OR NOYES FOR

Large Majority of Englishmen

Are Not in Favor Abolishing Office.

John Masefield and William

Watson Are In Line for the Position.

London, July 7.-Much interest is eing taken in the question of the tureateship. Some authorities are n favor of the abolition of the office,

ut it is generally believed that King presses a very general view. He says istory of this country is founded and ial recognition by our Government of he power of the poet. It is our intination to the world that poetry-which

"If we abandon our poet laureate for measly saving of £200 a year, it will

e a sign of the times — and a bac

ne. It will not be for lack of suitable en to hold the post with honor; i ill be because hearts have grown old-because decay is setting in in oint which I am supposed to be dis-ussing—a point which may not have come very apparent so far-is the aportance of maintaining our subsiized chief minstrel, and the import nce of getting hold of the right mar

my opinion excludes Robert Bridges

r. Bridges is entirely classical—exoti-

a brilliant poet, but not a reflection

the national character. It also exides Mr. Stephen Phillips-equally ir into a brick wall as most poets, but, oman like, is delightfully vague as to

"That leaves us with four Brit-

h poets who may be considered

"We might do worse. There is part, but yet only a part. He repre-

Alfred Noyes. "Alfred Noves is a truer poet than Kipling is this respect. He can probe the hidden beauties out of the mind of a tramp; but at the same time h

can write of matters like that tale of a hungry little boy kneeling under the arches of London Bridge. . . This particular poet has seen very far and Noyes is that his hatred of warfare once caused him to become vulgar and untrue upon the subject. I had almost said he became blasphemous-

but that is a dangerous epithet to apply. The word blasphemy has caused fanatical - beastly word. It has no proper place in Christianity. I refuse

Two Others Left.

"Remain in the ranks of 'pos-sibles,' Mr. John Masefield and Mr

William Watson. The first-mentioned has a defective ear, or else I have-quite likely the latter case. His inhis lines and his rhymes depress me-even as this sentence does. Also imagine he is sometimes a little overbitter against the Philistine. This in a national poet would not do. Under the present Government the Philistines are predominant and rampant all over the country. They are a part, indeed, of our existence.

"Mr. William Watson should per-poems of Watson are British in the highest sense-in fact, he and Noyes are in strong rivalry. Both write boldly, with a scornful and outspoken intolerance of anything in the nature of a dirty trick; both read the story of the waves and the winds and

ity; and both can, on occasions, nierce

W. G. CARLING DEAD

Twenty Years Ago Was Well-Known

Resident of London. St. Paul, Minn., July 7.—William G.

Bear Lake. He was apparently in the having a good time with friends and neighbors, but suddenly complaining him. His death was a great shock to His wife and two children were with ford, was at Lake Minnetonka, and was overwhelmed when the news was

BANK ORDERED TO CLOSE.

Pittsburg. Pa., July 7.—The first 2nd National Bank of this city has been ordered closed by the acting comptroller of the state, and will not be opened for husings today.

74 best of health and spirits, and had been the whispering trees with equal facil-

haps take precedence of him.

sight and sympathy impress me, but to have any truck with it.

very clearly into the brick wall.

The worst indictment against

This, however, is digression.

A Bad Sign.

s life—is yet in use

utrid body corporate.

British Isles?

George will continue it, as his love for ncient institutions is well known. "Jeremiah," writing in the Throne

Abolish the poet laureateship?

POET LAUREATE

FAVOR KIPLING

Anniversary

Sale Now in

Wash Dresses, Linen

Dresses, etc., Middy Suits,

Waists, Suits of all colors;

All Millinery at Half Price

LONDON

READY-TO-WEAR

256 DUNDAS STREET.

FLORAL STORE

J. H. TAYLOR. PHONE 719.
Hanging baskets, lawn vases, window oxes. All kinds of bedding plants.

The Values We

Offer In Furniture

When buying Furniture you will find it to your advantage to

PATTON

247 Dundas St. Phone 1688

We are leaders in the growing and

CUT FLOWERS

F. Dicks & Son

235 Dundas St., Phone 1297.

AUCTION SALE

Tuesday, July 8, 2 sharp, at 122 Yorl treet. Elegant parlor suite, davenport ea rockers, rugs, oil paintings, side-oard, extension table, set of splendid iners, contents of five bedrooms, from crib, all complete, good range, heater gas plate, dishes, kitchen utensils, etc.. lawn mower; all nearly new. Everything to be sold, no reserve. Terms, cash. J. Lightfoot & Sons, auctioneers. Phone 2066.

in Ten Weeks

Clergyman Tells How Sanol's

Antidiabetes Cured an Old Case.

