

You Never Hear

A man says his Christy Hat did not wear well. Well, then, why do you wear any other kind when we have just opened some thousands of New Christy's for Fall?

It's time you bought a Christy, but if you cannot spare the money just now come and pick one out. We'll lay it aside for you until you want it.

Prices $1, $2 and $3 each.

PROWSE BROS.

Jack Frost

Will be here soon, and every man will need a nice Light Overcoat for Fall.

We have opened a great variety for Fall and Winter, and we are anxious to have you see them.

Prices are $5, $6, $7, $8, $10 and $15.

These Overcoats are all right, cut right and made right. Fit able kind—warm Overcoats—bad for the doctor but good for you.

PROWSE BROS.

You Feel It

Very much if you get a nice Suit and it don't fit well.

Here you cannot make this mistake because we never let a man leave our rooms with an ill fitting suit. We don't have to, because we have Twenty-five Thousand Dollars worth of Clothing to fit him from. We don't flood the Island with one pattern. You run slim chances of meeting your neighbor in your suit. We arrange for exclusiveness. The field of clothing is large enough.

SEE US

PROWSE BROS.

"We treat you white, wherever you may hail from."

Grocery Satisfaction

In this store means something more than simply LOW PRICES. It means strictly high-class goods—the guaranteed kinds. It means prompt attention, quick delivery. It stands for all you can possibly expect, from the best Grocery Store you ever heard of.

Everything guaranteed to be the best of its kind.

Our Tea pleases many. It will please you.

Driscoll & Hornsby,
Queen Street.

HURRAH!

Hurrah for P.E. Island's Great Crockery Store. Our stock of China, Glass and Earthenware is on the market at from 10 to 33 $\frac{1}{3}$ p. c. off

There are bargains here for every housekeeper in the Province. Special reduced prices on our immense stock of DINNER SETTS and special reduced rates on everything else. Don't forget to call on

W. P. COLWILL,
New Prowse Block—Opposite Post Office—Sunnyside.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

The British Parliament will be opened by King Edward on January 23rd.

SETH LOW, the an I-Tammany candidate selected Mayor of New York yesterday.

Tire Montreal sugar refineries have cut the price on sugar of all grades ten cents per hundred.

His Lordship, the Bishop and Rev. Dr. Morris left here yesterday morning for Halifax to attend the funeral of Mr. Murphy.

MR. HUGH A. MCKINNON, late of Sturge n. E. I., led the list in an examination in pharmacy held recently at Courtland, N. H.

WHILE crossing the railway track, on Thursday, at Marigowish, N. S., Mrs. James Smith of Antigonish, was struck by the train and instantly killed.

JOSEPH FOX, C. M. G., under-secretary of state, has been commissioned to write an official account of the tour in Canada of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York.

THE trial of Fred Lee Rice, the notorious bank burglar charged with the murder of Constable Boyd at Toronto, in June last, was adjourned few days ago. The prisoner positively denied shooting Boyd. He was found guilty of murder.

MR. HUGH McDONALD, contractor of the Summerside bridge, has also secured the contract for building a new railway wharf and freight sheds at Pictou. This work will employ a large number of men and will cost about $50,000. The suits everybody.

THE Customs receipts of the Dominion for the month of October, which ended Thursday, was $2,000,000, an increase of $200,894 over October of 1900. For the four months of the current fiscal year there was an increase in the Customs duty of $689,805 over the same period of last year.

CATTLE shipments from Montreal to the United States the past season show a decrease of over four thousand head compared with last year. The shipments of sheep increased by two thousand head. The export of horses to South Africa totalled 6,648, an increase of 2,390 over last year.

THE fine new hall on the parochial property, Palmer Road, is fast approaching completion. Externally it is handsomely built, and has two large windows. The C. M. B. A. will occupy the upper half, the parlor the lower. When completed the hall will cost $1,600.

CAPTAIN ROBERT F. MONTGOMERY, commander of the battleship Princess Royal of the channel squadron, has been appointed Commodore of the Newfoundland squadron, succeeding Commodore George Giffard, former master of the cruiser Charadybe, who is also for promotion, his term in Newfoundland waters having expired.

ACCORDING to Mrs. Nicholas Flood Davin, entirely erroneous reports were circulated regarding the death of her husband. She states that the deceased had neither political, domestic, financial nor social enemies. Mrs. Davin is above that head trouble, following a fall, she ascended his mind, causing him to do the desperate deed.

