Around Town.

PERSONAL.—Lieut. F. B. Black of the 8th Cavalry left on Friday evening for Quebec, where he intends taking a short course of instruction at the Cavalry school in the Citadel.

FINN FRUIT.—Mrs. John Bell has presented the Post with a sample of fine large pears grown at her home Foundry St. One measured 9 1/2 x 1 1/2 in. and had all the lusciousness of the California Bartlett.

FALL IN MOLASSES.—On Thursday last, while some molasses was being loaded on the N. B. & P. E. I. train a cask belonging to M. Wood & Son fell and burst, the contents running over the track and sleepers.

FOR THE NORTH SHORE.—On Tuesday morning Messrs. F. McDougall of the Merchants and Thos. Murray of the Halifax Banking Co., left for a fortnight's shooting on the North Shore, near Richibucto. Mr. E. C. Jarvis will act as manager during Mr. McDougall's absence and Mr. Allen takes Mr. Murray's place.

A CURIOSITY.—Mr. Thos. A. Kinnear, Barrister, has on exhibition at his office a curiously formed specimen of Solanum tuberosum, grown in his garden. The specimen has four perfectly formed branches united to the main trunk and is of a brownish tint. The Solanum is a highly nutritious plant and is grown in large quantities in this locality.

LITERARY SOCIETY.—The people of the Central school have organized a Literary Society, for the purpose of general improvement. On November 13, they propose giving an entertainment in Chignecto Hall, proceeds to be devoted towards the purchase of an organ for the school. The members have been in practice for some time and it is hoped the public will generously patronize the entertainment and help the worthy cause along.

STOCK NOTES.—On Thursday last Mr. Edward Reid's valuable pure bred Jersey cow Daisy died of some internal trouble.

About two weeks ago some unknown parties accidentally or otherwise shot a fine milk cow belonging to Wm. Snowdon of Wood Point. The shot wound could not be induced to heal and on Friday last she died.

ILLEGAL LOBSTER FISHING.—During the past fortnight there has been a flood of charges of illegal lobster fishing at Cape Tormentine. Cases and counter prosecutions have been so thick that there is room for supposing that had Inspector Chapman continued to hold court there he would have been busy until spring. On Friday Mr. E. T. P. Shewen appeared before the inspector on a charge of having lobster on his table in the close season. No evidence and the case was dismissed. Assistant Inspector Goodwin will shortly be called to Moncton, where Mr. Chapman holds his court to answer a similar charge.

TO THE ASYLUM.—On Friday evening last Louis Atkinson of Baie Verte, the young man who disappeared so strangely from his home some time ago was taken to the Provincial Lunatic Asylum. There is something particularly remarkable about this case. The patient has been usually bright and cheerful, but just previous to his admission, he was morose and quiet. He suddenly left home one day and for 10 weeks lived in camps made by himself in the woods of the near of John Irving's mill. He supported himself on the very liberal tribute which he levied on the farmers in the vicinity. It is known that he killed one deer and stole quantities of potatoes to live on.

MR. ALLISON NOTES.—Dr. Allison has sold his property at Halifax to Dr. Weldon, M. P., and is preparing to leave Halifax for his new position at Mt. Allison.

—Last week while in St. John a number of the Alumni and Alumnae of Mt. Allison met Prof. Andrews and completed arrangements for the formation of a local Mt. Allison Association. Each spring a meeting and dinner will be held when delegates to the commencement exercises at the college will be appointed. Associations are now organized at St. John, Windsor, St. Stephen and Moncton.

—Among the delegates to the Y. M. C. A. Convention was Mr. McKay of Moncton who sailed six feet seven inches in his stockings.

—The concert in the Conservatory Hall to-morrow evening promises to be one of the musical treats of the season. The program will be formally named in honor of one of the masters and a bust of Beethoven will be unveiled with the usual ceremonies. See programme in another column.

On Friday 30th inst. David G. S. Conner, B. A. Prof. of Eloquence at Queens University, Kingston, Ontario, will give an evening's reading in the Conservatory Hall. Prof. Conner comes here with press notices of the highest character testifying to his ability as an eloquentist.

—The Eucharistic Society will hold a semi-public meeting on Saturday night. Prof. Andrews goes to Moncton next week to talk over the University extension movement with the citizens and take the necessary steps if deemed advisable toward arranging classes there.

—General Boulanger's funeral was attended by an immense concourse of people and in order to preserve order the militia had to be called out. His remains upon whose grave he shot himself left him a large amount of money, so that it was not financial troubles as at first reported that drove the ex-leader to his death.

Y. M. C. A. CONVENTION.

The Second Annual Conference of Colleges Associations.

The first meeting of the above convention was held in Linsley Hall on Friday evening and was attended by a large number of delegates and others.

