THE HERALD.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 13TH, 1917.

PARLIAMENT has adjourned till April 19 to permit the Premier, Sir Robert Borden, to proceed to the Imperial War Council.

War certificates to the extent of over 15,000, aggregating over a million dollars, have already been sold, and the daily demand now exceeds one thousand certificates a day.

A new Government regulation brought about by the German submarine warfare demands that no Canadian ship be permitted to leave Canada without a license, and only when it is established that the trip will be of useful service.

During the three weeks of the seventh session of the twelfth Parliament which were ended last week by adjournment, more business was put through by the Dominion's law-makers than during any other Parliament in Canadian history.

Mr. C. H. Mortimer, publisher of trade papers, died at his home, in Toronto.

Mr. John Smith, from near Kemptonville, met with an accident while holding a cat, a neighbor's boy making preparations to shoot it. The boy slipped and the gun exploded, the bullet lodging in Mr. Smith's ankle. He was taken to the public hospital at Smiths Falls and had the bullet removed.

Pembroke Housewives' League favors the lifting of the embargo on oleomargarine, and will urge the Pembroke Local Council of Women to petition the Dominion Government to this effect. The league will also encourage this summer the planting of every available piece of ground with some kind of vegetables in the spring.

In the February issue of Rod and Gun, now on the news stands, Bonycastle Dale, the naturalist writer, describes in "Hunting with the Modern Camera" the methods by which he gets near enough to the forest birds and beasts to take some of the remarkable photographs with which his stories are illustrated. "The only danger is from falls and falling trees," he says. There is not anything in the woods of North America that will attack you if unmolested. "The Wood-duck," by E. V. Williams, supplements the cover picture for this month which reproduces in colors that are true to life this rarely beautiful and comparatively scarce species of duck. "Old Frying Pan," a bear story by H. C. Haddon, "Hawks and Other Game Destroyers" by Reginald Gourlay. With a Watch and Compass," with the Timber Wolves in Northern Canada," etc., etc. along with the regular departments which are well maintained, make up a particularly interesting number of this premier Canadian magazine of outdoor life. W. J. Taylor, Ltd., Woodstock, Ont., is the publisher.

Cost of Bad Roads.

A company in Stanislaus county, California, that buys skimmed milk from the farmer has demonstrated to the rural residents in an emphatic manner the value of good roads to them. This company sends trucks directly to the farms to collect the skimmed milk, but it pays higher prices to farmers living on good roads than on bad roads. On poor roads the company pays 174 cents per 100 pounds, but on good roads it pays 20 cents. Of course the farmer always has been paying this tax on very hundred pounds he hauled over bad roads and he has been relieved of it on every hundred pounds he had hauled over good roads, but that fact has not been brought to his notice as in the case cited. When he measures his distance from 7/8 of a mile instead of miles he will realize the profit of good roads—American Lumberman.

MORE BRITISH BLOWS

Another Advance Made on the Somme Front.

Strong System of German Trenches on Southern Front of Ridge North of Beaumont-Hamel Was Captured—The Total Number of Hun Prisoners Exceeded the British List of Casualties.

LONDON, Feb. 12.—British troops captured Saturday night a strong system of German trenches on Serre Hill, north of the Ancre, on a front of over three-quarters of a mile.

Serre Hill is about 500 feet in height and it commands the valley of the Ancre. The British gains bring their lines a considerable distance up this hill.

Two hundred and fifteen Germans surrendered to the British and they went as prisoners to the rear. The British bulletins from France says that the number of prisoners greatly exceeded the number of British casualties.

The British had to fight to hold the ground on the Sully-Sallisell Hill, east of the village. They managed to drive back German attacks with heavy losses to the Germans without losing any ground themselves.

The official statement for Sunday reads:

"Another highly successful local operation was carried out last night. A strong system of hostile trenches, lying on the southern front of Serre Hill (north of Beaumont-Hamel), was attacked and captured on a front of over three-quarters of a mile. We captured 215 prisoners, a number considerably exceeding our casualties.