MR. JOHN M. SHREWSBURY, of Kinkora, had his barn burned on Monday night. It was filled with all its contents, which consisted of fifteen tons of hay, 550 stalks of grain, a new binder, harrows, mower, steel rake and other farming implements. The barn was in the rear of the gable end, about three quarters of a mile from the house, the fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. A bottle of kerosene was found about twenty yards away. The loss will be $1000.

WE have received from the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, a copy of a new edition of Western Canada containing much valuable information regarding the industries and resources of our great west. The atlas is splendidly illustrated and contains views of the Legislative Buildings, every Province, the Capital of the Dominion, farms, scenes in the West, mountains, etc. The maps of the different Provinces and districts of the Dominion are the very latest, and altogether the atlas is a very useful work.

IMMEDIATELY after his arrival in London Sir Thomas Lipson drove out to his suburban residence, at South Gate. An assemblage of friends and neighbors met him at the door of his home, and with a hand, unbuttoned the hood and drew the carriage home. Responding to an address of welcome presented on behalf of the village of South Gate, he said he had come to draw a line from the cup of Scotland, but it had at once split in two, and given him it. "I mean to lift it yet," he said in concluding his speech of thanks.

IN St. Dunstan's Cathedral on Friday last Feast of All Saints Solemn High Mass was celebrated by Rev. P. G. Gaither, assisted by Rev. Dr. McDonald, as deacon and Rev. Father Johnston, as sub-deacon. A splendid and appropriate sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. Scott of St. Dunstan's College. On the great Feast of All Souls Solemn Pontifical Requiem Mass was celebrated by his Lordship, the Bishop, assisted by Rev. Dr. McDonald, priest, Rev. Dr. Scott, as deacons of honor, Rev. Dr. Morrison as deacon of office and Rev. Father Johnston as sub-deacon. After Mass the Liberation was sung and then the absolution was given by his Lordship.

ON Monday evening of last week, Rev. R. B. McDonald of Rustico delivered a most interesting and instructive lecture on "Paganism Past and Present." The Hall, Indian River. The lecture was graphic and eloquent description of the scenes and incidents of the gods and the history of the great drama, and the course of its development. There was a short musical programme and a sale of basket. The proceeds, a hundred dollars or so, to the building fund of the new church.

AS the result of a Holloween celebration at Pugwash, N. S., Charles McAulay of that town is dead. McAulay, with a number of others, had been drinking, got into an altercation, and, whether purposely or accidentally, was stabbed in the arm, nearly severing the limb above the elbow. The man, then in his 40th year, was more than three times the size of the assailant, and could overrake and McAulay died five Friday afternoon. John A. McCarthy, who was arrested charged with the killing of McAulay, is a man of about 35. There was no evidence to have him quarralled for some time between McAulay and McCarthy, but it is impossible to confirm this.