Such a case as that mentioned in our neadline seems almost miraculous, and in ten weeks; the remedy used was that of the great German Scientist which is

snown as SANOL'S ANTIDIABETES.

This remedy is of such a nature, as might be judged from the origin, it is a scientific preparation which in its nature and effects, is quite in keeping with the

The patient who was cured, as above stated, was for thirty years a practicing physician, and has been for some years clergyman in connection with the utheran Church of the Holy Spirit. His address is 514 Thirteenth street, College

Point, L. I., N. Y. In his letter he states

hat he is "able to certify that SANOL'S

ANTIDIABETES has done its full duty

The makers, the SANOL MANUFAC

peg, Man., have many similar testimonials, and can refer enquirles to numbers of people residing in Western Canada, as well as in many other Canadian and western cities who will be glad to vouch for the virtue of this remedy.

remedy.

The price is $2 00 per bottle.

The following leading druggists are special selling agents. Anderson & Nelles, Dundas street; W. T. Strong,

Dundas street; Taylor Drug Company Talbot street. J 7,9.12

Sole Agents for

GURNEY OXFORD RANGES

in one old case of diabetes within ten ethics of the medical practice.

yet it has actually been effected.

Cannot be beaten elsewhere.

EAST END

good variety of styles.

Full Swing

500 YARDS OF 17-INCH CRASH

TOWELLING,

With colored border, all linen. Sale special,

yard 5¢

ONE THOUSAND YARDS OF COLORED

FANCY MUSLINS,

Worth regularly 12½c and 15c. On sale

Wednesday at 8:30, for yard......614¢

WOMEN'S LONG SILK GLOVES,

In tan and gray, sizes 6 to 71/2. Regular $1

PLAIN AND FANCY MESSALINE AND

PAILLETTE SILK,

In colors only, regular 65c value. Sale

WHITE VOILE DRESSES FOR $4.95.

Just received a repeat shipment of Women's and Misses' White Voile Dresses with low neck and 3/4 sleeve, skirt trimmed with lace insertion, sizes 16 and 18 years, also 34, 36, 38 and 40 bust measure. Tuesday special$4.95

Girls' Dresses, made from American percales, gingham and chambrays, sizes 6 to 12 years. Tuesday special98¢

50 dozen Knitted Vests and Drawers, in fine rib. Sold regularly at 25c. On sale Tuesday morning at,

75c All-Wool Voile with silk stripe, black only, 42 inches wide. Tuesday only....49¢ 50c Kimono Dress Shields, the correct style (washable), sizes 2 to 4. On sale Tues-

WOMEN'S PRINCESS SLIPS. Made from good quality cambric with lace trimming. Sale special$1.19

$1.35 White Cambric Night Gowns with open front or slip over style, sizes 56 to 60. Sale price98¢ TEN DOZEN LONG HIP CORSETS

With soft skirt; have hose supports attached. Sizes 18 to 25. Tuesday only49¢ CHILDREN'S SILK LISLE STOCKINGS.

In sky, pink and black, sizes 41/2 to 7. On

AGENTS FOR BUTTERICK PATTERNS.

AGENTS FOR BUTTERICK PATTERNS.

Trying to Settle Big Boston Strike

Representatives of the Company and Men Are Holding Conference.

