Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, P.C.,
The Senate,
Ottawa.

My dear Senator,

I have to thank you most sincerely for sending me six copies of your fine lecture on Shakespeare. I fear I may have done too much in the way of depleting your stock of the pamphlet. I met Grattan O'Leary in Ottawa and not expecting to see you I asked him to be good enough to secure a few copies for me. Later I had the pleasure of meeting you in Toronto and asked for a copy. So, in the result, my prayer happily has been abundantly answered. I am glad to be able to favour a few friends of your own and mine with copies.

In the course of each month, I fill in many a spare hour or half-hour reading Shakespeare, and each successive reading, it seems to me, reveals a new beauty. For format, clearness of type, and care in editing, I like the new Temple edition (Dent's) better than any other I know. When travelling one can slip a volume in the pocket without inconvenience.

It will give me great pleasure if I have the good fortune of meeting you soon again.

With all best wishes

I remain, my dear Senator,

Sincerely yours

Joseph Hisholm