Rev. Prof. Brecken occupied the chair. Mr. T. B. Darby on behalf of Mt. Allison presented an address of welcome to which Mr. H. H. A. Keller, re-sponse. Prof. Andrews read a paper on "Faith in the Intellectual and Moral Life."

On Oct. 17th the meeting was formally opened by prayer by Mr. Saunders of Acadia, and Mr. F. A. Keller, re-presenting the International Committee took the chair, and Mr. W. F. DeBarras, A. B., was appointed secretary. The reports from the different associations for the year 1890-91 were read. They were as follows:

At the afternoon session a paper on "Intercollegiate relations," was read by Mr. Saunders, of Acadia, and warmly appreciated. Mr. McLeod, read a paper on "How to assist students in bible study."

In response to a question by Mr. Keller it was shown that Mt. Allison and Acadia had Bible Study under the same management.

Wales and Univ. of N. B. had not. Some remarks were then made by delegates upon the methods of holding meetings at the different colleges.

Mr. Darby spoke of the effectual work done in the Ladies College in Bible study. Miss Alcorn gave a short address upon the subject of the student's life.

After reception a meeting was held in the Conservatory Hall, Mr. Darby in the chair. It was agreed that the next meeting of the conference be held at Dalhousie on the first Friday in November, 1892.

Mr. Gorton read a paper on "The relations of the students to the general association of the United States provinces." Mr. Keller spoke of the relations of students to foreign missions.

An after session meeting was held to which a large number attended. The following offered for work:—T. B. Darby, '92, S. C. Leonard, '92, E. Colpitts, '93, A. D. McLeod and Mr. Otero of Dalhousie.

On Sunday Rev. Mr. Brecken preached upon student work. In the afternoon a students meeting for men only, in which all probably have heard the great student uprising. Five minute speeches were made by Indos of Mt. Allison, Mackintosh of Dalhousie and Wilson of Acadia.

Proposed of students under the leadership of Prof. Mack and rendered exceptionally fine music.

The delegates to the convention were: Acadia—A. M. Saunders, T. H. H. A. Keller, Mr. Wilson, and A. M. Baker. Prince of Wales—T. Haslam and N. Goodwill. Dalhousie—Mackay, Hills, Mackintosh and MacCoy. Univ. of N. B.—Yorsten and Baxter. Representatives of International committee, F. W. Keller, Yale; E. W. Gorton, provincial secretary.

Tidnish.

Farmers are about finishing up their potato digging. Had it not been for the wet weather, the digging would have been done long ago. Some pronounce their potatoes to be more than half diseased. All other vegetables are reported extra good.

The thrashing machines are out, the thrashing and farmers smile to see their graineries filled to the brim.

—Mr. Charles Thompson, a native of the place, has been visiting here for several years, at intervals, had delicate health, but his last illness was brief.

—Mr. Robert Taylor has arrived home with his bride from his wedding trip. For nearly two weeks we have had an Evangelist among us holding services in the Union Church, proclaiming the glad tidings and telling us of the old story. It is said he is one of Dr. Moody's converts. He preached last Sabbath to crowded house from Malachi, 3:8, "The Lord our God will be with us and he will prosper us."

Before the close of the service nearly the whole assembly arose to their feet to give witness that they were true to being on the right side. He says he fully believes that there is going to be a mighty work done at the cross roads of the Union Church. He expects to remain here for a few weeks yet, holding services every evening.

THURSDAY'S RACES.

On Amherst Driving Park.

Owing to the weather, the attendance at the races at the Amherst driving park on Thursday last was somewhat small. The judges were C. H. Barry, Susan, C. Holmes, J. M. Lowy and Dr. Hall. Amherst. The first race was called was the sweepstakes for a purse of $150. The entries were Nellie T., Greyhound and Shamrock Boy.

The second horse did not appear and his place was taken by Frank. The race was interesting, particularly for second place. Nellie T. won first place and the race.

Amherst Driving Park, Oct. 15th, '91.
Sweepstakes, Purses $150.
Nellie T. 1 1 1
Frank 2 2 2
Shamrock Boy 3 3 3
Time 2:50, 2:50, 2:47.

The Green race resulted as follows: Same day and track. Green race Purses $100.
Wm. K. 1 1 1
Jessie 2 2 2
Sim 3 3 3
Time 2:50, 2:50, 2:55.

The event of the day was the attempt of Sir Richard to break the yearling half mile record for the Dominion, which Bork made at Amherst last month. This he did, lowering the record to 1:35 on a very heavy track.

—General Boulanger's funeral was attended by an immense concourse of people and in order to preserve order the militia had to be called out. His remains upon whose grave he shot himself left him a large amount of money, so that it was not financial troubles as at first reported that drove the ex-leader to his death.

Around Town.

YESTERDAY Judge Morse sent Davis the jail breaker to Dorchester for 2 years for robbery at Oxford.

