

and ever and ever and ever and ever and ever and ever and ever and ever and ever and

Quinpool & Robie
corner
at Gulf Bldg.

429-1140

students with valid school i.d. discount mon. tues. & wed.

Sullivan's

FOREVER and EVER and ever AND EVER and ever and

Outchy mason blues

What does a team do when they're down 2-0 against the league leaders? At the 19:18 mark Danny Flynn scored the lone marker for Dal of the period from Dave Creurer and Handy Sears. At this point the Tigers method of fore-checking and pressing was apparently working.

In the second period Danny Flynn scored his second goal from John Gillis - and Creurer. Team

What can be said for this certainly a convincing win. It was Dal 5 - Moncton 2 ever, at the end of the game marvel Greg Lynch. How- ever, at the end of the game managed to fire forty-four shots at Dal's mashed during the game as they ly did not lay off once The league leaders certain- mark from Bob Richardson. was the opportunist at 0:29 for them - Pete Wentzell and pressing for the hungry Tigers. Once again it paid meant more forchecking The third period only with a strong first period as Greg Lynch had to come up by 4:32 mark. Once again by Guy Savard tip-in goal at 1:05 mark of the first Tom Coolen. Then at 18:58 from Don MacGregor and to be the winner at 10:08

Louis Nadeau put Monc- they did.

Louis Levesque Arena with revenge in mind. They had certainly come to play hockey and that's just what they did.

On Sunday afternoon the blocked thirty-two.

At the end of the game Lynch had stopped forty-six shots while Ted McComb lead and give them the win. period to protect the win. several saves in the last once again came up with position but Greg Lynch Mounties in the threatening for Mt. A. to put the at 12:24 Rod Spreng scored no goals were scored. Then the "fired up Tigers" came out "growing" for goals and by the fifteen minute mark the score board showed Dalhousie 3 Mount Allison 1. The line of Art Ellis, Jim Shatford and Pete Wentzell provided two goals - Shatford at 2:30 mark while Wentzell scored at 6:40 mark. Then Darrel MacGregor scored what was to be the winner at 15:42 from Tom Coolen and Bob Richardson.

Going into the third period with a 3-1 lead meant very little to the Tigers who were interested in putting three periods off to a very slow start. Goalie Greg Lynch certainly kept the Tigers in the game by blocking seventeen of the eighteen shots fired his way. By the second period pressing Tigers however,

Tigers on winning streak