

1 Clause? A. Joseph Clause, yes; the first time---

2 Q. Had you investigated Joe Clause at all up to 3 that time? A. Inspector Clark--apparently wish to 4 read Q. You had not, though? A. Well, I had accom-
5 panied Inspector Clark, your lordship, and I did
6 accompany him in practically this entire investigation.

7 Q. Before the preliminary? A. Yes, your lord-
8 ship. A. Seven pages, Mr. Lickers.

9 Q. So that you had had an interview--don't say
10 what it is, but you had had an interview with Joe 11 Clause by that time? A. We had, yes.

12 Q. Long before this? A. Long before this, your 13 lordship. Q. Of each one of these? A. He was asked

14 to MR. LICKERS: Q. Did you have an interview with 15 Joe Clause as a result of this statement? A. I was 16 present when he was interviewed. A. He signed the last 17 page Q. As a result of the information in this of 18 statement? A. Yes; he initialled page 6, page 5, page

19 4. Q. Then you asked him the question, "Is there 20 anything more which you wish to tell me in connection
21 with this matter?" and the answer was, "I don't think 22 there is anything else. What I have now told you is 23 the absolute truth." Did you question him about that, 24 as to whether it was the absolute truth or not?

25 A. May I refer to the statement and answer you?

26 Feb. MR. WALLACE: A. Fifth line from the bottom, p.

27 WITNESS: I certainly did not question him any 28 further. HIS LORDSHIP: Any re-examination, Mr. Wallace?

29 MR. LICKERS: Q. But you still knew that there
30 were certain discrepancies in connection with this
