Boys Wanted. Boys of spirit, boys of will, Boys of muscle, brain as d power,

Fit to cope with anything -These are wanted every hour. Not the weak and whining drones That all trouble magnify; Not the watchword of "I can't,"

But the nobler one "I'll try. Do what'er you have to do With a true and carnest zeal; Bend your sinews to the task, Put your shoulder to the wheel.

Though your duty may be hard, Look not on it as an il.; If it be an honest task. Do it with an honest will.

At the anvil or the farm. Wheresoever you may be, From your future efforts, boys, Comos a nution's destiny.

Fun and Fancy.

The best way to shorten sale is to stop advertising. Men and watches don't amount to much when they are run down. "What comes after T?'asked a tcacher

"How can you tell whether advertispays, and what pagers are good in . diums ?"

"I can tell that a lvertising mays by stopping my advertisements. I've tried Trade drops, not at once, but the tide of purchasers flows some other way. The cash receipts tell tue story.'

"Is there suy difference in the sharpness of the buyers, -_ mean, do they haggle much over prices ."

"Oh, no. We sell at one price and all the last stores in Boston do the same. They will sometimes say they can buy such and such an article cheaper elsewhere. When they mention the place we send and see if it's true, and if so we mark our stock down."

"Suppose you should give up advertising ?"

"Well I should save a big pile of money the first year, but I should lose a bigger pile the next two years. You must keep the boiler heated if you want steam. If you bank your fires too long it takes time to start up. Advertising is the steam which keeps the business moving. I've studied the matter."-[Ex.

The Doctor's Last Mappy Resort.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Jan. 11, 1882. I recently had a very difficult case of Consumption. I treated it in the most scientific manuer possible, but to no effect; patient grew gradually worse. Rather than give up, and as a last reare to talk little, to hear much, to reflect sort, I decided, much against my wish, alone upon what has passed in company, to use a remedy that had cured one of my former patients. Greatly to my sur-prise, the patient began to gain, and in a much shorter time than I dared to ever expect, she was completely cured. The name of this remarkable remedy is Dr. King's New Discovery for Consump-tion. I now use it altotgether in my practice.—[Leading M. D., Evansville. Trial bottles free at Rhynas' drug store.
