LOCAL MARKET.
Reported by A. M. Hamilton & Son.
LONDON, Nov. 26.
There were large deliveries in almost every commodity. The chief receipts were wheat and oats. There was not much done in other kinds of grain on account of light deliveries. Butter and eggs opened with a boom, sellers seemingly thinking they could get any price they asked, but by 10 o'clock the market had been so large that there was a scramble to unload, and values dropped away down. The best quality of butter sold at 15c to 16c, the opening yesterday's prices, and the closing price of yesterday's market. Poultry was very plentiful and selling easy. Turkeys were sold from 10c to 12c each, and from 10c to 12c per pound. Geese were sold from 10c to 12c each, and from 10c to 12c per pound. There was a good supply of many kinds of fruit.
