

During the Tercentenary and After

Up To Muskoka and Beyond

The best stopping place in all Quebec is the Lake St. Joseph Hotel, on the lovely Lake St. Joseph in the Laurentian Mountains, a little over thirty minutes rail journey from the citadel city. Trains of the Canadian Northern Quebec Railway run direct from Quebec and Montreal to the station in the hotel grounds.

The hotel is new, electrically fitted, including telegraph; has 100 spacious guest rooms; splendid dining, dancing and lounging halls; golf links, tennis courts and croquet lawns in the grounds; superb boating, fishing and bathing in the seven-mile-long lake. The hotel is also a fine vantage point for trips to the Upper St. Maurice, Lake St. John and the Saguenay. Write the manager for rates. For train services write—GUY TOMBS, G.P.A., Canadian Northern Quebec Railway, Montreal.

The Lake Shore Express of the Canadian Northern Ontario Railway is conceded the most comfortably appointed train leaving Toronto, and travels the shortest, quietest and grandest scenic route to the furthest point of the Muskokas yet reached by rail. Leaves Toronto Union Station daily, except Sundays, at 10 a.m. Week-end and tourist rates from the Canadian Northern Ontario Ticket Offices, corner King and Toronto Streets, and Union Station.

ON UP TO SUDBURY. The new extension, from Parry Sound to Sudbury, is now open and serves the finest hunting, fishing, camping and canoeing country in Ontario, giving easy access to the undisturbed fishing waters of the Georgian Bay hinterland, the Maganetawan French, Pickerel, Still and other rivers. Write for illustrated booklets from the Information Bureau, Canadian Northern System, Head Office, Toronto.