"We repulsed this morning by our fire an enemy attempt to approach our lines south of Sully-Sallisell. We entered the trenches during the night in neighborhood of Pys, southwest of La Bassee, north-east of Neuve Chapelle and south of Fauquissart. Many casualties were inflicted on the enemy and his dugouts destroyed. A number of prisoners were secured. We effectively bombarded the enemy's positions to-day at a number of places along our front.

German attacks against the new British positions east of Sully-Sallisell, on the Somme front, were unsuccessful, according to the official statement from British headquarters in France, issued Saturday night by the War Office. British troops have carried out successful raids in the region of Ypres. The statement reads:

"Last night the enemy attacked our new positions east of Sully-Sallisell after heavy bombardment. The attacks were everywhere unsuccessful and our line was maintained entirely.

"The enemy attempted raids during the night southeast of Neuve-St. Vaast, east of Vermeles and south of Neuve Chapelle, but were repulsed in each case with considerable losses, leaving a few prisoners in our hands.

"A party of our troops entered the enemy's lines east of Neuville-St. Vaast, destroyed a machine gun emplacement and returned without casualties. This afternoon we carried out a very successful raid opposite Givenchy. We captured 25 prisoners, including one officer. In the last 24 hours we have taken 48 prisoners, including two officers. "The artillery has been active on both sides of the Somme, in the neighborhood of Serre and in the Ypres sector. Four explosions were caused in the enemy's lines by our fire."

Prompt Victory Promised.

PARIS, Feb. 12.—General Castellau, chief of the French military delegation at the conference of the Entente Allies at Petrograd, is quoted in a despatch to The Temps from the Roumanian capital, as saying:

"One has only to compare the military situation of the Allies in the month of January, 1916, with that of January, 1917, and he will be compelled to admit that the conditions for the forthcoming spring campaign are much more favorable than they were last year.

"I can say that each day we are coming nearer to the realization of our objects. The brave Russian army, which has assumed a formidable task; the gallant Italian troops, and, finally, the Anglo-French forces, which are increasing in number, constitute the best guarantee of our final victory, which hereafter, will come promptly. In the meantime the military power of the Allies remains unshakable. The Germans have procured success only on secondary fronts.

"With regard to the principal fronts, on which decisive action will occur, our enemies have shown themselves powerless to obtain any serious results."

Food Riots in Austria.

ROME, Feb. 12.—The Vatican has information from Austria that food riots have been repressed with bloodshed, and that frequently soldiers have refused to fire upon the citizens. Several regiments have mutinied, and the situation is very serious. Sensational developments, including a revolution, are feared. Vatican clergymen and Cardinals have been asked to implore the Pope to stop the war in order to save Germany and Austria-Hungary.

Swiss Protest.

PARIS, Feb. 12.—The Swiss Federal Council, in its reply to the German note on the new submarine campaign, enters an energetic protest against the announced blockade and reserves all the rights of Switzerland as a neutral. According to the Havas News Agency Bern's correspondent: "It expressed confidence, however, that the German Government will take all necessary measures to assure the protection of Swiss interests."

TRUST IN SUBMARINES

Germans Still Hope Piracy Will Win War.

Important Conference Will Be Held to Discuss the Modification of the Neutrality in the Case of Neutral—Austria is Anxious Not to Break With United States, but Must Obey Kaiser.

LONDON, Feb. 12.—An important conference at Headquarters has been called by Emperor William, presumably to discuss the submarine question, says the Exchange Telegraph Company's Amsterdam correspondent Sunday.

Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, the Imperial Chancellor, and high army and navy officials will attend, and it is reported that the possibility of negotiations with neutrals for modifying the terms of the recent German memorandum will be discussed.

Reports from Vienna received at The Hague and transmitted by the Exchange Telegraph Company say that the Austro-Hungarian Government is negotiating with American Ambassador Pendleton over the question of allowing Americans to travel unhindered in the Mediterranean, hoping thereby to avert a severance of relations between Austria-Hungary and the United States.

