mutilated so horrise away, I should fancy that I heard his side one of the country. No man inherited the country, as men inherit estates, and no man has any claim to a position that is not accept a position in his army, Cabrera to accept a position in h own hands assist mine in removing the fetters that bind you. I have horses at hand and the night is moonlight; decide."

"This gilded misery I can endure no longer. I am yours."

Again their arms entwined, again their lips met; then there was a rustling among the undergrowth, and Arnold Duyamong the undergrowth, and Arnold Duy ernay leaping in stood before them.

"It was cleverly done, Walter Dame; but you have failed of your purpose."

Choose; for one or both of us the hour has come."

"Since you will have it so," said the younger of the speakers, accepting the local and the removing the fetters that bind you. I have horses at hand and the night is mone, to drive rulers from the throne half of outraged European civilization, will seek and find means to teach the Carlists that the murder of a captured German shall not remain unpunished."

The Gazette will probably contain a notice of the superannuation of Boundard of Curinges European civilization, will seek and find means to teach the Carlists that the murder of a captured German shall not remain unpunished."

The Gazette will probably contain a notice of the superannuation of Boundard of Curinges European civilization, will seek and find means to teach the Carlists that the murder of a captured German shall not remain unpunished."

The Gazette will probably contain a notice of the superannuation of Counting Such the specific formans to teach the Carlists that the murder of a captured German shall not remain unpunished."

The Gazette will probably contain a notice of the superannuation of Counting Such the for a captured and J. V. Ellis, "House of Commons"; Messrs. D. S. Kerr, W. E. Everttt and T. R. Jones, "Our Manufacturing Interests"; Mr. J. Collins bloyd, "Our Merscattle Interests"; Mr. J. Listoyd, "Our Merscattle Interests"; Mr. J. Listoyd

Cast Upon the Waters and Returning after a Few Days. Mr. and Mrs. B. Hevenor started for England, a few weeks ago, in the ship to day by acclamation. England, a few weeks ago, in the ship Eliza S. Milligan, and a letter was received from them Thursday night, conveying the information that the following document had been sealed up in a bottle and cast upon the waters:

The Guzette contains the appointment of George Alley as Charlottetown County Judge, vice Palmer made Chief Justice. John Young, John Pratt, Thomas Cramp, Peter Donovan and Adolphe Roy are gazetted Harbor Commissioners of Montager and Cast upon the waters: 8th June, 1874, on board the Eliza S.

Mr. DESERT ROCK, July 3, 1874. Sin: The within paper was picked up in a bottle on Mt. Desert Rock by the subscriber on the afternoon of July 2, 1874, while picking up drift wood.

the Dominion.

The Grand Lodge of 1. O. O. F. in Session.

HALIFAX, N. S., July 21.

By Telegraph. Canadian,

British and Foreign. To the Associated Press. A conundrum which is agitating the Two Contests-Clarke Beaten-The OTTAWA. July 21.

Nomination in East Elgin is definitely

FORT GARRY, July 21. A Pullman car for the Intercolonial, one of those which we told our readers about some time ago, arrived at Carleton Friday evening.

At a feachers' meeting of the Germain.

Grasshoppers have entered the province from Minnesota in immense numbers, and are destroying crops with fearful rapidity. The hopes of a plentiful harvest are utterly destroyed.

The time for receiving tenders for the way expires to-day. There are some Night prowlers will be glad to know David Glass, ex-M. P., who has been here day. There was a Cabinet meeting Geoffrion leaves to-morrow to attend to severely burned in Mr. Savage's millinery In the Saddle-Rewarding Canvassing Agents-The Mitchell Line.

en route. .

A clerk in the Post Office who, by the Mr. Henry Robertson dropped dead Sunday morning. He had been subject to fits.

The volunteers looked well on parade Sunday. They marched to St. Paul's

The Mitchell line are putting on two boats to run to the Maritime Provinces Talk About Jenkins-Tupper's Estimate and Cartwright's Deficit.

Hon. Mr. Burpee leaves to-night for Toronto, returning Tuesday. About the first of August he leaves for the Lower Provinces on a tour of inspection. Geoffrion was re-elected at Vercheres 8th June, 1874, on board the Eliza S.

Milligan, 66 by 21, off Cape Sable, alwell, a good breeze ahead, foggy, 6 days out, still hoping for a change. If this reaches you mindyour father's scheme envelope. H. H. to Gilbert Hevenor, 64 Charlotte street, St. John, N. B., N.A.

The same mail that brought this letter from England brought the following note establishment of a Bureau of Railways was discussed, C. J. Brydges to be Minfrom Maine, with the above message, on a torn envelope, enclosed:

was discussed, or it is understood that, in the meantime, Brydges will be appointed Superintended Super tendent or all Government Railways in revolution and have maintained it by arms.

The celebrated mill-dam case, which has occupled the Westmorland Circuit Court for some days, was brought to a against the Dominion Government is that Rev. Mr. Bill's expenses on his European tour are paid by the Government, Mr. Bill being nominally an emigration agent.

"Several of our townsmen, after careful perusion of our article of tast week," is the way the Las Vegas (N. M.) Gazette puts it. "Perusion" is good. The West is a wonderful country, its mines are adding to the stock of gold and its chilled and the