

DISTRICT NEWS

RED DEER. Bulletin News Service. R. Morton Bell, of Pine Lake, is spending a few days in town.

Geo. F. Eoak, of ...rkine, was in town yesterday, leaving last night for Spruce Bluff farm.

J. W. de C. O'Grady, general manager of the Northern Bank, arrived on today's train from the north.

B. G. Taylor, of the Bank of Commerce here, returned last night from Kenora, where he has been spending his holidays.

The City league ball game Tuesday night resulted in another win for the Wigwags against the Outlaws by the terrific score of 17 to 2. Rasmus pitched good ball for the Outlaws, but received poor support and the Outlaws did not seem to be able to launch their bats enough to make more than two hits off Richards. This game puts the Wigwags at the top of the heap, with only two more games to play, the Mechanics being the only team with a chance to be returned to the race for the cup. The league standing is as follows:

Table with columns: Team, W, L, P.C. Wigwags: 10, 7, 3. Outlaws: 10, 5, 5. Mechanics: 6, 3, 3. Waskasoo: 6, 1, 5.

What will practically be the deciding game of the league will be played on Tuesday night between the Wigwags and Mechanics.

The team that went to Calgary on Saturday for a match with the Calgary V. Florias got trimmed by a score of 8 to 2.

J. H. Menzies, manager of the local branch of the Northern Bank, returned on Wednesday from Winnipeg, where he successfully underwent an operation for appendicitis.

A. S. Cluney, accountant of the Northern bank here, leaves on Sunday for Govan, Sask., where he will take charge of a newly opened branch there.

Mr. P. Cork, of High River, succeeds him in the Red Deer office. E. E. Berry, formerly of Grieve & Berry, druggists, left on Friday for Vernon, B.C., where he has purchased a drug business.

The Ross Co. music store is selling out a farewell smoker at the Wigwam the night before his departure.

Joe Slade has taken a position in Tallman & Co.'s hardware store. J. E. Brown has built a large addition to his sash and door factory.

R. M. Smith, of Detroit, has taken over Dr. Evans' dental practice. Jas. Edgar, of Kenora, who lived here some five years ago, has returned to town and has taken a position with J. E. Bower.

A. H. Barber returned on Friday from a week's holiday at Spruce Lake. W. B. Finley, of Red Deer, has opened a photograph gallery in Innisfail.

Everett Martin has taken a position in Gaetz & Gaetz grocery. A stag party was given in the Alberta hotel on Saturday night in honor of Mr. Geo. Wilkins' approaching marriage.

F. S. Simpson has returned from Banff. Geo. S. Wilkins left last night for Calgary, where he is to be married. With his bride he will proceed to the coast on his wedding trip.

At the meeting of St. Luke's church congregation a ter service last evening was decided to accept Canon Hincliffe's resignation.

It is certainly due Mr. James Wolford that mention be made of the fine tonorial parlor and bath which he has placed at the disposal of the public.

Master Fay Walrod was the successful competitor at the silver medal contest and now the candidates are doing great work in preparation for the gold medal.

Many of the newcomers are of the opinion that this form of temperance literary work is entirely new in Olds but the old-timers remember that about ten years ago the Royal Templars conducted similar contests and with great interest and considerable success.

It is recalled that in the juniors Miss Grace Strong and Mr. John Fraser won medals and in the senior classes Mrs. O. S. Moore and Alderman Samis, of Calgary, were successful competitors.

The weary wanderers who have been doing the vacation stunt are beginning to return. Mr. and Mrs. Shackleton, Miss Silverthorne and Mr. A. M. Bush have returned from a trip through British Columbia and down to Seattle and the Bame family are expected back from points in Washington any day.

Three of the finest congregations that have ever met in Olds notwithstanding the unfavorable weather, were those which presided by Rev. W. Pattison last Sunday in the Baptist church and in the opera house.

The morning subject was "Influence in Man," afternooon "The Homelessness of Jesus," and the evening topic, "Quitting Like Men." The last service from which several were turned away, seemed to be Mr. Pattison's master effort and the scholarly and well planned speech of the minister held the opera house to a full and sufficient audience spellbound.

Mr. Pattison's eloquence is in his simplicity of speech and in his earnestness in which the message is delivered. The Methodist and Presbyterian churches being to meet at the same time on an anniversary occasion a success by withdrawing their services and assisting in the union choir, the music which consisted of full choruses, quartets and solos with Mr. Walter Gooder as director and Mrs. C. F. Stone as organist.

Miss Legg, Winnipeg; Miss Luckham, Petrolia; Mrs. Kembery, Harman; and Mrs. and Mrs. E. M. Cutcheon, Red Deer, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Duff.

