Ottawa, November 19th, 1909.

Sir,

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 13th instant in reference to the supplies for the Whyccomagh School, and in reply I beg to say that all your supplies with the exception of the 3rd, 4th and 5th Readers and the copy books were sent on the 4th of November. These will no doubt arrive shortly.

A duplicate of your requisition was received from Rev. D. McPherson, Indian Agent. This, of course, will not be filled, but if you should find it necessary you may purchase another dozen slates and send the account to the Department through the Agent.

Your obedient servant,

Tom Leau
Secretary.

John Gillis, Esq.,

Teacher,

Whyccomagh, N.S.
