Uses of Stratagem—His Subject
at the Tabernacle.
Victorious Retreat—Triumph of the Wicked is Short.
Theatres and Drinking Saloons to be Turned into Asylums, Art Galleries and Churches.

FREDERICK, N. Y., July 22.—Chaplain T. De Witt Talmage preached today to the Thirtieth regiment of the New York State National Guards, now encamped here. The regiment assembled at 8 p.m., when people from the neighboring country, towns and cities were present in immense numbers. A military band conducted the musical part of the service. Chaplain Talmage's sermon, which was on "Uses of Stratagem," was based on Joshua vii. 7: "Then ye shall rise up from the midst, and see upon the hill." He said:
"The Thirtieth regiment and their friends here gathered, of all occupations and professions, men of the city and men of the fields, here to cheer for all of us.
One Sabbath evening, when my family around me, we were talking over the scene of the text. In the wide open eyes of the Thirtieth regiment and their friends here gathered, of all occupa-
for all of us.

The Best is Cheapest
The most prudent business men advertise in The Cleaner. Why? Because it pays them.

And die for the truth, when John Bunyan lay rotting in Bedford jail, saying: "If God will help me and my physical life continues I will stay here until the most grows on my eyebrows rather than give up my faith," the days of retreat for the church were days of victory.
The Pilgrim fathers fell back from the other side of the sea to Plymouth Rock, but now are marshaling a continent for the Christianization of the world. The church of Christ falling back from Piedmont, falling back from Rye St. Jacques, falling back from St. Denis, falling back from Wurtemberg castles, falling back from the Brussels market place yet all the time triumphing. Notwithstanding all the shocking reverses which the church of Christ suffers, what do we see today? Three thousand missionaries of the cross on heathen ground; sixty thousand ministers of Jesus Christ in this land; at least two hundred millions of Christians on the earth. All nations today kneeling in a haze of revival. Falling back, yet advancing until the old Wednesday hymn will prove true:
The Lion of Judah shall break the chain,
And give us the victory again and again!
But there is a more marked illustration of victorious retreat in the life of our John, the Jesus of the ages. First falling back, then retreating, then coming on in appalling depth, falling from celestial hills to terrestrial valleys, from thrones to dust, from the heights of heaven to the depths of hell. Falling back, yet advancing, until the old Wednesday hymn will prove true:
The Lion of Judah shall break the chain,
And give us the victory again and again!

Lesson the fourth: The importance of taking good aim. There is no man how are those people in ambush up on the hill? When they are up on the hill, and how are these men around John to know when they are to stop their flight and advance? There must be some signal—a signal to stop the battle and to start the other. John, the Jesus of the ages, was evidently waiting for the signal to start the battle, to bring the colors of battle, point toward the hill. He stands in such a position, and there is so much of the morning light dripping from that spear tip, that all around the horizon, and it was as much as to say: "There is my aim. Take it. Take it now. Fall down from the west. Surge up from the north. It is ours, the city of Al." God's word is the great aim, the great end of Christian attack amounts to nothing unless we have the word of God to guide us. Nobody knows what we do not know ourselves which point we take to take, when we ought to make for ourselves what God will have to do, and point our spear in that direction and then let our body mind, soul, and battles, all around that one target. In our pulpit, and in our Sunday schools, and in prayer meetings we want to get a representation for saying pretty things, and so we point our spear toward the east, or we want a reputation for saying sublime things, and we point our spear toward the west, or we want a reputation for being great, and we point our spear toward the north, or we want a reputation for being wise, and we point our spear toward the south, and we want a reputation for being good, and we point our spear toward the east, and we want a reputation for being great, and we point