[Canadian Press.]

railway strike situation appeared to est in some years, but the farmers have been reached today, when repre- complain of being unable to secure sentatives of the Boston Elevated Rail- help. One man with 145 acres, the road Company and the Carmen's Union most of it in crop, has been unable to met a committee of the Chamber of secure a man, although he has offered Commerce, in an endeavor to settle $1.25 a day and board. Several farmers the controversy which has threatened to tie up practically the whole of the metropolitan electric system. James L. Richards, a director, appeared for the company, and the 8,000 employes were represented by Attorney James H. Vahey. The executive board of the Carmen's Union also was in session, prepared to give Mr. Vahey any instruction he might desire on points developed at the conference. The objection of the union to allowing Mayor Fitzgerald to name an arbitrator to act with two others chosen by the union and the company, as provided in the agreement made with the company, following the strike a year ago was the principle obstacle to a settlement which it was hoped would be removed. The failure of the central labor union to take action on the situation yesterday is accepted as an encouraging situation and labor leaders expressed the opinion that the negotiators would find some way out of the difficulty,

PORT STANLEY SUBSCRIBERS

Mr. W. E. Staples will look after The Advertiser interests at Port Stanley this season, and the same satisfactory arrangement regarding news items and delivering of papers that has been in force for the past five years is assured for this season. ondoners spending their holidays at Port can secure their Circulation Department, telephoning 3670, or notifying W. E. Staples, Port Stanley.

HANGED BY MOB

Negro Who Assaulted Girl Was Taken From Jail. [Canadian Press.]

Pensacola, Fla., July 7. — An uni-dentified negro, who had assaulted a young white girl at Bonifay, Fla., was taken from a railway station at Mil ton by a crowd of men late last night and after the arrival of a mob from Bonifay he was hanged to a telegraph role early today, then shot. The negro was taken from county officers, who had made desperate ef-

T. H. PURDOM, K.C.,

President.

Splendid Crop But Help Is Scarce

Farmer Near Bayfield Has Offered $1.25

a Day and Board. [Special to The Advertiser.]

Bayfield, July 7. - Crops in this sec-Boston, July 7.—A crisis in the street tion give promise of being the heavi-$1.25 a day and board. Several farmers intend going to London to secure some Special Investigation Shows the English immigrants on their arrival in

> The farmers of Goderich Township and residents of the village of Bayfield are wondering when the Postmaster-General is going to take some action on a petition forwarded to him some time ago, asking that the rural mail delivery be changed from morning to afternoon.

Some time ago Mr. D. C. Galbraith, among the farmers in this section and the residents of Bayfield. It was signed by everyone approached, with the exception of three. After forwarding it o the Postmaster-General Mr. Galoraith received word that the request would be investigated, but since then no action has been taken, and people are becoming indignant at the reatment accorded them, New arrivals at Deer Lodge Park who will summer here are: Mrs. H. C. Boyd and family, Hamilton; Mrs. Wilson and family, Goderich; Mr. J. Casey and daughter and the Misses Sauter, of St. Thomas; Mr. and Mrs. killed or injured last year. The re-James Fitzgerald, of London, and cords show that only about one-half liece, of Denfield.

Rev. W. H. Harvey, of London, ar-

Holiday Drownings Number TwentyFour

[Canadian Press.]

New York, July 7. - The triple holiday of July 4, 5 and 6 brought 24 pleasure-seekers to their death by drowning in local waters. Several persons lost their lives in this vicinity yesterfavorite newspaper by writing day and seven others were rescued from drowning only by the smallest margin. One of the accidents was witnessed by hundreds of persons on Riverside Drive. Joseph Ross and Julius Reiss. two young men, who had been cruising with friends in a launch, were trying to get ashore in a small rowboat, when the little craft was capsized and the men were swept away by the strong tide, P. M. McLighe, a medical student of Fordham University, swam out into the river and dived time and again in an effort to find the bodies, but he was unsuccess-

Heavy St. Lawrence Traffic. F. B. Clarke reports the traffic to 19 Montreal, Quebec and the Saguenay, via the Richelieu and Ontario Navigation Company, ahead of former forts to reach Pensacola with their years. Quite a few are also taking the Port Stanley route to Montreal.

NATHANIEL MILLS,

Managing Director.

