

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS,

MINNIE:—When the dessert is composed of more than one course, the finger-bowls are brought with the plates which are to be used for the course following the pie, pudding, etc. This is usually fruit. Each bowl is placed upon a dessert-plate, with a small doily between it and the plate. The proper method of dinner-serving is described in "Good Manners," published by us at 4s. or $1.00.

J. D.:—In order to become a good musician, one must take instruction in a practical manner, and this can only be done under the guidance of a competent teacher.
