

Make Hay While the Sun Shines and Go Farming in Old Ontario

For the man who wishes to invest in farm land, Older Ontario offers exceptional opportunities. Good roads, steam and electric railways, good schools and rural telephones are some of the conveniences of country life in this Province. ¶ The various towns and cities which dot Ontario provide an accessible and ever increasing home market for all the products of the farm. ¶ For the man with small capital New Ontario has thousands of fertile acres awaiting settlement. ¶ For further particulars write

Hon. J. S. Duff, Minister of Agriculture, Toronto, Ont., or H. A. Macdonell, Director of Colonization, Parliament Buildings, Toronto, Ont.
