City Affairs.

The commotion in the Council on Monday hight was not germanted by the circumstances. Mayor Howland has made charges against certain corporation officials on the authority of a witness who has given his evidence on eath, which testimony has been in a measure sate servante of the commercial corporation. The charges are grave; they imperit the reputation of second and other sources of information. The charges are grave; they imperit the reputation of second are true no one will deny shat Mr. Howland was justified in bringing them before she public. If they are proved false he will be condemned for certaining the charges from the condemned of certain for making the charges brought against him. He has given certain information and if it is not sustained by some aldermetr for making the charges brought against him. He has given certain information and if it is not sustained by further 'estimony is will not convict the accused.

When such a charge is made proof is of ne-third the content of the waterworks are not well managed. When such a charge is made proof is of ne-third the charge are more complimentary to him that to his critical information and if it is not sustained by further 'estimony is will not convict the accused.

Again Mr. Howland is blamed for saying that the waterworks are not well managed.

When such a charge is made proof is of necessity demanded and the Mayor has shown any past of the city work can be improved he is only doing, his duty in making his opinion Ricown. There is no cause for anger in this managed.
