ERRORS ASSIST SAINTS TO WIN FROM REISLING

London Manager Should Have Had a Shut-Out.

BAD PEG GIVES SAINTS
A START IN SEVENTH

Whitcraft Was Spiked In Fourth Inning, Adding to London's Hard Luck.

BY BERT PERRY.
IT WAS the Saints' turn to get in a wall at the old London Tenu-mash over in the West London baseball stadium yesterday afternoon. The Saints is a polite team, but the Londoners are a different kind of team. They are a team of errors and blunders, and they are not a team of winners.

As we said in the beginning, it was St. Thomas' turn to get in a wall at the old London Tenu-mash over in the West London baseball stadium yesterday afternoon. The Saints is a polite team, but the Londoners are a different kind of team. They are a team of errors and blunders, and they are not a team of winners.

For several seasons a pitcher's name has been a household word in London. It is the name of a man who has been a pitcher for many years, and he has been a pitcher for many years.

Not a run flickered across the pan until the sixth inning. The athletes were having a lot of difficulty even locating second base. The first three frames witnessed a bunch of gents falling by the wayside in trying to get a chance to run.

Reisling scores first run.
Merritt's smash shot of saved the way for the locals, for in the sixth inning the first run was scored across the pan. A little luck accompanied it. "Doc" Reisling had walked in this inning, after Danford had fired to Kopp. A wild pitch sent Reisling on second, and Eddie Lamy fanned. Cy Reid sent up a high fly that Hadley and Inker both lost in the sun, and Reisling scored.

Previous to his hit, Cy had been given a life by Forgie, who muffed his high back of third base owing to the cloudless sky. This run looked like a million dollars at the time, but the Saints ran into a lot of luck in their half of the seventh.

Two men were out in the seventh before the visitors started the fireworks.
Stewart was thrown out by Myers, and Cy Reid was thrown out by Danford.
Reid jumped into the air and pulled down Inker's long drive. Myers had a chance to reach the middle pillow, but he was out when he was thrown out.

Reid sent up a fly into short right field.
Harry went after it, but the sun bothered him, and he dropped the ball after partly getting his fingers on it. Harris getting to third. Reid tried to steal second, and Danford threw to get him.
The throw was bad, but Whitcraft recovered the ball in time to catch Harris between third and the plate. Schaffer and Danford then tried to run the St. Thomas catcher down, and during the proceedings Schaffer denied Harris in the sun with the pill, allowing him to get safe at the plate, and also allowing Reid to score before the ball was recovered. "Doc" Reisling was so settled over this play that he walked Forgie. Douglas followed with an infield hit, Schaffer not being able to get on Ort's grounder.

London started a rally.
London tried to get the three runs back in the eighth, but only managed to score one. After Myers had about scored on a fly to Stewart, Danford hit over Stewart's head for two bases, and counted on Reisling's single, left, to score. Reid's infield fly, the only infield fly that was caught all afternoon, but Cy Reid got a double down the left field line. Reid being stopped at third. Douglas was de-railing here, and Reid sent in. The fans yelled for a pinch-hitter, and Reid sent in Bowden. He was easily expunged on a weak grounder to Reid.

Inker's single, Reid's pop to right field on Todd's sacrifice, and Forgie's single to left, gave the Saints a pair of counters in the ninth. In London's half, Schaffer and Myers got hits, but the side was retired before any runs came across.
The London team was crippled by the absence of Eckstein, who is out of the game with a bad leg. The team was not needed off in several places as a result of sliding into the plate at third on Wednesday. He will likely be in the pastime today. Reid played left field and La Bate went to right.
Merritt was back first base. In the fourth Whitcraft received a bad spike wound when Ort was caught at second base. Whitcraft continued in the game, but could hardly walk after having the injury dressed. It may keep him out for several days.

Sun Bothered Fielders.
The brilliant sun and cloudless sky bothered the players a great deal.
Forgie, Schaffer and Myers dropping infield flies, and Hadley dodging one which Reid sent up. The teams have played under cloudy skies nearly every day, with the result that they have not yet got used to the sunny ones. The outfielders had trouble, also, but no errors were made out there.

UMPIRE IN AMERICAN LEAGUE

Here he is—Bobby Wallace, the oldtimer, who is now umpiring in the American League. This is his latest photograph in the uniform of the St. Louis Browns, with whom he played so many years.

SOME FOUL TIPS AND A FEW LINERS

It was a tough game to lose yesterday, but let's go back at those Saints and grab the next three.

