"A Mind in the Past" is the title given Chapter No. 8 of the Diamond from the Sky which was by far the best motion picture serial exhibited in this city. The Diamond is taken from the colored boy by a tramp and finally finds its way into the Chinese quarter of a large city. It is again discovered by a party of sightseers. This serial is entirely different to any other serial shown in this city that each chapter is eagerly awaited and watched with great interest by all who see it. This chapter is full of fascinating scenes and clever situations. See it today. Comedy and other films will be shown with this feature.