SHOOTING MATCH.—The Sackville Rifle Club will compete for the Wood Medal and Powell Cup at the Smith Range on Saturday, Oct. 31st. A large attendance is requested.

FIRE AT WESTCOCK.—Early this morning the house owned at Westcock by Joseph Cook was burned to the ground. The cause of the fire is not known. Part of the furniture was saved.

CONCERT AT FAIRVIEW.—On Monday evening next a concert will be given in the Methodist Church at Fairview by several ladies and gentlemen of Sackville. Proceeds for Fairview Sabbath School.

On Tuesday night an unused wooden factory formerly occupied by Foster & Allen, Amherst, was destroyed by fire. Cause probably incendiary. Insured for $6,000. The policy would have expired in 3 days.

PROPERTY SALE.—Mr. M. G. Cole has purchased from the Allison estate, two building lots 30 x 120 each opposite the Brunswick House. Mr. Allison will shortly run a 3rd road through to the lower station road and these lots will front on this road.

PERSONAL.—Mr. and Mrs. James Wood returned from their bridal tour on Wednesday last.

—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Read passed through Sackville to Baie Verte yesterday.

Customs Inspector, Burke, paid an official visit to the Custom House yesterday.

ENTERTAINMENT AT CENTREVILLE.—On Saturday last Prof. Clark the well-known elocutionist assisted by local talent, gave an entertainment in the Baptist Church Centreville for the purpose of raising money to purchase a chandelier for the church. The professor gave a series of readings in his usual fine style and the audience was highly pleased with very pleasing musical selections. A large sum was realized.

RUNAWAY.—Last Friday night while some of the band boys were on their way home from practice, discovered a horse lying on his back in a ditch near the new house. After some difficulty they succeeded in extricating it from its dangerous position. Had it not been discovered that night it would probably have been found the next morning from exhaustion. The horse belonged to Mr. David Whistler.

SUDDEN DEATHS.—On Saturday Mary H. daughter of late John Riley of Melrose, died after a very short illness. On Monday evening Mr. Denis Downey of same place attended the deceased ladies' funeral and shortly after midnight he was taken ill and died suddenly. The funeral took place yesterday.

A gloom rest over the place as they were among the most popular citizens.

Westmorland Point.

The wet weather of late has prevented many of the farmers from having their crops all stored for the winter.

The parties who were afraid of not having their marshes flooded by petitioning the proprietors, must have sent their petitions to a higher power. For the marsh in this vicinity is almost totally submerged in its natural element. We trust the parties will be thankful for such an abundant and timely answer.

—Mrs. Joseph H. Cowen lost her daughter, Mrs. James Hawkins, Boston. She was not in good health when she left and we hope the trip will be pleasant and beneficial.

—Mr. and Mrs. John S. Fullerton of Albert, who have been on a trip to P. R. Island, stopped off here on their way home and are spending a few days with their friends. They report abundant crops on the Island, but prices generally low.

—Pursuant to notice our annual school meeting was held on the day appointed by law, and although the day was very disagreeable, there was a fair attendance. Joseph Atkinson, Esq. was chosen to be the chairman, and G. O. Siddall as secretary. James C. King one of the Trustees, on behalf of the board submitted the customary report, which was read and the school has been run the past year in a very creditable and satisfactory manner. The school has turned out a number who have made a very successful showing at Fredericton, which reflected credit on the school that it attended. The auditor, W. C. Fillmore Esq. tendered his report which was read and accepted. E. Tremblay Carter was elected trustee, in room of Jas. Sutherland Esq. whose term of office had expired. Under the careful management of the school, and the efficient financing of the secretary, Mr. Ephraim Carter, it was only necessary to vote $150.00, which together with present funds was deemed quite adequate to defray all school contingencies.

The free entertainment which was given by the Lodge, on the 6th inst. was greeted by a crowded house. The programme which consisted of music, dialogue, recitations, readings and stump speeches, was dispensed with in more than the usual pleasing manner. A darky dialogue and a stump speech, which was well adapted to the occasion, brought the house completely down with shouts and great peals of laughter. Some of the readings were especially well adapted to the occasion. After the lengthy programme was exhausted, some spicy remarks were made from the audience, which were well appreciated. "God save the Queen" was being sung the crowd dispersed with the full reward of their best anticipations.

—Mr. William Miner had the misfortune to lose a very fine young horse, which he found dead in the field one day last week. No signs show from what cause the animal died.

—More apples are being shipped from Moncton to Great Britain than they have in any former one. Last week's shipment amounted to 14,100 barrels. In the corresponding week last year 5,600 barrels were shipped.