FOURTEEN DIE EVERY DAY ON AMERICAN RYS.

Are of the Hobo Type.

Fondness of All Classes for Stealing Rides.

New York, July 7 .- On the doctrine of averages, fourteen people will be killed by American railroads tomorrow. An average of fourteen people, tresof Route No. 1, circulated a petition passers on railroad property in violation of the law, are killed in the United States every day. Of all the 10,446 people killed on American railway more trouble than any other word in property in 1912, 5.449 -more than half the dictionary. It is an intolerantwere trespassers.

But it is a mistaken idea that all trespassers are tramps; so, to find out really the class of people who trespass on railroad property in violation of the law, and in the face of probable death, the Pennsylvania Railroad conducted an exhaustive investigation of every case where a trespasser was of the 267 trespassers killed and the 276 injured on the lines east of Pittsrived at his cottage Thursday and burg were classed as "unidentified, will spend a few days here." The others were use-

All Classes. Among the 267 people who lost their ives while trespassing on Pennsylvania Railroad property were black smiths, farmers, carpenters, a cemetery sexton, clerks, a coal dealer, em ployes of other railroads, glass work ers, laborers, a mail carrier, miners, slack wire performer, a sailor, steel workers, students, a superintendent of a gas well, a soldier, and others from probably a dozen more vocations.

While only figures for the Pennsylvania lines east of Pittsburg have been analyzed, complete returns from the mists of doubt and unfaith to the every one of the roads of the system guiding light which has led the men show that 490 trespassers were killed who have led England. in 1912. The system's reports for the last thirteen years show 9,013 trespassers killed and 8,777 injured. The Figures.

		ollows:	or the	Past siz	Jeur
e as ronows.				,	Total
				Kil	led an
ear		Kil	led. Inj	ured. In	jured.
07				775
80			743	691	1,43
009			633	683	1,31
10			585	582	1,16
11			527	447	9
				492	9

Totals 3,894 3,670 7,564 of dizziness, he toppled over and ex-The above figures are pointed to as pired before medical aid could reach emphasizing the contention of the him. His death was a great shock to railroads that laws should be enacted the city, where he was so well known. providing substantial punishment for persons trespassing on the right of him at his death, but his older son, Clifay of any railroad

WILL EXCHANGE WOMEN

Government Is Willing to Give Six for Pascual Orozco.

[Canadian Press.]
Mexico City, July 7. — The Mexican Government is willing to exchange six women for Pascual Orozco, who has been in the hands of Club for many years, and was widely Emiliano Zapata's forces for several popular throughout Minnesota, because months. These women are Elimiano of his interest in this form of sport. Zapata's mother, his wife, his sister, He was a relative of Sir John Carland his three sisters-in-law.

The women were taken prisoners at Villa Ayala, in the State of Morelos, Zapata's old home. They were brought here and lodged in the barracks. They are authority for the statement that Orozco has not been executed, as several times reported.

Walked 30 Miles To Get Married

[Special to The Advertiser.] Wyoming, July 7 .- Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Smith, who reside west of Wyoming, are celebrating the 66th anniversary of their wedding. The ceremony was performed in Lanark County in 1847, and the bride and groom walked 30 miles to have the ceremony performed. This elderly couple are hale and hearty, and are still doing a fair quota of light work about their home. Eleven children, all married, with several grand and great-grand children, strive to make their declining days bright. Many interesting tales of early hardships when laborsaving devices were few and extremely crude, are told by Mr. and Mrs. Smith.

uilt on poetry. When song dies in he hesperides of Europe, manhood lies. . . . The laureateship is offi-LADY SACKVILLE'S LIFE READS LIKE ROMANCE

Beautiful and Brilliant Woman the Daughter of a Spanish Dancer-Might Fit Role of Becky Sharp.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

London, July 7.-"A living Becky calling Lady Sackville, the chief figure in a legal battle over nearly $5,or the job. This second consideration 000,000 left by the late Sir John Murray Scott. Her story is a thrilling novel in real life, as strange as any thing Thackeray wrote. orilliant, but too didactic—and Mrs. Meynell. The last-named can see as

This beautiful and brilliant woman is the daughter of a Spanish dancer whose name was Josephine Duran that she actually has seen on her re- d'Ortega.