It is not expected, the despatch adds, that the negotiations will succeed, because Germany is anxious to give any pledge regarding Americans, on the ground that it would weaken the blockade in the Mediterranean, and Austria-Hungary is unable to give a guarantee without Germany's sanction.

The Berlin Kreuzzeitung, according to a Geneva despatch to Paris, says that Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg counts upon the submarine to end the war quickly.

"Every day badly employed," adds the paper, "is lost for Germany and gained for Britain, which persists in giving any pledge regarding Americans, on the ground that it would weaken the blockade in the Mediterranean, and Austria-Hungary is unable to give a guarantee without Germany's sanction."

SUBS NOT EFFECTIVE.

Hun Campaign of Ruthlessness Not a Success.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—More than 1,100 vessels arrived at or sailed from United Kingdom ports during the first nine days of Germany's unrestricted submarine warfare in British waters, according to an announcement made here Saturday by persons in authoritative touch with British Admiralty officials.

Seven hundred vessels entered United Kingdom ports safely, and 410 departed, according to intelligence. The Admiralty officials are declared to be convinced that Germany's renewed undersea activity is a failure in so far as it tends to bring about starvation of the people of the British Isles.

Other figures declared to have been received from Admiralty sources, covering the U-boat operations from February 1 to February 9, inclusive, show that sixteen ships escaped after being attacked.

The total number of vessels destroyed within the period, according to these figures, was eighty-nine. Of these, twenty-one were trawlers and smacks.

May Arm Ships.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—The Administration has under consideration the proposition as to whether it will supply guns to the American Line, to be utilized in arming its merchant passenger liners for defence against German submarine attack. The matter is being considered jointly by the State and Navy Departments and the White House, with whom these departments have been in close touch. It was learned late Sunday night that no decision had been reached.

The matter is being considered from the standpoint of broad general policy. It was learned that there is no basis for objection by the State Department to the furnishing of guns to the company for mounting on their ships, and that the Navy Department is perfectly willing to furnish the necessary guns to the company if the State Department offers no objection, and the President, presenting the Administration, is willing. While no decision has been reached, the prospects as they stood Sunday night are understood to rather favor some action being taken in favor of the Navy Department supplying the necessary guns to the company provided the American Line itself will find the necessary gunners for use in manning the guns.

Gerard and Suite to Sail.

ZURICH, Switzerland, Feb. 12.—The correspondent of the Central News learned personally Sunday night by inquiry made of the German and United States embassies, as well as from other authoritative sources, that Ambassador Gerard and his suite will sail for the United States on Feb. 24.

It was stated by some of the newspaper correspondents that there will be but few of the Americans who will brave the present situation, appearing to all that war will involve the United States within the next month at the very latest.

Revivify Dutch.

AMSTERDAM, Feb. 12.—The Telegram suggests that, while military movements in Belgium are kept strictly secret, the Germans are willing to let the Dutch know that German troops are at the frontier, and says this procedure is a method of terrorizing.

The British troops crushed the rebellion of Tribeni in Egypt. The Roumanian General who has charge of the defence of Bucharest has been degraded and sent to prison.

REPRESENTATIVE OF THE EXPORT ASSOCIATION OF CANADA IS GOING SHORTLY TO SOUTH AFRICA, WITH A VIEW TO DEVELOPING MARKETS THERE FOR CANADIAN EXPORTERS.

Sir Melbourne McTaggart, former Chief Justice of the Superior Court of Quebec, and father of Sir Thomas Tait, died suddenly at Montreal of heart failure, aged seventy-four.

Pte. John J. Jones, a Brantford man, forty-five years of age, a member of the Frontier Guard, was instantly killed at a machine gun demonstration class at Niagara Falls by a live cartridge getting among the blank ammunition.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and sets the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Cure fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.
