

take extra sleep + rest after every such effort.
This is the only way to keep from a head down. It was to God of you bread me that glorious fruit from Liverpool It arrived in perfect condition & I have never tasted such perfect pears & grapes & figs. They were a great treat. Had your letter written just before you landed, & was so glad you had a restful voyage up to all your brothering me in London.
The Wimbledon day is 5565 beautiful to me to remember : One of those heavenly days that cannot die! as Wordsworth says. Mr Mansbridge read me a number of beautiful letters he has had about the white life of Arnold. My nephew Howard Jalk has left Canada + gone to a settlement in New York to work. That is what he was most for. My nephew Arnold of Toynbee has just got the Senior Balliol Scholarship & the Masters & Dons are very pleased that one of my ^{nieces} brother's name is? he is going to the college.

Sir William Broadbent is at last getting better: they put a tube into his lungs to drain an abscess has formed there + this has kept down the temperature. They hope to move him to Brighton before long

W. L. Mackenzie King Papers
Volume 6