POPE FIGHTS PLAGUE

Vatican Hospital To Be Used If

Cholera Reaches Rome. Rome, Aug. 19.—Rumors that the epidemic of cholera, which has broken out in Apulia, had spread to Rome, are emphatically denied. There have been no cases here, and the general health conditions in Rome are excellent, better than at any time during the past ten years. Although the danger of infection is not felt here, the Pope today ordered the lazarette of Santa Marta built inside the Vatican by Pope Leo in 1885, during the great cholera epidemic at Naples, but never used because of the absence of cholera patients, made ready for any emergency. The hospital instead has been employed to shelter pilgrimages from all countries. BOY AND GIRL AGENTS—SELL 24

No final decision has been taken regarding the proposed departure of King Victor for the cholera region. The king, it is said, has determined to proceed personally to the scene if conditions become more serious, in which case Queen Helena, it is feared, would insist upon accompanying him.