A LAD named Harry, 14 years of age, entered the dry goods store of John McLeod & Co., one day last week and stole of $25 to $30 worth of clothing. On his way to the till and abstracted the sum of $25 from the till, paying back the $25 cents. Harry had asked Steele to change a $5.00 bill and give him his half. Steele changed it, and kept the half. Steele then went and notified the police. Sergeant Doyle afterwards arrested the boy, who denied having taken anything. He finally owned up, however, and had given some of the money to another boy named Steele. He then produced a $4.00 bill from under a seat of a wagon in his father's stable. Young Steele when found gave him $25, paying him back $25 cents. Harry had asked Steele to change a $5.00 bill and give him his half. Steele changed it, and kept the half. Steele then went and notified the police. Sergeant Doyle afterwards arrested the boy, who denied having taken anything. He finally owned up, however, and had given some of the money to another boy named Steele. He then produced a $4.00 bill from under a seat of a wagon in his father's stable. Young Steele when found gave him $25, paying him back $25 cents. Harry had asked Steele to change a $5.00 bill and give him his half. Steele changed it, and kept the half. Steele then went and notified the police. Sergeant Doyle afterwards arrested the boy, who denied having taken anything. He finally owned up, however, and had given some of the money to another boy named Steele. He then produced a $4.00 bill from under a seat of a wagon in his father's stable. Young Steele when found gave him $25, paying him back $25 cents. Harry had asked Steele to change a $5.00 bill and give him his half. Steele changed it, and kept the half. Steele then went and notified the police. Sergeant Doyle afterwards arrested the boy, who denied having taken anything. He finally owned up, however, and had given some of the money to another boy named Steele. He then produced a $4.00 bill from under a seat of a wagon in his father's stable. Young Steele when found gave him $25, paying him back $25 cents. Harry had asked Steele to change a $5.00 bill and give him his half. Steele changed it, and kept the half. Steele then went and notified the police. Sergeant Doyle afterwards arrested the boy, who denied having taken anything. He finally owned up, however, and had given some of the money to another boy named Steele. He then produced a $4.00 bill from under a seat of a wagon in his father's stable. Young Steele when found gave him $25, paying him back $25 cents. Harry had asked Steele to change a $5.00 bill and give him his half. Steele changed it, and kept the half. Steele then went and notified the police. Sergeant Doyle afterwards arrested the boy, who denied having taken anything. He finally owned up, however, and had given some of the money to another boy named Steele. He then produced a $4.00 bill from under a seat of a wagon in his father's stable. Young Steele when found gave him $25, paying him back $25 cents. Harry had asked Steele to change a $5.00 bill and give him his half. Steele changed it, and kept the half. Steele then went and notified the police. Sergeant Doyle afterwards arrested the boy, who denied having taken anything. He finally owned up, however, and had given some of the money to another boy named Steele. He then produced a $4.00 bill from under a seat of a wagon in his father's stable. Young Steele when found gave him $25, paying him back $25 cents. Harry had asked Steele to change a $5.00 bill and give him his half. Steele changed it, and kept the half. Steele then went and notified the police. Sergeant Doyle afterwards arrested the boy, who denied having taken anything. He finally owned up, however, and had given some of the money to another boy named Steele. He then produced a $4.00 bill from under a seat of a wagon in his father's stable. Young Steele when found gave him $25, paying him back $25 cents. Harry had asked Steele to change a $5.00 bill and give him his half. Steele changed it, and kept the half. Steele then went and notified the police. Sergeant Doyle afterwards arrested the boy, who denied having taken anything. He finally owned up, however, and had given some of the money to another boy named Steele. He then produced a $4.00 bill from under a seat of a wagon in his father's stable. Young Steele when found gave him $25, paying him back $25 cents. Harry had asked Steele to change a $5.00 bill and give him his half. Steele changed it, and kept the half. Steele then went and notified the police. Sergeant Doyle afterwards arrested the boy, who denied having taken anything. He finally owned up, however, and had given some of the money to another boy named Steele. He then produced a $4.00 bill from under a seat of a wagon in his father's stable. Young Steele when found gave him $25, paying him back $25 cents. Harry had asked Steele to change a $5.00 bill and give him his half. Steele changed it, and kept the half. Steele then went and notified the police. Sergeant Doyle afterwards arrested the boy, who denied having taken anything. He finally owned up, however, and had given some of the money to another boy named Steele. He then produced a $4.00 bill from under a seat of a wagon in his father's stable. Young Steele when found gave him $25, paying him back $25 cents. Harry had asked Steele to change a $5.00 bill and give him his half. Steele changed it, and kept the half. Steele then went and notified the police. Sergeant Doyle afterwards arrested the boy, who denied having taken anything. He finally owned up, however, and had given some of the money to another boy named