A POSITIVE CRAZE FOR SCOTCH PLAIDS.

The autumn girl has come out strongly for plaids. Dozens and dozens of the most charming little frocks, mingling Scotch plaid with some clinging plain fabric, are to be seen any day at the matinees or in the restaurants at lunch or tea hour. This delightful little frock is of olive green lansdowne and plaid silk showing olive green, dull blue and red in its pattern. Note the manner in which the skirt is tapered in by a draped apron of the lansdowne. The bodice is finished with a frill and opens over a chemise of embroidery.

LADIES' TAILORING AND DRESSMAKING

Nuptial Notes

GROBB-HARLEY.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized this afternoon when Miss Anna Craig Harley, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Harley, and Mr. Robert Gordon Grobb, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Grobb, were united in marriage. While the wedding march was being played by Mr. George C. White, the bride entered the drawing room on the arm of her father. Little Miss Mary Grobb acted as flower girl and Miss Edna Hesse of Woodstock was bridesmaid. The groom was attended by Mr. Thomas Jackson, of Toronto.

and the Rev. T. E. Holling performed the wedding ceremony. The bride looked lovely in a beautiful gown of ivory charmeuse trimmed with seed pearls and duchess lace, the customary veil being caught in a quaint little mob cap with orange blossoms and carried a nosegay of bridal roses, and lily of the valley. Miss Mary Grobb was very sweet in a Kate Greenway dress of pompadour net over white silk, and wore her grandmother's wedding bonnet. The bridesmaid looked very attractive in a gown of pink charmeuse with an overdress of pale blue brocade lined on edged with sable and poke bonnet of black velvet and carried pink roses. The mother of the bride wore a handsome gown of Madonna blue brocade satin with touches of American beauty roses. Mrs. Franklin Grobb was beautifully dressed in hat to match.

After the ceremony, Miss Helen Ivey of London, wearing old rose crepe de chine with overdress of Dolly Varden crepe and little French hat of black velvet, sang sweetly, "Beloved, it is Morn."

The house was artistically decorated with palms, chrysanthemums and roses.

After a buffet luncheon, Mr. and Mrs. Grobb left on their wedding trip the bride wearing a smart navy blue costume with black fox-fur and small black hat. Upon their return, they will reside in Toronto.

Wesley Epworth

The regular meeting of the Wesley Epworth League was of a special nature last night. A large crowd was in attendance to hear the fine programme arranged by Mr. Roy Collins, the president. The meeting was opened by singing a hymn which was followed by a number of selections on a Victrola, operated by Mr. Robinson, which was much enjoyed by the audience. Mr. Liddy then gave a splendid address on his travels through Europe, which was very instructive, as well as interesting. Mr. Robinson then gave a few more selections from the gramophone. The evening was then brought to a close by giving Mr. Robinson a vote of thanks. A debate will take place in the school room of the church next Monday by the literary committee of the League. The debate will be on "Woman Suffrage."

Y.W.C.A. Literary

The opening meeting of the Y.W.C.A. literary club was held last Saturday afternoon in Victoria Hall at 3.30 p.m. Those who braved the inclement weather were amply repaid by the exceedingly interesting hour which was spent.

The president, Mrs. Phillip Buck, presided, and after a delightful piano duet, given by the Misses Sweet and Montzambert, introduced the speaker of the afternoon, Mrs. Scott Ross, principal of the Margaret Eaton school of literature and expression, Toronto.

The speaker commenced her series of interpretations of "The Ring and the Book" by Robert Browning, and the recital was a thing of artistic excellence and earnest effort. Possessing, as the reader does, a great charm of person and dignity of soul, her readings were both impressive and healthful. She has a real interest in literature, and in an energetic and enthusiastic teacher.

On Saturday last she dealt with "The Ring and the Book" as a whole, giving the complete setting and resume of the poetry, and concluded her lecture with the reading of Browning's wonderful "Oh lyric love, half angel and half fiend—apostrophe to his wife."

On Dec. 3rd Mrs. Ross will give her second lecture to the club, and will deal with one of the principal characters "Guido," and it is hoped that many will avail themselves of this literary treat.

The executive of the club regrets exceedingly that it was necessary to limit the club membership, many being unable to accommodate more at the regular meetings. The public is cordially welcomed to the open meetings.

On Nov. 22, the club will hold its regular meeting when the afternoon will be spent with "The Dwellers of the Forest Primeval." Miss A. Harold will give a paper on Indian Herbs, and Miss G. Raymond, one on "Indian Oratory." Mrs. Henry Yeigh will deal with current events. All the members are requested to be present.

Among those noticed in the gallery at the Dufferin Rifles inspection last night were: Mrs. (Col.) Howard, Mrs. (Major) Genet, Mrs. Phillip Buck, Misses Buck, Mrs. (Col.) Palmer, Mrs. (Capt.) Colquhoun, Mrs. (Capt.) Babinchey, Mrs. George D Watt, Col and Mrs. Muir, Major and Mrs. Gordon J. Smith, Mrs. Barrows, Miss Doyle, Major Hamilton, Miss Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Newman, Mrs. W. G. Raymond, Dr. and Mrs. Chapin, Mrs. and Miss Secord, Mrs. J. C. Saul, Miss Large, Mrs. James, Miss Newman, Mrs. Gordon Duncan, Col. Wilkes, Major Hamilton, Mrs. Major Ashton, Miss Hall, Major Leonard, Mrs. (Capt.) Dunlop, Mrs. (Sergeant) Ostry, Mrs. Sherri.
