—Mrs. Wm. Dana, of Algonac, Mich., is the possessor of a valuable relic in the shape of a fragment of the vest worn by Nelson at the time of his death at the battle of Trafalgar, This fragment, says the Detroit Free Press, which is of orange satin, now much faded, heavily brocaded with silver, was cut from Nelson's vest by Mrs. Dana's father, Sir William Talbot, who was then a post captain on Nelson's flag ship, the Victory. Sir William Talbot then came out to Canada and was one of the founders of the city of London, Ont. Conductor Snider's Bravery.

then came out to Canada and was one of the founders of the city of London, Ont.

Conductor Snider, an evangelist, who formerly lived here, was the hero of an adventure at New Hamburg station on Saturday. While he was waiting for his train the 4:30 express came in. As it rushed up to the station a lady, who did not see or hear it, attempted to cross the track. A shout of warning caused her to look around. Seeing the rapidly approaching train she lost her presence of mind and would have been struck by the engine had not Mr. Snider dashed across the track, snatching the bewildered lady from her peril just as the train swept up. The lady and her preserver were both unconscious for some minutes afterwards. The affair caused a great sensation in the little town.

Lendon's Railrond Deal.

The Cincinnati Enquirer says:

"The twenty years' lease of the London and Port Stanley Railroad by a Cleveland syndicate has been closed by the latter depositing with the corporation of the city of London, Ont., the sum of $25,000 as a guarantee fund in accordance with the terms of their bid. The road is about 25 miles long, extending from London to Port Stanley. The latter is its lake terminal, and is directly north of Cleveland across Lake Frie, 35 miles distant.

"Port Stanley is one of the principal summer resorts of Upper Canada and will be placed within easy reach of Cleveland by the lesses of the road, who will immediately upon the opening of navigation establish a boat line across the lake for the transportation by regular schedule of passengers and package freight.

"The company to operate the road will be incorporated at an early date under the Dominion statutes by special act of Parliament. It will be known as the Cleveland, Port Stanley and London Rail and Transportation Company, with a capital stock of $250,000.

"One of the principal sources of revenue of the railroad and transportation company is the immense field that is opened up for the sale of ecal. The directness of transportation from the mines will give the transportation from the mines will give the companies patronizing this line a margin of nearly $1 per ton under the cost of hauling it around by way of Buffalo or Detroit. They can aftord, therefore, to make better prices to retailers and consumers than have heretofore prevailed, and the result is that already a contract has been closed with a Canadian company for the sale of 400,600 tons of coal, the delivery to extend over four years.

"At London railroads can be utilized to send the coal to any part of the Dominion. A revolution will be caused in the Canadian coal business."

THE LATE BEN. BUTLER.

Unseemly Eagerness of the Crowds to View the Remains.

Unseemly Eagerness of the Crowds to View the Ecmains.

Lowell, Mass., Jan. 15.—At General Butier's late residence this morning private funeral services were held. There was no eulogy and no address by the clergyman. After the short service, closing with the Lord's Prayer, those present looked upon the general for the last time. The body was then escorted by a detachment of Grand Army comrades to Huntingdon Hall, where it was to lie in state.

When the crowd was admitted to the hall they almost carried the doors off their hinges. They struggled upstairs and bowled over the police, who tried to restrain them. Shouts and cries awoke the echoes of the hall where the dead man lay.

Huntington Hall, whenever Gen. Butler appeared there in life, saw turbulent scenes, but those of to-day surpassed anything ever seen before at the old hall. Down in the street thousands pressed forward when they saw the doors open. All the afternoon a steady stream of people poured in, but the crowds that wanted to get in did not diminish. Late in the afternoon the doors were closed and the officers had an hour's rest. It was designed to close the shall at 5 o'clock until to-morrow morning, but at 6 o'clock they were opened again. This time the people were beaten into line, and more order was maintained up to 11 o'clock, when the final closing was made. To-night the police were increased and 40 fremen assisted. The crowd smarked a lot of glass in a shop and an unknown woman had a leg broken.

"HUSBAYD AND WIFE" COMPANY.
It is not often that a dramatic treat equal in all its points to "Husband and Wife" visits London. The play is an exceptionally elever, clean cut, satirical comedy, having for its theme numerous domestic infelicities arising from high living on the part of several husbands and the attempt of their wives to correct their morals by a species of domestic tyranny. "Husband and Wife" has been a pronounced success everywhere it has been presented. At London it ran for 250 nights at the Comedy Theater, and last season it made a record of 50 nights at the Garden Theater, New York. "Husband and Wife" will be presented here Monday, Jan. 23, at the Grand with a strong company of comedy players, including Mrs. Dion Boucicault, W. H. Fitzgerald, Chas. Butler and others.

George Grossmith, the English comedian, will appear at the Grand on Thursday and Friday evenings, Jan 26 and 27. He gives a select humorous and musical recital and from the renowned reputation of the Grossmith family a unique entertainment can safely be promised. Montreal popers all spoke in loud praise of his performances.

The series of six song recitals to be given by Agnes Thomson and J. F. Thomson in Willard Hall semi-monthly, beginning on Monday morning, Jan. 23, appeals to the public because it is practically the only representation given to this important and interesting phase of music in this city durther season. The public encouragement they received last season prompts the two singers to a more ambitious scheme this year, and it is understood that the programmes will cover a much wider field than last season—[Chicago Herald.

A LONG JUMP.

One Hundred and Three Feet on a Pair of Skis.

One Hundred and Three Feet on a Pair of Shils.

Redwing, Minn., Jan. 16.—A journey through midair on a pair of skis a distance of 103 feet, with a perpendicular fall of 36 feet, may sound like a fable to many, but such a remarkable feat was accomplished by Thorger Hemmestvedt, of this sity. This breaks the record for long distance jumping by one foot. There was a sufficiency of new and light snow and the thermometer was below zero, making the greatest speed possible. The hill which the club had selected for its runs is about 300 feet long and very steep. Half way down is a wooden platform covered with snow and so constructed that when the runner passes over it he is thrown into the air. Mr. Hemmestvedt, in breaking the record, stood as gracefully as if he had been a statue placed on a stationary pedestal, He held a switch in one hand. His skis were equally balanced and parallel. He remained in the air about two and one-half seconds. The world's championship has for many years been held by his brother, Mikkes Hemmestvedt, who two years ago smashed all previous records by jumping 102 feet.
