ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

MRS. P. E.:—Ella Wheeler Wilcox is the author of the lines:

Laugh and the world laughs with you,
Weep and you weep alone.

CAROLINE BELLE:—A young lady of seventeen wears her dresses of full length. A highly recommended wash for whitening and softening the complexion is made of two grains each of cascading powder and muriate of ammonia and eight ounces of emulsion of almonds. Apply with a soft linen cloth.

NINA B.:—Invitations to a child's party may be as follows:

Miss Alice Marguerite Dush
requests the pleasure of your company
on her Fourth Birthday,
Tuesday, August Twelfth, 1902,
from ten o'clock six o'clock.
The Sunon,
Fifth Avenue and 26th Street.

A small monogram or an engraving showing a birthday cake surrounded by the required number of candles may decorate the upper right hand corner of the invitations. At a child's party dancing is always in order, and a magic lantern show or some one skilled in sleight of hand tricks may entertain the little folk until the time for serving refreshments. The menu might be:

Cold Chicken (sliced). Bread.
S. H. Custard. Fruit Cakes.
Ice Cream. Birthday Cake (with Name and Date).
Nuts. Fruit. Biscuits.

DAISY:—A tonic highly commended by those who have tried it as an efficient promoter of the growth of the hair is compounded after the following formula:

Essence of Castor Oil, 8 fluid ounces.
Tincture of Cantharides, 1 fluid ounce.
Oil of Lavender, 1 fluid ounce.
Oil of rosemary, " "

Mix thoroughly and apply to the roots of the hair every day or two.

MISSOURI GIRL: Write for a pamphlet concerning stammering to Gibbon's Stammering School, Room 65, Mass. Building, Kansas City, Mo., quoting THE DELINEATOR.

CLAUSS: To prepare mustard for table use, place the dry mustard in a tea-cup and gradually add boiling water sufficient to make a thick paste, stirring well until perfectly smooth. Then put in enough strong vinegar to thin the paste to the desired consistency and season with salt.

E. G. L.: In using prepared flour, no raising material is required. Leaf sugar comes in cubes or blocks. It is not the same as cane sugar.

THELMA: "Une bague de plaisir" is French for "With much pleasure."

COUNTRY: As you did not describe your hat, we cannot tell whether it will be suitable for wear with the two dresses like your samples.

E. H.: We publish two pamphlets which may meet your requirements, viz.: "Child Life" and "Mother and Baby," price 6d. (by post 7d.) or 15 cents per copy.