In Josephine's heydey of youth and beauty, she met Baron Sackville, bachelor and owner of Lordly Knole, in on poets who may be considered Kent, England. He fell in love with the running. The first of these her, and the two were on close terms of course, Mr. Kipling. Shall we of intimacy for many years. Josephine nake Mr. Kipling laureate of these bore the noble Englishman several children. Finally he married her to legit imatize them.

nearty paganism about most of Mr. Later Lord Sackville came to the Kipling's versification that is lamentably, markedly national. He tried to United States as British ambassador inder the Cleveland administration. He be otherwise, but his ultimate attitude is remembered in America chiefly bethat of the first Saxon converts-a cause he was "given his passports"—in plain English, "kicked out"—for playrespect for rather than a perception of, the religion which has made the race. ing politics in the presidential election of 1888, "Becky the Second" was with n failing to grasp this, he has failed to understand the motive force behind our greatest men. He has seen the resultant courage, before which he is her father in Washington during his ambassadorship

"Becky Sharp," therefore, in spite of nisled to bow the knee, but not the reating Faith. In consequence, Mr. Sackville.' Kipling only represents a part of the British people. It is by far the largest out little cash, replenished the family execution to Oct. 9.

purse even more successfully than the original Becky, who maintained her noble husband in good society on 'nothing a year."

Lady Sackville met Sir John Scott, who himself had acquired wealth strangely. He was the son of a poor Scotch doctor, who had chanced to Carling, the best-known restaurant man treat the Marquis of Hertford once in d in Northwest States, proprietor of "Carling's Cafe," and one of the most familiar figures in St. Paul business secretary with his kinsman, Richard 34 life, died suddenly on the evening of Wallace, a rich and famous art collec-

6 July 5 at his summer cottage at White tor. The marquis died, Wallace inherited his title and fortune, young Scott stuck by the family and finally came into possession of $5,000,000 and French estates through Lady Wallace's will. Lady Sackville met him in 1897. her power.

Testimony at the probate trial now in progress shows that in one year, Sir John gave the woman broken to him. His funeral will be checks totalling $145,000, and that she held from Christ Church Monday. The and her husband benefited, at his exbody will lie in state during the fore-noon at church. Mr. Carling had lived also interfered in his private affairs, n St. Paul over twenty years, com- it appears, and dictated his social enng here from Winnipeg. He was 64 gagements.

years of age, born in Yorkshire, Eng., The climax came when, after Sir and grew to manhood at London, Ont. John's death in January, 1912, it was He was active in the St. Paul Driving found that he had left a will bequeath ing to Lady Sackville nearly $5,000,000 Sir John's four brothers and sisters who get a paltry $1,000,000 or so, were indignant and brought suit to invalidate

They declare that Sir John wrote : codicil before his death disinheriting Lady Sackville, and that it had been hidden or stolen. They have offered $50,000 reward for it.

Lady Sackville, however, insists on her $5,000,000 and is fighting it out.

Brownie

Brownie Camera waiting for his first snapshot. Come

Brownie family. They work like the BROWNIES $1.00 to $12.00

Strong's Drug Store

LONDON MAN DETAINED BY POLICE OF DETROIT

Has Been Acting in a Strange Manner and His Deportation May Follow.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Detroit, Mich., July 7. — Thomas
Welch is locked up at the central police station by the United States immigration authorities pending an examination as to whether he will make desirable citizen. Welch has been in Detroit several weeks and since his arrival has been acting queerly. Early Monday morning he was found by Detectives Good and Grosman wandering on the streets wearing house-slippers and but little clothing. He could not give a very good account of himself. Sharp is what the English people are Immigration Officer Frick will take his calling Lady Sackville, the chief figoffice at Washington, with the view of deporting him. While his case is being investigated he will be confined at the central police station.

