MACDONALD MINISTRY DEFEATED.
LONDON, April 7. The MacDonald Government was defeated in the House of Commons today by a vote of 221 to 212 on the question of the Eviction Bill.

GOVERNMENT WILL NOT RESIGN.
LONDON, April 7. The Government's defeat by a vote of 221 to 212 today, was the result of a motion offered by Neville Chamberlain, Unionist member from Birmingham to the rents bill, opposing its second reading. The Government will not resign as a result of the vote. Premier MacDonald will make a further statement on the subject to-morrow.

CAPE TOWN, S.A., April 7. It was officially announced to-day that the Government of the South African Union has requested the Prince of Wales to defer his visit, as elections are fixed for June and the projected visit of the Prince would be interfered with.

LEAVE IT TO THE PRINCE.
LONDON, April 7. Considerable criticism of the arrangements for the Prince of Wales tour in South Africa is appearing in the South African press, according to the Manchester Guardian, unfavourable comparisons are being made between arrangements for the Prince's visit to Canada and for the South African visit. The chief objection to the South African programme is that the official receptions in Cape Town and Johannesburg are to be confined to official and executive sections of the population, there will be very little in the way of united public demonstration anywhere during the visit. This will be in striking contrast to the numerous public demonstrations to his Royal Highness when he visited Canada. The coloured population of South Africa, who would welcome the Prince with emotional enthusiasm has been ignored altogether in the programme.

CHANCELLOR DECLARES OPPOSITION MADNESS.
BERLIN, April 7. The German Chancellor, Dr. Wm. Marx, in an address at Barmen yesterday, declared that the German Government would conscientiously consider the Expert Committee's report for the purpose of ascertaining whether the obligations devolving upon the German people, embodied in the findings of the Committee were within Germany's capacity. France, the Chancellor remarked, was the strongest military power in the world, and it would be absolute madness to incite a defenceless people against an army a hundred times stronger than theirs and equipped with the most modern of war materials. If the peace followed the mad opinions of the Nationalists the result would be the downfall of Germany and the German people.

DAWE'S COMMITTEE CONCLUDE LABOURS.
PARIS, April 7. The Expert Committee, headed by Brigadier-General Dawes, to-day reached what the Reparations Commission hoped would prove the last day of its long drawn-out and strenuous labours. The experts met at ten this morning and approved their report which finally went to the printers.

Suggest leaving (for North) Wednesday, otherwise may not get down."

The First Confirmation

AT ST. MICHAEL AND ALL ANGELS CHURCH.

On the evening of Passion Sunday, April 6th, the Lord Bishop of the Diocese administered the Sacrament of Confirmation to thirty-five boys, thirty-seven girls, and several older church people in the presence of a great congregation which packed the church to the doors, many being unable to enter for lack even of standing room. The Church, the altar resplendent with tapestry and white hangings, flowers and tall burning candles; the chancel and sanctuary filled with clergy, servers and choir; the rows of boys and girls, and the vast congregation of parents, friends and parishioners, presented a most impressive and uplifting scene. The service opened with a procession, to the hymn "Come Thou Holy Spirit, Come," led by the Cross-bearer, the choir of boys and men were followed by Rev. Leslie Pike, Warden Field Hall; the Rector, Rev. Edwin Nichols, and the Lord Bishop wearing his rochet and scarlet robes, preceded by Rev. Euan A. L. Donaldson, Vice-Principal of Queen's College, who acted as Chaplain and carried the Pastoral staff, and attended by two servers. Before his address to the candidates the Bishop first emphasized the importance of the occasion, the first Confirmation in the church of the new parish, and congratulated the Rector and his people on their present achievement, expressed the hope that this occasion was the earnest of still greater achievements in the future. In the course of his address the Bishop reminded the boys and girls of their vocation as the Church's warriors in her warfare against the powers of Satan and the Kingdom of this world, strongly emphasizing the fact that churchmanship involves the duty of service as well as the privileges of membership. The laying on of hands was preceded by the solemn singing in unison of the Veni Creator, to the traditional tune by clergy, choir and people. Those present must have been deeply impressed by these visible results of the devoted and self-denying work of the Rector and workers of this new parish.—COM.

Large Audience Delighted

MR. GEDDES SINGS "THE ROSARY" AND OTHER POPULAR SELECTIONS.

The patrons of the Majestic Theatre were treated to a feast of vocal selections and film last night. Mr. Geddes scored a big triumph and his many admirers present applauded vigorously his singing of "The Rosary," "The Last Chord" and "A Perfect Day." The interpretation of "The Rosary" was indeed an excellent portrayal of this masterpiece. The management specially featured this item. A specially erected lighted cross was shown amidst the darkened stage space, and the lights were flashed at an opportune moment. "The Last Chord" was likewise excellently rendered and like the solo "A Perfect Day" evoked continuous applause and encores. Everywhere one hears the highest compliments to Mr. Geddes and the management because of last night's production. Previous to the concert items the feature "Truxton King" was shown. In this picture the celebrated John Gilbert, the man who sensationalized in Monte Cristo, stars; a splendid story with a fitting climax. The Fox comedy was well above the average. The public have learned the many good qualities of the Fox service, and last night an all Fox show was thoroughly enjoyed.

Irresistible Appeal in Great Film "Remembrance"

RUPERT HUGHES' STORY SCORES BIG AT THE NICKEL.

Irresistibly strong in its appeal and unlike anything heretofore presented on the screen is the Goldwyn production of "Remembrance," written and directed by Rupert Hughes and showing at the Nickel Theatre.

For the first time in the annals of motion pictures the father of a family has been made the principal character in a story of such depth and sincerity and truth to life that it cannot leave the spectator unmoved. What Mr. Hughes did for the mother in "The Old Nest," he has done for the father in "Remembrance," and the result is the most genuinely wonderful while picture that has come to the Nickel Theatre in many months.

We are introduced to an extraordinary family—mother, sons, daughters, all of them spending money recklessly in order to maintain their social position and never thinking of the poor, over-worked head of the household who must pass his days and a large part of his nights slaving to pay the bills. Then he breaks down under the strain. It is a serious illness that threatens to result in his death and for the first time the selfish family realizes what it has done. At the close of the picture one is made to understand that at last Dad is going to have his innings.

The story is superbly presented and acted, with Claude Gillingwater in the role of the father, a character that he portrays with perfect sympathy. It is the kind of a performance that reaches straight to the heart and leaves one better for having seen the picture.
