Letter From Oporto.

The Board of Trade have received the following message from Lind and Conto, of Oporto: "The demand, although not very active, must be considered fairly good for the present condition of this country, as the continued emigration has considerably reduced the consumption in the agricultural districts where labor is now very scarce. Owing to the lower tariff enjoyed by Norway, Germany and other countries having commercial treaties with Portugal, fish of British origin continues to lose ground in this market. The British fish pays 39 reis per kilo, whereas the Norwegian and German pay only 34 reis. The British Chamber of Commerce in Portugal is now working hard to get a Treaty of Commerce established between England and Portugal, and those who can bring their influence to bear in the matter, should now do all possible to bring arrangements to a successful issue."

Splendid Views at the Nickel.

There was another very large attendance at the Nickel, last night, showing that in spite of other attractions this popular house of amusement has the good-will of citizens. The programme was one of pleasing interest, showing many leading events. These were followed by "Her Face," an interesting story, Maurice Costello, the world-renowned actor, appears in another film, entitled "The Counsel for the Defence," where he is seen in a splendid role as "Lyan, the Lawyer." The other films gave every satisfaction. Miss Guerin was heard in that pretty ballad "In the Garden of My Heart," which she sang sweetly, while Miss Gardner sang another catchy ragtime "When that Midnight Choo-Choo leaves my Alabama." The programme will be repeated this evening.

Mail Officer Arrested.

Yesterday, we had reference to a sensational matter, connected with the robbery of the mail, and Mailman Cashman, of the cross-country service, who was on the grain when the mail car was burnt last Christmas, was arrested yesterday. He had been suspected for some time past of crooked work in his department, and the P.M.C. had given the facts to the police, who searched his house Thursday night, and found $25 on his person, and in his room stowed away in an old box, were $300. He has been about 1 1/2 years in the service, and there was missing lately $200 sent by the Savings Bank here to a man residing at Cape Ray, $300 sent from Bonne Bay to the branch Bank of Montreal at Bay Islands, and $11 sent unregistered from Curling to Magistrate O'Donnell at St. George's. The prisoner confessed stealing the letters and taking the money, and the police have a theory as to the mail car affair, on which they are working assiduously.

Father O'Callaghan's Lecture.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir.—By reference to the advertising columns, it will be noticed that the Rev. Fr. O'Callaghan intends giving a lecture in the Star Rooms on Monday night, for the benefit of St. Vincent de Paul Society.

Though pressed for time, and especially busy now, consequent upon the illness of Monsieur Roche, this indefatigable worker has arranged this lecture so that the almost depleted funds of this organization may be augmented.

Many calls have been made on this society recently, with most of which no one is more intimately acquainted than this zealous clergyman. Ever ready to stretch out a helping hand to the poor, by means of this lecture, he hopes to accumulate an amount of money sufficient to meet the pressing calls on the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

Those who attend will spend a very interesting evening, as the subject will be "The Life work of St. Vincent de Paul." This theme will be somewhat new to the lecture-loving public, and in view of the small amount of admission and the very worthy object, I bespeak for Fr. O'Callaghan, a "packed house."

Yours very truly,
J. F. LACEY.
