Every Teacher Should Study to Understand Childhood in All Its Phases.

A GOOD BOOK TO READ IS

Your Boy: His Nature and Nurture

By GEORGE A. DICKINSON, M.D.

With 24 Illustrations in Half-Tone.

Cloth $1.00

Dr. Gilmour, Warden of the Central Prison of Ontario, writes:—"I have read Your Boy with interest and profit. The book is a veritable parents' and teachers' manual, and should be carefully read by every parent and teacher in the land. I cordially endorse the emphasis the author places on environment. Not the least admirable feature of the book is the spirit of toleration, patience, love and hope, in dealing with boys that permeates it from cover to cover. Dr. Dickinson's book illustrates Victor Hugo's beautiful phrase, 'There are no bad weeds, there are only bad cultivators.'"
