Keeps the Boys on the Farm

The city has no lure for the young people in the farm home where there is a new Edison. All the attractions of city life—the best that the theatres, the opera, the orchestras and bands can offer—are brought right to your fireside. Home becomes a real home—not just a place to sleep when the day's work is done—but a place full of life, action and enjoyment.

And think of the harvest dance in the great barn when the crops are gathered. The new Edison, of course will furnish the music. Not a squeaky fiddle, this time, but the music of a big brass band to dance by.

No, your children will not need to go to the city for enjoyment from a home made attractive by the new Edison. It will furnish the life they crave—and it will be life without any of the city's evils. Truly, your home will become a place where your children will want to stay, and where your neighbor's children will want to come if you have a new Edison.
