Editor's Talk

SEVERAL of our friends have flattered us by saying that last week's issue of this journal was one of the best we have yet issued. We thank them. It is well nigh impossible to maintain an even quality in weekly issues. Moreover, a number which appeals to one reader, may not appeal to another. During the summer months when one-third the staff is taking a holiday and the other two-thirds are mopping the perspiration off their brows, good papers are more difficult to get out than during the cooler seasons.