W. A. Shields of the Olds Merchants Bank joined his parents from Ontario, and is visiting with them in Edmonton.

The Olds Baptist church is to have a church telephone installed so that the church and others on the exchange may have the privilege of listening to the services along with the congregations. People in the older countries will fear that they will lose the privileges and luxuries of the "Back Home" life if they come west and would well to take note of this little item.

Olds, August 15th. CAMROSE. Bulletin News Service. A few new settlers are coming in now and the prospects seem bright for good business in farm lands and town property this fall.

Mr. Seward of Edberg, 23 miles south of Camrose, has secured the contract to town last week that was won by the 10th of May. It was 57 inches in length and the heads averaged 5 inches. Mr. Seward has a large field of this and says it should turn out about 40 bushels to the acre.

Mr. E. C. Talbot has sold his property on Main street, including his property business, to Mr. Craudall of Wetaskiwin.

Mr. J. K. Burgess last week purchased the new house recently built by Wm. Emsmann at the corner of Railway and Sullivan streets.

The new bell for the fire hall has been placed in position, and it is the intention of the council to have it rung at 7 and 12 and 6 o'clock each day.

Mr. McKee, representing the Sun Life Assurance Co., spent several days in town last week.

A petition has been circulated and freely signed asking the Mayor to proclaim Friday, 22nd August a public holiday in town, this day being the opening of the duck season. It is to be hoped the sports will have mercy on the smaller ducks, there being a great number of late ones this year for some reason or other.

There is a great crop of raspberries and Saskatoons this year. Large quantities are being picked by the farmers around the lake south of the town.

Anniversary services were held at the Methodist church, New Salem, last Sunday. Rev. Mr. Flynn, of Dayland and Mr. Rossell, of Camrose, took part in the services. Solos were sung by Mrs. Philips and Mr. Carroll, of Camrose.

Mr. Rossell has secured the contract for building four houses for Mr. La Marchand of Edmonton on his property south of the town.

THIRTY-EIGHT YEARS BISHOP OF ATHABASCA. Bishop Reeves, of the diocese of Athabasca and Mackenzie River, left yesterday afternoon for Toronto, where he will be assisting at the funeral of Sweetnam and Primate of all Canada.

It is thirty-eight years ago since Bishop Reeves began his labors under the late Archbishop Machray, of Rupert's Land, as a missionary at Fort Simpson, on the Mackenzie River.

Since that time he has seen many changes and has steadily risen in the councils of the Anglican church and Canada to become one of its foremost leaders as well as one of its most heroic pioneers.

From 1883 until 1903 he was archdeacon at Fort Chipewyan and bishop of the Mackenzie diocese since 1891. Since 1894 he has had charge of the two dioceses of Athabasca and Mackenzie River.

The bishop left England in 1868, accompanied by his wife and proceeded at once to his station at Fort Simpson. He reached Western Canada by way of the Pacific coast.

At the end of the Journey. When the young missionary and his wife reached their destination at the end of August, 1869, the first duty was to build a house for himself, which, with the aid of the Hudson's Bay company's employees, was soon accomplished.

It was eight months before he reached Fort Simpson until Bishop Reeves received his first letter from England, supplies and clothing took two years to come. The order was sent with the Hudson's Bay steamers and the goods came the following season.

Strange as it may seem there was occasionally a wife late and often the missionary's wife and children were compelled to live exclusively on fish and game.

"On one occasion," said Bishop Reeves, "we were without supplies of groceries and flour for five months, and without a square meal. We had to live on fish and reindeer meat."

There are at present three native deacons in the Anglican church north of Great Slave Lake. Bishop Reeves states that the most salutary change that has come over the lives of the Indian population by their espousal of Christian principles in delivrance from the fear formerly inflicted upon them by their medicine men.

WILL REPORT ON STATES IMMIGRATION. Vancouver, B.C., August 12. The States Immigration Commission appointed a commission to make a thorough investigation of the conditions in foreign countries in reference to emigration and the laws relating to same.

This commission consisted of three United States representatives, W. P. Dillingham, of Vermont, Lactimer, of South Carolina, and Cabot, of Massachusetts. The commission was sometimes referred to as the "Three Representatives." Three representatives of the States were also named, Howell, of New Jersey; W. P. Dillingham, of Vermont, and Lactimer, of South Carolina.

Professor J. W. Jenks, of the University of Michigan, was sent commissioner of labor, and Mr. W. R. W. Gifford, of the University of Michigan, was sent commissioner of immigration. The commission sailed from New York on Monday, and arrived in Quebec on Tuesday.

Professor Jenks at the present time is in Quebec, and will be in Montreal on Wednesday. He has been in Quebec since his arrival, and has been in contact with the officials, particularly those with the subject of immigration. He has obtained valuable data on the subject, which will be of great value to the States.