Reisling was going great and should have had a shut-out. The Saints could not locate his spitter in the pinches at all, and he kept all their hits scattered until the seventh inning.
With Luck in the Infield, the London Club should be considerably strengthened. There is no denying that Harry Myers has been a pretty big weak spot since the season opened. Harry does not seem to show the "pep" necessary for a second baseman.

Eddie Lamy failed to get on yesterday. Eddie was popping them up or hitting the ball right at somebody.
Earl Merritt looks good, and he is making quite an impression on the fans.
He handles himself very neatly around the first cushion, and also steps into the ball nicely at the plate.

RED SOX CLIMB UP EVEN WITH TIGERS

Defeated St. Louis Browns by One Run in Hitting Game.

COLLINS BEATS MACKMEN

Detroit, With Altered Line-Up, Gets Verdict Over Washington.

BOSTON, June 17.—The Red Sox moved into a tie for second place in the American League race by winning from St. Louis today, 11 to 10. Two games were scheduled for the Bunker Hill Day program, but the morning contest was postponed because of rain.
St. Louis, which had been the better team, solving the delivery of Ruth, which had perplexed them to the extent of eleven strike-outs in seven innings, drove him from the box in the eighth, when they scored seven runs. The Sox pressed the locals closely by hitting Mays, but Boston was able to add to its total off Hoch, who was Ferryman, Hoch and Severide; Ruth, Mays and Thomas.

EDDIE COLLINS STARTED.
PHILADELPHIA, June 17.—Eddie Collins' batting, fielding and baserun-ning featured the game today, in which Chicago defeated Philadelphia 3 to 0.
Eddie made two doubles and a single and drew a pass in four trips to the plate, stole two bases and drove in one run and scored another against his former team-mates. In addition he accepted ten chances. Score: R. H. E.

SHAKE-UP HELPS TIGERS.
WASHINGTON, June 17.—Detroit altered its line-up today to obtain batting strength, and the change had the desired result, the Tigers winning the first game of the series with Washington, 4 to 2. Score: R. H. E.

SIX STRAIGHT FOR YANKEES.
NEW YORK, June 17.—The New York Yankees made six straight wins today, taking the first game of their Cleveland series by a score of 7 to 3.
Caldwell held Cleveland to two hits until the ninth, when a misplayed fly by High paved the way for three Cleveland runs. Score: R. H. E.

Cleveland—0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—3 6 1 Jones, Harstad and O'Neill; Caldwell and Sweeney.

Douglas made his initial appearance in the Canadian League yesterday. He has a bunch of stuff, but seems to lack experience. Stewart pulled him just at the right time. Another minute and it would have been all over.

Canadian League Players Had Many
Boots Yesterday
Thirty-Three Errors Were Made in the Three Games.

The Canadian League established a record for making errors yesterday. In the three games played, some 33 boots were recorded. This is an average of 11 per game, or 5.50 per team. St. Thomas had the least number of any of the teams, only two errors being credited to the Saints. Hamilton and Brantford had three each, and Ottawa and London 5 each. Guelph had three.

It is doubtful if any three games ever before had as many errors as the day produced as many errors as that.

twisted for the Leafs and was never in trouble.

baseball, played on McCormick's diamond, last night, Askin Street defeated Dundas Centre by the score of 8 to 3.
Hamilton's wideness in the first inning enabled Askin Street to score 7 runs in the first inning, five of which were scored on a single by the batting of Pritchett and Hedden for Askin Street and Davis of Dundas Centre.

A. GILLIES TOOK BOTH JUNIOR HARRIER EVENTS

The Junior London Harriers gathered in each case and overcame some big handicaps.

Johnston (4 yards); 4. R. Wray (11

Splendid List of Entries for Manufacturers' Meet

All Events Are Well Filled This Year—Athletes From All Over Ontario Are Competing—Soldiers' Events Will Be Features.

If the size of the entry list is any criterion, the manufacturers' athletic meet which will be held in Queen's Park Saturday afternoon, will be the biggest and best ever staged here. Unusual interest seems to be centred in the meet this year, owing to the greater number of events and the soldiers' competitions. The battalions are well represented and the events for soldiers only should be features.

The number of new athletes who have attended the meet this year attests to the popularity of the event and the increasing prominence it is receiving in the eyes of the athletes of Western Ontario.
The list of 60 entries, together with the time each event will be run off and the number of the competitors, is as
