DUBLIN, Jan. 25. Civilian attacks on police and the military in various sections of the country continued steady hourly today. There was a simultaneous attack by one hundred civilians on the police and military barracks, which adjoin each other in the centre of the town of Bandon, County of Cork. There was severe fighting for nearly an hour, which resulted in the attacking party being beaten off. The Crown forces suffered no casualties, but one civilian is known to have been killed. There was a herce battle on Sunday, when a large body of armed men attacked Glenboste olice barracks, near Clonnel. The