> The only Thomas Welch whose name figures in the directory is in the

RESPITE FOR CHAS. GIBSON

Three Months Granted by the Government in Toronto Murder Case.

NEW TRIAL LIKELY

Toronto, July 7. - Less than fortyeight hours before the time set for him to be hanged for the murder of a junk dealer named Rosenthal, over a he stigma, was established as "Lady year ago, official word came to Chas. Gibson today that the Dominion cab-Then came the strange chapter in | inet had granted him a three months' which this woman, with great estates respite, having changed the date of

In the meantime Gibson ounsel and others, who have been foremost in the movement to secure for nim a new trial, will endeavor to substantiate their belief that new evidence has been secured to warrant such action to the satisfaction of the genuine case of diabetes has been cared Minister of Justice and his colleagues.

Thrown From Rig. - Lucy Walters, a ten-year-old child residing at 476 Park avenue, was thrown rom a rig on Sunday evening near her home, and was badly bruised and shaken up. She was taken to Vic-toria Hospital. Although not serioushurt she will have to remain at the hospital for a few days.

SEAFORTH.

Scaforth, July 7. — Mrs. M. A. Case s visiting in Toronto with her son, Mr. T. R. F. Case, and her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Pangman. Miss Jessie Habkirk, milliner, at Jarvis, has returned home for the

Mrs. Charles A. Stewart and children, of Portland, Ore., have arrived TURING COMPANY, Main street Winniand will spend the summer at their

Rev. F. H. Larkin left on Wednesday or the west, where he will spend a month's holidays sightseeing. Rev. E. A. Corbett and bride have eft for their home in Watrous, Sask., going by boat from Sarnia to Port Arthur and G. T. P. to Watrous.

Mr. Charles Clark is laid up with a slight attack of rheumatism. Miss Maud Hartry, of Red, Deer, Alberta, is home for the summer va-Mr. R. E. Cresswell and the Misses Cresswell have left for the Pacific coast on a holiday trip. They will make the journey in easy stages, stopping off at Winnipeg, Regina, Calgary Banff, and Kamloops, B. C. Mrs. Laurie, of Seattle, Wash., is the ruest of her sister, Mrs. Samuel Dick-

The Canadian Furniture Manufacurers' plant has shut down for two weeks' stocktaking and repairs. The annual union Sunday school excursion will be held on Tuesday to Goderich.

The Army of

le Growing Smaller Every Day.

ness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Sallow Skin,

SMALL PILL, SMALL DOSE, SMALL PRICE

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS are responsible—they not only give relief-

they po manently

cure Constipation. Mil-

Constipation

Smallman & Ingram WALLACEBURG. Wallaceburg, July 7 .- Miss Clare Jack

son has returned from a visit to Owen

Mr. D. Fullmer, of Fitchberg, is spendng a few days here.

Mr. Will Yeates, of New York, is visit ng his mother. Mr. Max Scott has accepted a position with the McClary Co., of London.

Miss Nettle Dupont entertained twelver of her girl friends to a launch party, to noo Park recently.

J. Dunlop, of Detroit, is spending a few days here.

Mrs. John Scott has returned from a trip to Port Dover.

The Orangemen attended service at Knox Church, on Sunday.

In the storm Friday evening, the residence of Mrs. Hall was struck by lightning, causing fire. The fire engine extinguished the blaze before much damage was done.

The church at Mrs. W. Steep held. The funeral of Mrs. W. Steer, held from her residence to the Wallaceburg Cemetery, was conducted by Rev. T.

NAPIER.

Napier, July 7 .- Mrs. W. S. Calvert and daughters visited friends here re-Miss Bessie Tompkins is home from ondon Hospital, where she undervent an operation for appendicitis. The Busy Bees' Mission Band met n Saturday afternoon at the home of Miss Allegra Walper.

CORRESPONDENTS LEAVE.

[Canadian Press.]
Belgrade, Servia, July 7, A numper of war correspondents have leffor the Servian headquarters at Uskup. The commander of the Servian troops announces that the newspapermen will be allowed to go to the front.

and depositors$1,138,418.50