EDWARDS—ANDERSON.

"Trevithon Lodge," the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Watson, Hyde Park, was the scene of a pretty autumn wedding on Tuesday afternoon, October 9, when their niece, Edith Lillian, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Anderson, Richmond street, London, was united in marriage to James Leonard Edwards of Toronto, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Edwards of Orangeville, the Rev. A. S. H. Cree, London, officiating.

The bride entered the spacious drawing room with her father, who gave her in marriage. The wedding music was played by Miss Florence Watson, cousin of the bride. She wore a simple sleeveless gown of castor accordion pleated georgette, with a French hat of panne velvet to match, and carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and Illies of the valley, her only ornament being a white gold wrist watch, the gift of the groom.

Miss Marjorle Edwards, Toronto, sister of the groom, who acted as bridesmaid, was prettily gowned in peach georgette, with pleture hat of black velvet, and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Mr. William Wright of Toronto acted as best man.

After the ceremony a dainty wedding luncheon was served. The occasion also marked the twenty-sixth wedding anniversary of the bride's parents.

Later in the day the happy couple week's regular meeting of the Baptist Young People's Union of the Talbot Street Baptist Church was an illustrated lecture, delivered by S. S. Hudgell on "The Life of David Livinstone." Mr. Stewart Ivison, the president, was in the chair, and the Scripture lesson was read by Miss Pearl Blackwell.

Later in the day the happy couple left by motor for Buffalo and Rochester, the bride traveling in a suit of brown marvella with beaver trimmings, and hat and shoes to match. On their return they will reside in Toronto. The only out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Edwards, parents of the groom.

TALBOT STREET CIRCLE.

A large gathering greeted Miss Kate MoLaurin, returned missionary from India, last evening in the church parlors of Talbot Street Baptist Church, the occasion being the annual thankoffering meeting of the Women's Mission Circle. Mrs. D. H. McDermid made a charming presiding officer. After Miss Green had read the Scripture lesson from the 35th chapter of Isalah, Miss Baldwin led in prayer, and there was a pleasing solo by Mr. Ed. Webster. Miss McLaurin gripped her hearers for almost an hour with her vivid presentation of the transformation going on through the instrumentality of the love of God, through the workers, and in the natives of India.

Mrs. J. W. Jones and Mrs. Minhinnick voiced a happy vote of thanks for the inspiring vision, Miss McLaurin had presented.

Two new life members were welcomed to the circle.

The cellection for missionary work was very gratifying. Mrs. Arthur Greenslade was the accompanist for the evening, and the splendid meeting closed with the singing of "There Shall Be Showers of Blessings."

Mrs. W. Boyd gave a splendid address on "The Japanese Leaders" at the regular meeting of the Epworth League of Wellington Street Methodist Church, last Monday evening. Mrs. Boyd concluded with a stirring plea for the mission relief fund. Miss Ida Wambole presided over the meeting at which arrangements were made to attend the convention next Monday evening in Dundas Centre Methodist Church.

JUNIOR B. Y. P. U.

Miss Rosa Murtah presided over the week's regular meeting of the Junior B. Y. P. U. of Maitland Street Baptist Church, when the program included many details of business. Miss Dorothy Brown played an onjoyable biano solo and the Bible lesson was read by Miss Edna Barnes. ST. PAUL'S W. A.

With the election of officers and other items of business disposed of very successfully, the annual meeting yesterday of the St. Paul's Women's Association was both progressive and enthusiastie. The following are the new officers: Honorary prestdent, Mrs. Tucker; president Mrs. J. G. Boucher; first vice-president Mrs. T. H. Carling; second vice-president, Mrs. Duncan; secretary, Mrs. H. H. Coleman; treasurer, Mrs. William S. Grant. The executive includes Mrs. Estella Chadwick, Mrs. Harley Brown, Miss Shaw-Wood, Miss Fawkes, Miss Knox. Mrs. F. W. Farncombe, Miss A. A. Harris, Miss A. GUILD SALE.

The Chancel Gulid of St. James' Church, South London, of which Mrs. C. B. Edwards is the convener, is holding a rummage sale in the parishhall of the church on Friday, Oct. 12. GUIDE PROGRAM.

GUIDE PROGRAM.

The delightful program, which has already been presented on several occasions by the Girl Guides of St. Mathew's Church; and a number of members of the junior congregation of Christ Church, has perhaps met with no more appreciative audiences than that of yesterday afternoon, when the dances and songs were presented for the residents of the Victoria Home on Grand avenue, the Boy Scout Troop of Christ Church contributing also to the program.

Miss Mary Connor is the directress, and those who took part follow: Miss Peggy Finney, Miss Marlon Finney, Miss Mabel Stewart, Miss Adams, Miss Violet Mason, as well as the members of the scout troop.

SUNSHINE SPREADERS.

SUNSHINE SPREADERS. A reorganization meeting of the Sunshine Spreaders of Christ Church was held on Thursday evening last, with fifteen members present. Miss Edith Parkinson, the new president, was in the chair and conducted the hypersease. business of the evening. Plans for the year were discussed and various responsibilities assigned to many of the girls. Refreshments were served at the conclusion.

CHRIST CHURCH GIRLS.

The physical side of the C. G. I. T. program was stressed at the regular meeting Monday night of a number of girls of Christ Church. Miss May Savill and Miss Marjorie Pearce gave worth while talks on "A Good Sport." Miss Ross, the leader, explained the five divisions of the C.-G. I. T. physical program. At the close of the sical program. At the close of the meeting proper the girls enjoyed an

TALK ON "CHINA." Miss Edith Sparling, a missionary returned from China, gave an excellent address on her work in that country at last night's meeting of the Young Women's Mission Circle of the Colborne Street Methodist Church. The regular meeting was held over until last night, that the members might have the opportunity of hearing Miss Sparling. Mrs. E. F. Howard presided over the meeting which included solos by Mrs. Frank Webster and Mrs. McGuire, and several delightful readings by Miss Helen Barbour. The Bible lessons were read by Miss Phyllss Johnston and Barbour. The Bible lessons were read by Miss Phyllss Johnston and Miss Emma Scott

There was an excellent musical program provided by pupils of Miss Belle Brown—Miss Muriel Atkinson, Miss Sharratt, Miss Eula Abbott, Miss Eva Metcalfe, and Mr. Louis Dean. A number of readings were given by Miss Irene Deacon and Miss Winnifred Hardin. Two interesting charades were given under the leadership of Miss Cora Mitchell and Miss Bessie Dobbyn. A novel feature of the meeting was the introduction of a "Fishbowl," which indicated the number of members enrolled, 45 members, and 6 life members.

There was a missionary contest in which tiny Chinese articles were given as prizes. These were won by Miss Lottie Wilson, Miss Myrtle Justin, and Miss Florence West. At the conclusion of the meeting, refreshments were served by a committee under the convenership of Mrs. F. B. Kilbourne, with Mrs. H. E. Lawson, Mrs. Sam Thomas, and Mrs. F. P.
