The Toronto Evening Express is dead. Brantford expects to be a city in 1875. Typhoid fever is still bad in Listowel. We have received the "Statute of Canada" for 1872, from the Dominion authorities.

Mr. John McKenzie, a workman at the Victoria Hub & Spoke Factory, Galt, had his hand badly cut on Wednesday last.

George Alfred Townsend says that Mrs. Jeff. Davis is so aristocratic that many of her old rebel neighbors indignantly refuse to associate with her.

A publishing house in Montreal will shortly issue a second edition of the life, letters, and speeches of the Hon. Joseph Howe. They are edited by his friend, Mr. Anand, of the Nova Scotia Government.

DOUBLE MURDER.—A woman named Mrs. Jenny Payne, and also a little boy named Doughty, of Lakefield, were murdered on Thursday about 2 p. m. by the hired man. The murderer has not been caught yet. His name is unknown.

The North Grey Railway is finished to Meaford. The line will be opened for traffic on Monday the 27th inst., and present indications point to large business, especially with the Owen Sound district, with which it is the nearest railway communication.

The shipments of salt at Goderich continue brisk, every well being worked to its utmost capacity to supply the demand. The last crib of the new pier at this port has been sunk by the contractor, and vessels now out through the new channel, the old being closed.

It is announced that Asai, the member of the Commune, attempted to escape off the coast near the Cape of Good Hope, swimming away from the transport ship which was conveying him to New Caledonia. The fugitive was immediately fired at, and recaptured with a broken arm.

SHOCKING MINING DISASTER.—London, Nov. 14.—The Selsall coal mine in Staffordshire was suddenly inundated to-day while the men were at work. Eleven miners were rescued, but 22 remain in the mine, and there is little hope that they will be saved.

The Governor-General and Lady Dufferin will shortly pay a brief visit to Montreal. His Excellency is making himself thoroughly acquainted with Canadian character and sentiment, for he is not only a keen observer of passing events, but an attentive student of our past history.

The Reporter says that the mauling business in Galt seems to be in a thriving state. Messrs. Scrimger & Slater have just finished building a large maul house, near the station, while the well-known mauler, Mr. Thomas Peck, has made large additions to his premises.

RAVAGES OF DOGS.—The farmers of West Dufferin are suffering greatly from the ravages of sheep-killing dogs. For some time back out on the farms towards the Township Hall, there has scarcely been a night and day pass but what there has been some valuable sheep killed or mangled. The ravenous brutes have been shot at several times, but they always managed to escape.

New Express and Telegraph Office. We are glad to notice that the Montreal Telegraph and General Express Office in this town has been moved into the new premises next door to the old office. The business has assumed such dimensions that the old office was found far too small and inconvenient for the work, and some time ago the store lately occupied by E. T. A. Perry was leased and fitted up for the Companies. The premises are large enough to allow a complete separation between the telegraph and express business. The front part of the office is nicely fitted up, and will be used exclusively for the telegraph office, and all express goods will be taken in and housed in the rear. This will greatly facilitate the work, and be found much more convenient to the efficient agent, Mr. Bryce, and his assistants, who for a long time have been greatly hampered for room. The telegraphing arrangements are now most perfect and complete. There are six lines connecting direct with the Guelph office, viz: Toronto to Sarnia via G. E. R., Toronto to Southampton via Hamilton, Harrisburg and line of the W. G. & B. R., Toronto to Buffalo via Stratford, Guelph to Walkerton via Elora, Fergus, Mount Forest and Durham, from Toronto to London via G. T. R., and from Montreal to Guelph and thence to London and Detroit by G. T. R. and G. W. R. The Guelph office is thus placed in direct connection with all the commercial centres. Guelph may now congratulate itself on having one of the nicest and most commodious telegraph and express offices in the country.

Editorial Items. The telegraph states that Bismarck is ill. Latest advices from Sir George Cartier indicate that he will shortly proceed to Torquay, in Devonshire, upon the advice of his medical attendant.

An effort was made to get both candidates to retire from the field in Welland in favor of Macdougall. King was willing but Thompson rejected the proposal, and the political pilgrim is adrift once more.

A meeting of the Reform Association of Kingston, was held on Wednesday night, at which certain frauds in addition of voters to the list of voters and the taking away of others occupied their attention. A committee was appointed to petition the Legislature for a Bill concerning the qualification of voters and members of City Council. Lists were read showing instances in which there were Reformers whose qualifications entitled them, and much indignation was expressed at the officials who omitted these and added other names.

It is pretty generally believed that Mr. Mowat will find a seat in North Oxford, Mr. Perry resigning. Col. Coffin is not to be Lieut.-Governor of Manitoba after all. Sir John found the appointment did not meet with the approbation of his friends either in that or in the other Provinces, and the gallant Coffin was consequently withdrawn. The office will now have to go a-begging if Mr. Archibald cannot be induced to sacrifice himself again at the bidding of his master.

Guelph Evening Mercury

FRIDAY EVENING, NOV. 15, 1873

The Welland Election. There was quite an array of Ministers at the Welland nomination on Tuesday. Dr. Tupper was there, and so was Peter Mitchell, likewise Mr. Aikens, but he prudently refrained from speaking, and left the disagreeable duty of defending the acts of the Dominion Government to his colleagues. Sir John himself did not like to face the music. That Ministerial Gibeonite—Mr. William Macdougall—was also on hand, ready to do any kind of dirty work for his masters that they required of him. We have no doubts that he afterwards cursed his cruel fate that led him to that county, for he was obliged to listen to a most withering exposure of his political hypocrisy and double-dealing at the hands of Mr. Blake, who was in his happiest mood, and who quoted largely from Mr. Macdougall's pamphlet, wherein he exposed the trickery of the Government, to the infinite amusement of the electors. Dead as even Mr. Macdougall is to all ordinary attacks, he winced and quailed under the keen sarcasm and unanswerable statements of Mr. Blake, and in a very feeble way tried to reply to them. Mr. E. B. Wood followed Mr. Blake with some of his sledge-hammer arguments, and by the time the speaking was over, the Government and their friends felt that they had made a miserable figure beside the speakers on the Reform side.

It is reported that an attempt was made to get both Dr. King and Mr. Thompson to retire from the field in favor of Macdougall, that Dr. King consented, but that Mr. Thompson would not listen to any such proposal. He is determined to fight it out to the end, and has a good prospect of winning.

A party, numbering sixteen, of Miss Rye's girls arrived at Toronto on Tuesday.

Guelph the Centre of Creation. We notice that the New Store, advertised as having a Manufacturer's Stock of Dry Goods to rush off, is creating a panic among the stores in Town. We would advise all who wish unheard of bargains to call at once, for if the slaughtering in prices be kept up for a little longer, the whole Stock must be grabbed up. Mr. Knowles, the Agent, is having a tremendous rush for his goods. The public are not slow to take advantage of the great bargains he is offering. His business place is at the Alma Block. Do not delay, but step up with your money.