Steele. He then produced a $4.00 bill from under a seat of a wagon in his father's stable. Young Steele when found gave him $25, paying him back $25 cents. Harry had asked Steele to change a $5.00 bill and give him his half. Steele changed it, and kept the half. Steele then went and notified the police. Sergeant Doyle afterwards arrested the boy, who denied having taken anything. He finally owned up, however, and had given some of the money to another boy named Steele. He then produced a $4.00 bill from under a seat of a wagon in his father's stable. Young Steele when found gave him $25, paying him back $25 cents. Harry had asked Steele to change a $5.00 bill and give him his half. Steele changed it, and kept the half. Steele then went and notified the police. Sergeant Doyle afterwards arrested the boy, who denied having taken anything. He finally owned up, however, and had given some of the money to another boy named Steele. He then produced a $4.00 bill from under a seat of a wagon in his father's stable. Young Steele when found gave him $25, paying him back $25 cents. Harry had asked Steele to change a $5.00 bill and give him his half. Steele changed it, and kept the half. Steele then went and notified the police. Sergeant Doyle afterwards arrested the boy, who denied having taken anything. He finally owned up, however, and had given some of the money to another boy named Steele. He then produced a $4.00 bill from under a seat of a wagon in his father's stable. Young Steele when found gave him $25, paying him back $25 cents. Harry had asked Steele to change a $5.00 bill and give him his half. Steele changed it, and kept the half. Steele then went and notified the police. Sergeant Doyle afterwards arrested the boy, who denied having taken anything. He finally owned up, however, and had given some of the money to another boy named Steele. He then produced a $4.00 bill from under a seat of a wagon in his father's stable. Young Steele when found gave him $25, paying him back $25 cents. Harry had asked Steele to change a $5.00 bill and give him his half. Steele changed it, and kept the half. Steele then went and notified the police. Sergeant Doyle afterwards arrested the boy, who denied having taken anything. He finally owned up, however, and had given some of the money to another boy named Steele. He then produced a $4.00 bill from under a seat of a wagon in his father's stable. Young Steele when found gave him $25, paying him back $25 cents. Harry had asked Steele to change a $5.00 bill and give him his half. Steele changed it, and kept the half. Steele then went and notified the police. Sergeant Doyle afterwards arrested the boy, who denied having taken anything. He finally owned up, however, and had given some of the money to another boy named Steele. He then produced a $4.00 bill from under a seat of a wagon in his father's stable. Young Steele when found gave him $25, paying him back $25 cents. Harry had asked Steele to change a $5.00 bill and give him his half. Steele changed it, and kept the half. Steele then went and notified the police. Sergeant Doyle afterwards arrested the boy, who denied having taken anything. He finally owned up, however, and had given some of the money to another boy named Steele. He then produced a $4.00 bill from under a seat of a wagon in his father's stable. Young Steele when found gave him $25, paying him back $25 cents. Harry had asked Steele to change a $5.00 bill and give him his half. Steele changed it, and kept the half. Steele then went and notified the police. Sergeant Doyle afterwards arrested the boy, who denied having taken anything. He finally owned up, however, and had given some of the money to another boy named Steele. He then produced a $4.00 bill from under a seat of a wagon in his father's stable. Young Steele when found gave him $25, paying him back $25 cents. Harry had asked Steele to change a $5.00 bill and give him his half. Steele changed it, and kept the half. Steele then went and notified the police. Sergeant Doyle afterwards arrested the boy, who denied having taken anything. He finally owned up, however, and had given some of the money to another boy named Steele. He then produced a $4.00 bill from under a seat of a wagon in his father's stable. Young Steele when found gave him $25, paying him back $25 cents. Harry had asked Steele to change a $5.00 bill and give him his half. Steele changed it, and kept the half. Steele then went and notified the police. Sergeant Doyle afterwards arrested the boy, who denied having taken anything. He finally owned up, however, and had given some of the money to another boy named Steele. He then produced a $4.00 bill from under a seat of a wagon in his father's stable. Young Steele when found gave him $25, paying him back $25 cents. Harry had asked Steele to change a $5.00 bill and give him his half. Steele changed it, and kept the half. Steele then went and notified the police. Sergeant Doyle afterwards arrested the boy, who denied having taken anything. He finally owned up, however, and had given some of the money to another boy named Steele. He then produced a $4.00 bill from under a seat of a wagon in his father's stable. Young Steele when found gave him $25, paying him back $25 cents. Harry had asked Steele to change a $5.00 bill and give him his half. Steele changed it, and kept the half. Steele then went and notified the police. Sergeant Doyle afterwards arrested the boy, who denied having taken anything. He finally owned up, however, and had given some of the money to another boy named Steele. He then produced a $4.00 bill from under a seat of a wagon in his father's stable. Young