MR. DOUGHERTY GIVES THE FACTS

In Regard to the Thefts From His Room Recently.

Mr. Thomas Dougherty writes The Advertiser as follows, in regard to an item which appeared in this tournal. last evening:

The facts are as follows: During Saturday morning last someone entered my apartments and stole an open-faced silver Waltham stemwinding watch, to which was attached a nickel chain. The thief also took a fine razor, celluloid white handle ent made to me some years ago by George Tackaberry.

I have no doubt the theft was do by a man or small boys.

Some one should present the council with a picture of the German Emperor, as a gentle reminder of what comes to those who talk too much.