I. C. R. MANAGEMENT.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE POST.
SIR:—Since the elections last spring, but few of the Liberal leaders will admit they committed a grievous error in not submitting to the polls, the issue of the I. C. R. management, instead of an unpopular trade question. No one can question that the results would have been different. Local management of this great local work the people want, and will have. No railway constituency will vote against local management. However transcendent Mr. Schreiber's professional merits as a civil engineer are, he does not satisfy anyone as a business manager. To do him justice, his extreme unpopularity is probably due as much to his representing a bad and false principle—absolute management—as to his personal qualities, which his most ardent admirers, if he has any, cannot claim are very outstanding. A government more than a parish corporation can afford to dispense with a man of tact and diplomacy to deal with the promiscuous public; but to run them continuously with a man void of a spark of geniality, apparently innocent of any desire to please, without suspicion of ever having harbored a wish to meet the requirements of business people—is simply to invite disgust and hatred. This the government has done. The rumor comes that Mr. Schreiber is to be transported to the post lately occupied by Mr. H. F. Perley, as Chief Engineer of Public Works. If this report is not true, the government will be wise to make it true. The report also comes that Mr. Pottinger is to be general manager. As Superintendent Mr. Pottinger has been under a cloud—under the Schreiber cloud, and is not popular. Those who are best acquainted with him state that if freed from the anodyne system of checks and guides invented by Mr. Schreiber to deprive him of any real authority and given free rein to Mr. Pottinger, he would not only popularize the railway, but institute such reforms and savings as would surely reduce the yearly deficit. I trust the government will make the change by giving Mr. Pottinger the same chance that company railways give their managers to deal summarily with business men, so that the greatest satisfaction can be given, reorganize the service on a more economical basis, dispensing with useless officials and logging off needless expenses. If the new Tory government led by Sir John Thompson in the Commons is to run on the principal of reform as honesty, let a commencement be made with the I. C. R.

The Ecumenical Conference.

The Ecumenical Conference at Washington is indeed a grand body of representative men. The delegates numbering 500 are gathered from the various nations of earth and represent the different divisions and phases of Cosmopolitan Christianity. Among them are not only divines and scholars of the first rank, but capitalists and men of business in the political, commercial and economic pursuits of life.

Themes of the widest range and most important interest are discussed and the spacious Metropolitan church is day after day filled to its utmost capacity with eager listeners. Rev. Dr. Douglas led honor to Canada as he yesterday moved his residence in suppression of the nefarious opium traffic; and Dr. Inch equally honored his native province in his able address on the "Moral aspects of Combination of Capital." To-day Benj. Harrison, President of the United States, introduced to the Conference and delivered a most happy and highly appreciated address. Sir Julian Pauncefote, and Secy-Treasurer Foster were also introduced to the Conference, and Mr. Foster gave a very pleasing and enthusiastic speech. Among so many distinguished men of the Conference it is hard to distinguish, but among them all none are more esteemed than the venerable and scholarly and William Matthews of London. Washington, with its many grand public buildings, beautiful streets and 250,000 inhabitants is the finest city on this continent, and its people unpassed for their courtesy and kindly treatment of strangers and visitors. That altogether the grand Ecumenical Council now in session is an occasion of superlative interest and pleasure.

L. S. JOHNSON.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 17th, 1891.

Jolice Echoes.

The heavy rains of late has prevented the farmers securing their potatoes in good condition as they wish.

—Mr. Robert Dobson, of Amherst, who has been slightly indisposed, is at present recruiting in this place.

—The wife of our popular citizen, Mr. Geo. Crossman, had her foot seriously burned a few days ago.

—Rumor says that several of our young residents were about to change their names; and to change others. We trust that it is correct, as a great deal of time and attention is paid by some in finding out these matters and it would be too tedious to dispute them.

—Mrs. C. Dobson is spending a few days with her son, Thomas Dobson. She will be a welcome guest, as she has many friends in this vicinity.

The ladies of the Methodist church intend having a pie social in the hall at this place on Friday evening. Everyone should try to be on hand, as it is for a good cause, and your correspondent has no doubt but that the pie will be excellent, an enjoyable evening's entertainment.

—The thrashing machines are now going their round, and an excellent crop of grain is reported from all quarters.

—Most of the snipe-shooters has left us; as the sound of the gun is no longer heard in the early morning.

Dorchester.

The marshes are being flooded by the high tides, as the dykes are out in several places. There are quite large areas that have not yet been touched however.

—Mr. A. W. Struthers gave an exhibition of views with a stereoscopic in the Court House last week. Every seat was occupied, and the large audience very much enjoyed the views.

The review of Dominion lists is proceeding, yesterday being the last day for notices in this vicinity. There are many applications for addition.

—Mr. John Eagles is in town to-day.

—Mr. B. B. Teed goes to Fredericton today to be sworn in as attorney.

Church Services.

BAPTIST SERVICES.—Rev. W. H. Warren pastor. At Upper Sackville, every Sunday at a. m., prayer meeting at 7 p. m., and on Wednesday evening at