Steele when found gave him $25, paying him back $25 cents. Harry had asked Steele to change a $5.00 bill and give him his half. Steele changed it, and kept the half. Steele then went and notified the police. Sergeant Doyle afterwards arrested the boy, who denied having taken anything. He finally owned up, however, and had given some of the money to another boy named Steele. He then produced a $4.00 bill from under a seat of a wagon in his father's stable. Young Steele when found gave him $25, paying him back $25 cents. Harry had asked Steele to change a $5.00 bill and give him his half. Steele changed it, and kept the half. Steele then went and notified the police. Sergeant Doyle afterwards arrested the boy, who denied having taken anything. He finally owned up, however, and had given some of the money to another boy named Steele. He then produced a $4.00 bill from under a seat of a wagon in his father's stable. Young Steele when found gave him $25, paying him back $25 cents. Harry had asked Steele to change a $5.00 bill and give him his half. Steele changed it, and kept the half. Steele then went and notified the police. Sergeant Doyle afterwards arrested the boy, who denied having taken anything. He finally owned up, however, and had given some of the money to another boy named Steele. He then produced a $4.00 bill from under a seat of a wagon in his father's stable. Young Steele when found gave him $25, paying him back $25 cents. Harry had asked Steele to change a $5.00 bill and give him his half. Steele changed it, and kept the half. Steele then went and notified the police. Sergeant Doyle afterwards arrested the boy, who denied having taken anything. He finally owned up, however, and had given some of the money to another boy named Steele. He then produced a $4.00 bill from under a seat of a wagon in his father's stable. Young Steele when found gave him $25, paying him back $25 cents. Harry had asked Steele to change a $5.00 bill and give him his half. Steele changed it, and kept the half. Steele then went and notified the police. Sergeant Doyle afterwards arrested the boy, who denied having taken anything. He finally owned up, however, and had given some of the money to another boy named Steele. He then produced a $4.00 bill from under a seat of a wagon in his father's stable. Young Steele when found gave him $25, paying him back $25 cents. Harry had asked Steele to change a $5.00 bill and give him his half. Steele changed it, and kept the half. Steele then went and notified the police. Sergeant Doyle afterwards arrested the boy, who denied having taken anything. He finally owned up, however, and had given some of the money to another boy named Steele. He then produced a $4.00 bill from under a seat of a wagon in his father's stable. Young Steele when found gave him $25, paying him back $25 cents. Harry had asked Steele to change a $5.00 bill and give him his half. Steele changed it, and kept the half. Steele then went and notified the police. Sergeant Doyle afterwards arrested the boy, who denied having taken anything. He finally owned up, however, and had given some of the money to another boy named Steele. He then produced a $4.00 bill from under a seat of a wagon in his father's stable. Young Steele when found gave him $25, paying him back $25 cents. Harry had asked Steele to change a $5.00 bill and give him his half. Steele changed it, and kept the half. Steele then went and notified the police. Sergeant Doyle afterwards arrested the boy, who denied having taken anything. He finally owned up, however, and had given some of the money to another boy named Steele. He then produced a $4.00 bill from under a seat of a wagon in his father's stable. Young Steele when found gave him $25, paying him back $25 cents. Harry had asked Steele to change a $5.00 bill and give him his half. Steele changed it, and kept the half. Steele then went and notified the police. Sergeant Doyle afterwards arrested the boy, who denied having taken anything. He finally owned up, however, and had given some of the money to another boy named Steele. He then produced a $4.00 bill from under a seat of a wagon in his father's stable. Young Steele when found gave him $25, paying him back $25 cents. Harry had asked Steele to change a $5.00 bill and give him his half. Steele changed it, and kept the half. Steele then went and notified the police. Sergeant Doyle afterwards arrested the boy, who denied having taken anything. He finally owned up, however, and had given some of the money to another boy named Steele. He then produced a $4.00 bill from under a seat of a wagon in his father's stable. Young Steele when found gave him $25, paying him back $25 cents. Harry had asked Steele to change a $5.00 bill and give him his half. Steele changed it, and kept the half. Steele then went and notified the police. Sergeant Doyle afterwards arrested the boy, who denied having taken anything. He finally owned up, however, and had given some of the money to another boy named Steele. He then produced a $4.00 bill from under a seat of a wagon in his father's stable. Young Steele when found gave him $25, paying him back $25 cents. Harry had asked Steele to change a $5.00 bill and give him his half. Steele changed it, and kept the half. Steele then went and notified the police. Sergeant Doyle afterwards arrested the boy, who denied having taken anything. He finally owned up, however, and had given some of the money to another boy named Steele. He then produced a $4.00 bill from under a seat of a wagon in his father's stable. Young Steele when found gave him $25, paying him back $25 cents. Harry had asked Steele to change