

CHAPTER XIII.

May 13, 1839—First Meeting of Fellows, College of Physicians and Surgeons of Upper Canada—Members Present—Dr. Widmer, President—Dr. King, Vice-President—Dr. O'Brien, Secretary and Registrar—Dr. Horne, Treasurer—Thanks to Henry Sherwood, M.P.P.—Committees—By-laws—Resolutions—School of Medicine—Address to Governor—May 21—Applicants for Membership—Dr. Rees—Governor's Reply to Address—Council of King's College—Communication from President—Plan asked for—Reply—Studying in the States—Branches of Medical Science Recommended—Salaries—Details	PAGE 113
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------

CHAPTER XIV.

June 8, 1839—Unprofessional Conduct—By-laws Published—First Examination—De La Hooke—Duly Qualified—Regulations—Apothecaries—Second Examination—H. H. Wright—Very Satisfactory—July—Licensing Militia Surgeons by Governor—Objections—Communications to Governor and to Mayor—Books Ordered—Board of Examiners—Applications—Fees to Secretary—August—Applications—Election of Honourable Fellows—Sir James McGregor, Bart.—Inspector-General of Hospitals—Report from King's College—Solicitor Appointed—Henry Sherwood—Examination—Application—Letter to King's College—Joint Committee asked for—Letter from Dr. Mulock—Submitted to Solicitor	123
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

CHAPTER XV.

September 30, 1839—The Solicitor's Reply—The College may Prosecute Unlicensed Practitioners—Applications—Examinations—October—Applications—Purchase of Medical Works—November—Examinations—New Members—Collector for the College—William Higgins—Medical Education—Petitions to the Legislature—December—Grant to Toronto Hospital—January, 1840—Letter from Governor—Reappointment of Officers—Committee of Finance—Inspector of Apothecaries—Letter from Sir James MacGregor—Honourable Fellows—Sir John Webb, K.C.B., Director-General—Examinations	132
--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

CHAPTER XVI.

February, 1840—Quarterly Meeting—New Fellows—Applications—Dr. Thomas Rolph, Agent of the College in England—March—Special Meeting—Arrival of Books—April—Commissioners of Lunatic Asylum—Opinion of College asked in regard to Sites—Committee Appointed—Report of Committee—May—New Members—Communication to President—Despatch from England—Act of Incorporation of College Disallowed—Governor-General Interviewed—Memorial from the College—The Library—June—Letter from Governor-General—Lunatic Asylum to be at Kingston—Memorial to have Asylum at Toronto—Study of Mental Diseases for Students	141
---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

CHAPTER XVII.

August, 1840—Quarterly Meeting—Applications for License—Committee to Consider the Disallowance Question—Delay in Establishing Medical School—Letter from Sir John Webb—Report of Committee on Disallowance—Royal College of Surgeons, London—Review of the Questions—Arguments against Disallowance—Summary of Colonial Acts—Copy of Report sent to Governor—Fellows wait on His Excellency	150
---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----